Omaha won the first game of the present series from Pueblo at Vinton street pars Friday afternoon before a well filled grandstand of women who had come out for two reasons; one, because it was ladies' day and the other because they had heard that Eddie Quick was to pitch for Selee. Quick has not struck his stride at base ball this spring. He used the gait he got onto at the roller rink lost winter and that is different from base ball. Sam Crewtord used the ring as training quarters and seemed to round to all o. k. in the spring, but not so with Quick. Perhaps he worked harder at the game than did Wahoo Sam and it is taking him louger to get over it. At any rate he had no control of the ball, was all for ten safe ones and walked nine, which is enough to lose almost any ball game. Quick was always the ladies' man of the bemaha team, and Pa liked to trot him out for the amusement of the women of holes' day, but it broke his heart yestermy to have Selee order him to the front. He knew he was in so condition to pitch and he knew before he went in the would be a shattered idol when he same out and he was right. Koukalik, on the other hand, had things all his own way. Not a man hit him safely until the fourth, and that was Shugart, with two out and it caunted for nothing. Sisler made a double in the sixth but it did him no good, for he died right on the sack. Omaha had accumulated eight runs and was that many to the good when Pueblo came to bat in the seventh liming. Koukalik decided he was far enough ahead to lies' a little and the first thing he knew Old Man Shugart had soused out a triple. Elisworth hit a high one to Fenion, but Shugart was tee foxy to try to come home and it was well he didn't for Fenion threw it atraight as a die to Gonding in plenty of time to have caught Shugart home with another triple and Meyers struck out. Meyers is one of Selee's new men and was loaned to him by Denver, that team securing him from Louisville. In the jumping the strength of Harvard in the bigh jump was one of the surprises of the afternoon, only Pennsylvania and Yale getting a place in this event.

It is possible that two protests, which are still under consideration and may not be decided for a week or more, may have an effect upon the final standing. Young of Syracuse, who won a place in the 250-yard hurdles, has been protested by Pennsylvania on the ground that he participated in open games in Philadelphis last fall. Zink of Columbia, who won a second place in one of the trial heats of the hair-mile run, has also been protested. CORNELL WINS SECOND BOAT BACE Oarsmen from Ithaca Again Defeat Crimson Bowers.

Crimson Rowers.

BOSTON, May 25.—Cornell won her second annual boat race with Harvard this afternoon by about three lengths. Harvard made a better showing than in its last year's race with the Ithacans, when it met defeat by about seven lengths, but the sturdy Cornell men, when once they gained a slight lead gradually increased the distance to the end of the course. The official time was:

Cornell, 19:43 3-5; Harvard, 19:52. Distance, its miles.

Two other events comprised the program of today's regatta besides the big race. They were the race between the preparatory school crews of Cascadilla at Ithaca and Stone of this city and the single scull race for the Carroll cup for Harvard coarsmen. Cascadilla won by a length and a half in 8 15-15. The distance was 15-16 miles.

E. E. Smith of the lew school won the Carroll cup in 8 17 1-5 seconds. The course was one mile.

At the signal for the start of the varsily race both crews were almost one in catching the water. They started at a brisk pace; Harvard rowing 35 and Cornell 36. At the quarter mile stake Cornell was in the lead and soon had pulled its shell one quarter of a length ahead of Harvard. Shortly after this both crews reduced their stroke slightly until at the half mile Cornell pulled at 32 and Harvard harvard held on tenaciously and at an encouraging word from Coxswain Blagden tried bravely to recover some of the lost distance. The attempt was fruitless, however, and Cornell continued to draw slowly away. On the last quarter of the race both crews made a magnificent spurt, but Harvard was unable to do better than keep down to three lengths the gain of the Ithacans.
