But he kept watch over toward the other

"Muzzer, can I have a rosy apple?" he

"Which hand?" repeated Ted. And then,

The gift of the rosy apple quite won the little girl, and soon mother saw them play-

A Dish-Washing Game,

One day at school during the afternoon recess some of the girls in the fifth grade were sliting under the big maple tree in "I just hate to wash dishes," declared

"And I don't think there is a girl here "Girls is gentle, but boys is boys," Teddie but has to wash dishes and wipe them, "I do," "So do I," "And I," "And I," answered a number of the girls.

"So do I." said Grace Brown.

"And don't you all hate it?" asked Mamie. I like to wash and wipe dishes," said "A gentle-man," mother repeated slowly." Majorle Dean. "Why, Majorie!" cried half a dozen girls

"Yes, I do. It's lots of fun," replied Majorie. "Then you must wash dishes different

"Why do you like it, Majorie?" asked Flora Gray. "Tell us; please tell us," cried the other

"Yes, do," said Mamie "Your hands get so greasy."

"And the water's hot. Then they listened while Majorie began, wash dishes as much as any of ze house next door, and I'z going Then very quietly be trotted over there, you gir, at till one day mamma told me how and from her window mother saw him, to play a game while I was working. I So Teddie ran out, and as soon and saw what he held in his chubby hands make t elieve that the dishes belong to famllies-the dinner plate to one family, the "Little girl," said Teddie, "I've someting saucered to another, the cups to another and "Hi, little girl zere! Come over here and nice for you. Which hand will you take?" like that, And when I put them in the The little girl put her finger shyly to big dishiban I play they're at a piculo and are all having a good time. It helps you to keep) them clean when you play they're as she was too bashful to answer, he held real people. I havn't broken a dish since I began that way. Then when I put them "Zat's yours," he said. "Ze biggest one, in the cupboard I play they're going home And I's anuszer for myself. And my from the picnic. I used to just hate to put name's Teddie Clark, and I'd like to play the dishes on the shelves and I never could remember where they belong, but now I put the families together-first the plates, then the fruit plates, then the queers-and it's the most fun." ever thought of making a game of Cuddle Time. evening shadows gather, 'tis cuddle time, I know, In the gleaning western sky.

ad he cuddles to me nearer,
As the firelight softly glows,
and across the dusky portals
Ghostly flickering shadow, throws, and two dimpled arms about me
Are charged righter for a kinAh, was richer, rarer necklises
Placed about one's neck than this?

And I clasp and hold him closer.
Little tousled head of gold,
as he begs ded for a "tory"
Which a hundred times I've teld;
Begs to have me "tell it over"—
Of the quaint Red Hiding Hood,
Or the bears—that happy family
Living in the deep, dark wood.

Soon the drooping drooping lashes wer down;

In his sleeping, dreamlag eyes. Shines the beauty of the dawn.

Till I know that into De amisad
My wee golden head had gone.
Ah, the sweetness of the pleasure,
Making lift one golden rhyme,
With a dimpled babe to fondle
When it someth ouddle time!
