Base Ball Writers Declare for Dissolution of Western League.

MIKE CANTILLON MUST RULE THE GAME

In Event of O'Neil Being Deposed by Meeting at Omaha the Cantillon Brothers Will Enter lows. Capital in American.

Since going to Des Moines Papa Bill Rourke has been more or less badgered by the reporters for the newspapers, but for once in his life Papa Bill has managed to keep his mouth shut under pressure. He has gone on record to the extent of saying that he would not attempt to forecast the outcome of the league meeting to be held on Saturday. One of the seribes, the enterprising youth who writes for the Register-Leader, puts a lot of profanity into the mouth of the Omaha magnate, and Mr. G. S. Cake, who writes for the Capital, over his own name, delivers himself of the following:

It will be fairly and squarely put up to the magnates and managers of the Western league in Omaha next Saturday by the Cantillons, and through Mike Cantillon, that if the Rourke-Holmes-Carney combination want to depose President O'Nell and succeed in doing so, and take the management of the league over to themselves, they can do so at the almost certain risk of disrupting the league. It is not thought that these men will be so foolish. They have always been given credit for better business sense, and none know so well as they that any action causing the separation of the league from Des Moines would give the league a body blow from which it would not recover this season. What better indication could there be of this than the fact that yesterday-blue Monday-2,000 people attended the game?

The Cantillons have taken a decisive stand and if Saturday's meeting in Omaha the fact that yesterday—blue Monday—2,000 people attended the game?

The Cantillions have taken a decisive stand and if Saturday's meeting in Omaha results in Fresident O'Neil being ousted most any old thing is likely to happen. On the face of it it is an improbable proposition. The Cantilion-Tebeau faction control the heard of directors of the Western league and should the other faction act against O'Neil it will have to be regarded as "snap judgment."

Rourke is off on a bad tack. Tou have but to talk to the man five minutes to become convinced that his policy is one of rule or ruln. In forcing the Cantillon-Tebeau interests to resort to injunction proceedings in Omaha to prevent the first meeting called of the league magnates he firmly believes that he has scored a great point.

firmly believes that he has scored a great point.

There is no gainsaying the fact that he may win out with the help of Hoimes and Carney. Selee as yet is an unknown quantity in the fight. Selee has only committed himself so far as to say that better umpires and better discipline must be had in the league. This looks as though he might take the E-wirke end of the muddle. This would lead as enough teams to swing a league—such as it would be.

It is quite safe to say that if Mike Cantillon had not jumped out from the opening of the season and played winning ball this trouble would never have happened. All the fire is concentrated against him for at this time he has shown that he has every other team in the league backed clear off the board.

Word came out of Milwaukee several days ago from Joe Cantillon for the Des Moines club to fight to the limit for its "rights," and by "rights" it is meant that President O'Neill shall not have the tinware tied to him by the combination aforesaid.

In event that the league should break up ware tied to him by the combination aforesaid.

In event that the league should break up and that Des Moines should become an outcast—which is not probable—the fans can rest assured that they will profit by the change. It can be stated upon authority that Des Moines next year would be in the class where, judging from present playing strength, it belongs—in the American association. The team today is faster than the second division of the association rate of the demand. Tebeau has anything on it when it demand. Tebeau has two teams in the American association, why not the Cantillons? There are any number of considerations favoring the change. Principally there is the matter of attendance. Des Moines in the American association would—bes apaying proposition all ground. Last year when Kansas City put up with the Mutts 200 and 400 people was the regular week-day attendance. Yesterday Des Moines turned out 2,006! It is unquestion ular week-day attendance. Yesterday Des Moines turned out 2,005! It is unquestion-ably the best base ball town of its size in the United States, and with all that could be brought to it by the Cantillons it has every right to shake the smaller company it now is in. Since the regime of the Cantillons where has Milwaukee turned for for me good men as ever went on its for for as good men as ever went on its team? To Des Moines.

MAHER WINS THE ENGLISH DERBY

American Jockey Rides Splendid Race on Spearmint.

LONDON, May 30.—Spearmint won the Derby stakes of 6.500 sovereigns for entire coits and fillies foaled in 1903, about one mile and a half, at Epsom today.

Dugdale's Picton was second and the duke of Westminster's Troutbeck was third. The winner is owned by Sir Tatton Sykes. Twenty-two horses started.

Derby day as a national institution shows no signs of decaying. Old stagers who have traveled over the dusty roads from London to Epsom annually for decades, today declared they never before had seen such a rush, while the railways, although they ran scores of specials, were unable to accommodate the Epsom-bound people. Ideal weather helped to swell the holiday crowds and the contrasts and cosmopolitanism of modate the Epsom-bound people. Ideal weather helped to swell the holiday crowds and the contrasts and cosmopolitanism of throngs composing the road-borne traffic were as marked as ever. The Park Lane millionaire and the costermonser exchanged badinage as the four-horse cosches and costly motor cars jostled the costers' barrews and tradesimen's carts flowing in a continuous stream toward the race course. The general din was terrific. To the inharmonious waits of the bugies, cornets, harps, violins and mouthorgans was added the rattle and throb of motors and the blasts of their horas incessanily sounding in futile endeavors to get the costers to draw their donkeys on one side so as to allow the automobiles to hurry on to their goal. The motor busses, seen on the road for the first time, carried full complements. Ling Edward and a party of friends came down by special train in time for the first race. Ambassador Reed was another cardy striat!

Maher, the American jockey, rode Spearmint. The great race of the day presented a perplexing problem and the experts found themselves at a loes to select the probable winner with twenty-two runners (the largest field since Volodyovski, five years ago, won the great prize for the late William L. Whitney, a dozen of which were equally rancied by their respective stables, there had not been such an open derby for years. Until yesterday Mr. Purefoy's tally held first place in the betting, but yesterday evening Lally was dethroned in favor of Spearmint. This morning Lally issumed hirst place in the betting and started a favorite at 4 to I against. It took some time to get the horses aligned, but they linally were sent off to a good start. Troutbeck jumped to the front and led to the mile post, when Picton assumed command, but gave way again to Troutbeck on descending the hill. A quarter of a mile from home Picton came on with a rush and again assumed the leader, gradually drew up level, furged the leader, gradually drew up level, furged ahead and won by a length. Ploton intening second. Troutbeck third and Radium fourth. Two lengths separated second and third horses. Martin. American, rode Troutbeok.

This was Maher's third derby, His previous wins were on Rocksand and Cicero. The Jocksy, who is a great favorite in England, received an ovation on returning to the scale.

The demand did not appear to be very urgent and buyers were not particularly anxious for supplies. Still there was a lair demand and they would take the cattle if they could get them at steady prices, but there was no appearance of strength or activity. The whole market might be summed up as slow at about steady prices, with heavier cattle, if anything, a little weaker.

There were very tew cows or heifers in sight, the proportion of that kind of cattle among receipts being light. The market did not show very much change, being generally quoted as steady, but the trade was, if anything, a little more active than was the case with beef steers.

There were no stockers or feeders harring a few odds and ends in the yards and nothing upon which to base an estimate of values. It would be safe, however, to call the market unchanged.

8HEEP—There was no question about it being a holiday in the big sheep barn this morning. Only five cars were reported in and they were decidedly trashy, there not being a single car of good stock, either sheep or lambs on sale. In other words there was not enough of anything on sale to really make a test of values. Two cars here brought prices that looked about steady and that is the most that can be said about it. The feeling was full and as a matter of course there could be no great life or activity worked up on five cars of common atuff. Lambs of pretty deemt quality, but grassy, sold at $5.19.

It is safe to say that the lamb market is 26 $25c lower than the extreme high point of the year. There have not been is 25@35c lower than the extreme high point of the year. There have not been
