Maloney Favors Old Plan.

Councilman Maloney took the position that it would not be safe to abide by one man's judgment and that it would be far better for the city to do as originally planned, to have three engineers place a value on the present plant, one to be selected by the city, the second by the water works company and the third by the two. Councilman Knudsen practically declared himself in favor of the city shapdoning any idea of purchasing the present plant, and going ahead and building a new one. MILITIA ASKS FOR RECOGNITION

Iowa Border Brigade Senda Petition to Congress.

WEBSTER CITY, ia., May IL-(Special.) A movement has been started among the Grand Army of the Republic in this part of lowa to get recognition for the Northern Border brigade, which served in northern lows during the late 50's guarding the inhabitants from the attacks of the Indians. The men who served in this brigade have never been recognized by the government and cannot draw pensions for the services rendered their country at that time. , This brigade it was which went to the reache of the settlers after the Spirit Lake massacre in 1557 and for months afterward patrolled a large area in northern Iowa. Comparatively few of these men survive today, but many of them have contracted various diseases because of the service. and the Grand Army of the Republic members believe they are entitled to as much recognition as the men who fought in the civil war. Winfield Scott post, Grand Army of the Republic, of this city has G. Wadsworth's residence, at routing as for the frace for congress in the First district. He states that for personal business and "political reasons" he is impelled brigade. It has been forwarded to Con-terday at noon. A fire had been taken the initiative in the matter and has

Some Fruit Damaged.

Secretary Wesley Green of the State Horticultural society has received reports from over the state regarding the recent cold snap. Some fruits were seriously damaged, notably plums, which were not crop in the state this year is expected to be almost nothing.

"Strawberries were set back, but were not killed," said Mr. Green today, "and cherries were slightly retarded. The peach crop was not affected, according to my reports, and will be bigger than ever. Vegetables were not hurt with the exception of tomatoes. In much of the low country the plants were set back, some were killed and many will have to be replanted." Secretary John Simpson of the State Department of Agriculture is preparing to register thousands of stallions and bulls, the new law providing for registration going into effect July 4. The statute does not require all buils and stallions to be registered. It does require registration with the state of all stallions and bulls which are represented as registered in any stud or herd book. That is, if a farmer has a bull or stallion which he does not claim ts registered, he need not register him with the state's official. If, however, he claims it is a registered animal, he must get a state certificate.

Capitol Decorating About Ended.

The decoration of the interior of the state capitol is about finished and when the workmen finally remove their scaffolding and depart the fine stone structure on Capitol hill will be in better condition than at any time since it was completed. nearly a quarter of a century ago. For the last month the work of decoration has been confined to the walls and cellings of the offices of the state departments. In each figures typical of the work of the department have been painted in. For instance, in the railroad commissioner's offices the decoration in the cellings and horders include allegorical pictures of engines, cars, trains, railway tracks, etc. In the offices of the department of agriculture the borders contain row after row of ears of corn, while the celling figures portray the plow and scythe, a traction engine, a stack of garden tools, etc.

Metal Workers Strike Saturday.

The union sheet metal workers of Des Moines will go on strike next Saturday as the result of the failure of their demands for a minimum wage scale of 40 cents an hour. The strike order was issued on the refusal of the employers to sign a new contract except on the bases of the old scale. The strike will involve fifty-two metal workers.
