

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Business Maintains Wholesale Progress and Collections Improve.

WHOLESALE DISTRIBUTION IS HEAVY

Retail Trade Retarded at Some Points by Adverse Weather Conditions that Affect Crop Outlook.

NEW YORK, June 1.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say:

Business maintains wholesale progress and mercantile collections improve. The week's aggregate transactions show the effect of the holiday and seasonal quiet in certain lines, but a good gain is noted in comparison with the corresponding period of a year previous.

Little idle machinery is reported at manufacturing plants, except in a few cases of labor disputes, and several substantial increases in wages became effective June 1. Railway earnings thus far recorded for May exceeded last year's by 11.1 per cent and foreign commerce at this port for the last week showed gains of $1,764,881 in imports and $617,743 in exports.

TERRIBLE ECZEMA IN LITTLE BOY

Mouth and Eyes Covered With Crusts—Face Itched Most Fearfully—Hands Pinned Down to Prevent Scratching

MIRACULOUS CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

When my little boy was six months old, he had eczema. The sores extended so quickly over the whole body that we at once called in the doctor. He wanted to amputate, but he could not help him, and in our despair we read of Cuticura. Matters became so bad that he had regular sores in his cheeks, large enough to put a finger into. The food had to be given with a spoon. For his mouth was covered with crusts as thick as a finger, and he would not open his mouth unless he opened the crusts. He would not eat, and he would not sleep. He was so miserable that we were about to give up when we saw an advertisement of Cuticura. We bought a box and used it. Within ten days or two weeks we noticed a decided improvement. Just as quickly as the sickness had appeared it also began to disappear. In a few weeks the child was absolutely well, and his skin was smooth and white as ever before. F. H. Mohrath, President of the C. L. Mohrath Company, Manufacturers of Cuticura, 25 North Albany, New York, June 2, 1906.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Retail Business is Quiet Owing to Widespread Rainy Weather.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: Retail business is quiet owing to widespread rainy weather. The passing of the holiday and the natural seasonal quietness which supervenes at this period, taken as a whole, the month of May was a very active one in retail and wholesale trade and industry, in which the best records of preceding years were surpassed. Fall trade reports continue exceptionally good, though a comparatively quiet period may be looked for pending a clearer view of crop conditions.

Wheat, including flour, exports from the United States and Canada for the week ending May 31 are 2,028,770 bushels, against 4,224,773 bushels last week, 1,852,222 bushels this week last year, 1,227,222 bushels in 1904 and 4,705,222 bushels in 1903.

with emotion at first, but the king calmed her, saying that it was nothing serious. Later she recovered her self-possession and bore herself well throughout the trying ordeal. Some of those who saw the young queen alight from the royal coach just after the explosion say her bridal veil touched the bloody pools on the pavement and that it bore an impress of the terrible scene as she returned to the palace.

NEWS IS REASSURING

LONDON, June 1.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra today received Telegrams of a reassuring character from Madrid in response to their messages to King Alfonso and Queen Victoria expressing sympathy and thankfulness at their providential escape.

The Spanish embassy here is receiving very many messages of condolence and crowds of callers, including many diplomats and officials. Among the earlier arrivals was Manuel Garcia the famous Spanish professor of singing, now over a hundred years old.

The officials of the Spanish embassy are investigating the reports that the plot against the lives of King Alfonso and Queen Victoria was hatched by anarchists in London. The Spanish charge d'affaires, Count de Praderes, says there seems little doubt that the plot was concocted in London, but the officials have not yet been able to ascertain if an Italian, who is suspected of executing it actually went hence to Madrid.

BOMB THROWER UNDER ARREST

LONDON, June 1.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Madrid today says the bomb thrower has been arrested, that he is confined in the Media Dia police station and has confessed and supplied details of the outrage.

ANOTHER DISPATCH FROM MADRID SAYS KING ALFONSO HAD AN EVEN MORE MIRACULOUS ESCAPE THAN GENERALLY KNOWN.

A fragment of the bomb struck his breast, but the force was broken by the chain of the king's Portuguese Order of Santiago which he was wearing. The chain was broken, but it stopped a piece of steel, which otherwise might have pierced the king's breast.

the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill in the house. Mr. Adams had expressed great anxiety to get the bill through that he might attend to personal business, which he said required his presence in Philadelphia. Only yesterday when Speaker Cannon contemplated temporarily withdrawing the measure to make way for the postoffice bill conference report, Mr. Adams made an appeal to first allow the passage of the bill in his charge. He told the speaker he had a most urgent and important engagement to keep today.

REJOICING AT MANILA

MANILA, June 1.—The English and Spanish residents of Manila celebrated the wedding of King Alfonso and Princess Irena by an elaborate reception and ball. The Spanish consul received the government officials, the consular corps and officers of the army and navy.

ACCUSED CRITICISES BILL

Man indicted for Alleged Bootlegging Makes Plea Name is Misstated. William F. Baroda, F. A. Felix and Hugh Gallagher were arraigned before Judge Munger in the United States district court Friday afternoon under their indictments for selling liquor without first procuring the special government tax. Baroda and Felix pleaded not guilty and gave bond for their appearance before the district court for trial. Baroda claims the indictment is at fault because there is no "F" in his name. Gallagher entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail of Douglas county and to pay a fine of $100.

TIGHTENING THE SALOON LID

How the Federal Army Suppressed Road Houses Near San Francisco.

But there is another reason for the remarkable good order maintained in San Francisco during the last few weeks. It was a new regulation—one unique in the city's history. The measure to which we refer was the closing of the liquor saloons. For many weeks there has not been a drop of liquor of any kind. Even in the drug stores it has been impossible to obtain liquor unless on the prescription of a physician. Even upon these documents the military authorities have looked askance, at times forbidding the sale of liquor even when prescribed by a physician.

NEW UNION LABOR LAUNDRY

Articles of Incorporation Filed, with Capital of Fifty Thousand Dollars. The Wardlaw Laundry company, composed of men prominent in union labor circles, has filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk. The incorporators are Louis V. Guey, William Wardlaw, A. P. Hanson, F. R. Johnson, K. S. Fisher, John Polian, A. D. Small, H. Carrolle and F. H. Gulgaard. The capital stock is to be $50,000, fully paid up. The enterprise will be run as a union plant. The company is said to have all of the machinery necessary to equip the plant, but have not yet secured a building. In case a location is secured the laundry could be in working order in two weeks.

MAN INDICTED FOR ALLEGED BOOTLEGGING

Man Held by Madrid Police Identified as to Nationality. MADRID, June 1.—The man in custody at the Media Dia Police station under suspicion of being the person who threw the bomb at the king and queen yesterday is said to be an Englishman and gives the name of Robert Hamilton. He is about 16 years old and was pointed out by the streets to the Spanish police by English detectives, who came here to attend the wedding festivities. His arrest caused great excitement among the people, men and women trying to strike the white oaths shouted "lynch him." Soldiers had to assist the police in taking the man to the station. He is of good appearance and somewhat resembles the man the police have been looking for. The suspect says he went to a bull fight yesterday afternoon, but he does not explain how he came to be there in the morning. He refuses to give the Spanish police any further information, but adds that he is willing to answer any questions the British consul may put to him. The prisoner speaks English, Spanish and Italian. When searched at the police station a knife and fork and 15 peetas were found in the man's possession. The authorities are considering the advisability of postponing the battle of flowers owing to the danger to which the king and queen might be exposed.

BUSINESS

They, too, had been closed for a short time after the earthquake and fire. The first Sunday after this was known a crowd of many thousands of both sexes crossed the San Mateo county line, and after filling themselves with the vile booze of these roadside houses, returned to the city of San Francisco, poisoning the air with their foul breath and making the night hideous with their drunken cries. The chief of police of San Francisco was powerless. He could not exercise any control of the San Mateo liquor dealers, and it was comparatively useless to punish the poor creatures whose drunkenness was the result of the liquor dealers' thrift. When the matter was reported to military headquarters, General Greeley did not consider himself restrained by the county lines which had terrified the San Francisco chief of police. He at once sent a strong military guard across the county line, admonished the saloon keepers, shut up the saloon doors and left guards in front of them to see that they were kept shut. These direct methods of the federal authorities, when brought into contact with county lines, are calculated to excite admiration among those used to the slow moving methods of intercounty and interstate jurisdiction. We trust that General Greeley may not become involved in any trouble with the county of San Mateo and that the county in question may not bring suit against the federal government in order to have him cashiered. His closing of the San Mateo saloons may be extra-constitutional, but the fact remains that they are closed—shut tight.—San Francisco Argonaut.
