

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Chicago Closed and Little Interest on Local Exchange.

SHOWERS LEAD A BEARISH SENTIMENT

Influence by Hains and Slow Cash Demand, Wheat Declines—Motestore Also Causes Easy Corn Market—Oats Nominal.

Little interest was shown in the local market today, on account of the fact that there was no market in Chicago. Trading was light and prices small. Reports of general rains in Kansas gave a bearish tone to the market, which was further emphasized by the slow cash demand, both in Minneapolis and in Kansas City. The close of the local market was unchanged from Saturday. A wire from Kansas City said that the market was 'ac low'.

July corn opened at 60 and declined to 57 1/2. The close of the feature being the rains in the southwest. The local market closed at noon. At 1 o'clock a wire from Kansas City reported that the market for 'ac' was nominal.

Local grain of options: Wheat, 60 1/2; corn, 57 1/2; oats, 31 1/2. Articles: Open, High, Low, Close, Sat'y.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Market Has Appearance of Greater Breadth and Variety.

EARLY LEVEL OF VALUES IS HIGHER

Closing Tone is Irregular and Only the Strong Stocks Remain at the Top Level.

NEW YORK, June 4.—There was some increase in the volume of dealings in today's market over last week's daily average. The dealings were more diversified among different stocks, giving the market an appearance of greater breadth and variety. Prices were higher at the close of last week. Yet the movement did not serve to convince sentiment, which remained uncertain and skeptical.

Commission houses complained of an entire lack of orders and a profound indifference on the part of the general public was pronounced to be in the hands of professional and trade groups. Operations were pronounced to be in the hands of the activity to be confined within narrow limits in the professional circles.

The strength which the market showed was at no time comprehensive. The early advance showed a decided tendency to narrow limits in the professional circles. The strength which the market showed was at no time comprehensive.

Some of these were brought forward later in the day, but the market was not so strong as it appeared. The strength which the market showed was at no time comprehensive.
