PA WINS HARD ONE IN TENTH Omaha and Lincoln See-Saw Throughout a Most Spectacular Game.

LOCALS TIE WITH TWO IN NINTH INNING

Corns Succeeds Konkalik in Box and Jones Supplants Morse, but

He is Unable to Save the Day.

The Rourkes took Ducky Hoimes hirelings into camp Tuesday afternoon in as exciting a ten-inning contest at Vinton Street park as one would wish to see, the score being 8 to 7. Four pitchers were used during the battle and all were clouted out pretty well at times, although Corns showed the Caffyn, If. best form.

The game was filled with spectacular plays and was a regular seesaw. Lincoln started one to the good in the first inning and then Omaha made three in the second. Lincoln came back with four in the third inning and Omaha tied the score in the fifth. Lincoln made one each in the seventh and eighth and again Omaha tied the score in the ninth, making it necessary for Omalia to win out in the tenth inning.

Koukalik and Morse, the old University of Nabraska star, started out as opposing siabmen. Koukalik started out pretty well and it looked as if he might pitch a winning game until he made his three-bagger in the second inning, which ran the legs off him and he had no more wind. The bombardment which started when he went into the box in the third inning was really pitiful, for after two were out Holmes hit for three, Quillin for a single, Ketchum for a double and Thomas for a double, and that was all of Mr. Koukalik, for Herman Long had Mr. Corns warmed up and put him in to finish the game.

Corns passed Collins to first and it looked as if he was to have one of his wild days. Barton singled and the best Rogers could do was to hit to the pitcher. Four runs had been scored.

Harvard Wants Game,

Harvard Wants Game, HARVARD, Neb., June &.-(Specisl.)--Monday evening the organization of a base ball team was completed by the election of the following officers: Becretary and manager, Fred Keunreth; treasurer, F. C. Kenewer; Captain, Charles Perry; official umplre, R. V. Clark. Last season the Harvard team played sixteen games, win-ning thirteen, with six shul out games. It is the intention of the management to have a better team than last year, and they are now ready to make dates with any amateur team in the west, and for this purpose would sullelt correspondence. Jack Jennings and Angus Martin, two lever confidence men, were arrested yesterday afternoon for substituting a bogus diamond for a valuable one at the jewelry store of M. D. Franks, 319 North Sixteenth street. The prisoners were charged at the city jail with grand larceny. The affair caused much excitement along Chicago street, between Sixteenth and Fourteenth, along which street Franks and

To whom should the stakeholder pay the money? A Bill of exchange." A bill of ex-change is defined as "an unconditional or-der to pay. If the order was directed to the bank merely to collect from the customer it might be excluded from the classification; but to all intents and pur-poses it amounts to a draft, since it is an order for the bank to collect. rather than for the customer to pay. You would better ask a lawyer as to the final disposi-tion of the stake money, for in either event the loser is quite certain to make a fuss over the technical difference in-volved. captain gave Jennings a cuff across the heek, which caused the gem to fly from Jennings' mouth like a shot out of a pistol. It was so sudden for Jennings that he aughed and intimated he was "up against It evidently was Jennings' purpose to swallow the diamond and it was only Captain Mostyn's wits that prevented the man from having a $200 lunch right under the yes of the police. By the captain's prompt and effective action a strong case was nade against Jennings.

The stolen diamond was valued at $300. weighed one and a half carats and was substituted by a clever imitation mounted in a similar manner and such as would fool all but an expert diamond man. Mr. Franks said it was the best imitation he over naw.

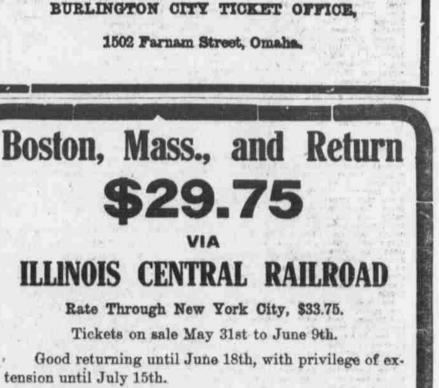

Martin an Old-Timer.

Jennings is 24 years of age. He said he came from New York City. Angus Martin is 64 years of age and is known to the police all over the country. His record is that of one of the cleverest pickpockets, confidence men and diamond thieves in the country. He was arrested during 1898 in Omaha by Detectives Dunn and Davis. At 967 891 that time he gave his name as George Mc-Gregor. His photograph is now in the rogues' gallery at the city jail. He has been arrested in Omaha several times since 1898, but only on auspicion.

Detective Ferris recovered Jennings' revolver in the man's room at Fourteenth and Chicago streets. Five loads and one empty shell were found in the weapon, which is a murderous looking gun. Attracted by the excitement with hundreds of others was Mr. Franks' wife. She watched her husband chase Jennings and noticing her husband fall simultaneously with the report from Jennings' revolver, Mrs. Frank became faint and had to be supported by friends. She thought her husband had been shot. When Mr. Van Cleeve reassured her she rallied.

Later in the evening when Detective Donhoe came on duty he recognized Jennings as Jack Clark, known almost the country over as "Kid" Clark, who has served terms in various prisons. His home is at Kansas City. Donobse first made the acquaintance of Clark at Bonesteel, S. D., three years ago. When Clark saw the detective he extended his hand in recognition and said "I guess the jib is up." He has been seen in Omaha a number of times, but has never before been wanted for a crime here

Stop-overs allowed at Detroit, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and New York City.

Fast train leaves Omaha at 6:00 p. m., arriving in Chicago at 7:30 a.m., connecting with all eastbound trains.
