REBATE CASE BEING ARGUED

United States District Attorney Tells Jury Why Conviction is Desired.

NO DOUBT SECRET RATE WAS GIVEN.

Government Claims that Only One, Point Remains to Be Settled and Jury Will Act Today.

KANSAS CITY, June 8 .- A. S. Van Valkenburgh, district attorney for the Western district of Missouri, in the federal district court here this morning, presented the government's side of the case against Armour & Co., Swift and company, Cudahy & Co., and the Nelson Morris Packing company, on trial on a charge of accepting rebates from the Burlington railroad on export shipments. Mr. Van Valkenburgh declared that the packing comparies acceptance of a rate of 23 cents a hundred pounds when the regular tariff was 35 cents was a plain violation of the interstate com-

Argument of District Attorney. Mr. Van Valkenburgh, in arguing the government's side of the case, addressed himself to four propositions, as follows:

First.—Has congress power to legislate respecting export rates. Second—Has congress so legislated and has it conferred upon the Interstate Comperce commission authority respecting ublication and adhesion to such rates merce commission authority respecting the publication and adhesion to such rates in sofar as the rail carriage to the port of trans-shipment is concerned.

Third—is this rate a true rate, depending upon the facts and circumstances without the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce commission as to bring this case within the reasoning of the Texas & Pacific railway versus interstate Commerce commission (182 United States) and to take this case out of the operation of the Interstate Commerce case.

Fourth—Would the contract between the packers and the Burlington railroad if valld when made, protect the packers against prosecution for violation of the sixth section of the Interstate Commerce act as amended by the act of February. 1998, if they persisted in accepting a rate which was in effect a concession after that rate had been raised by the railroad company and effective on and after August 7, 1996.

Effect of Elkins Law. Mr. Van Valkenburgh said that the first three propositions had been settled for the course of his argument:

Since the passage of the Elkins' amendment the shipper is llable equally with the arrier and the mere soliciting, accepting it receiving of a concession or rebate, is unde an offense. No intent is necessary to the completion of that offense. Where he specified intent is not essential, a minake or ignorance of fact, is quite as immaterial as enistake or ignorance of law.

The duty is laid upon the shipper and it is incumbent upon him to guard against violating either the law or the spirit of the law. If he ships and accepts a rate, he is bound, at his peril, to know that the rate he accepts does not involve a concession from the published rates.

Mr. Van Vaikenburgh said that the

Mr. Van Valkenburgh said that the packers knew of the actual rate of 35 cents at the time they made the shipment of 23 cents.

In closing he said: In closing he said:

No damage would have been entailed upon the defendants by observance of the law. It will be noted that nowhere in the evidence does it appear that the shippers would have suffered in the matter of their ocean rates, nor in the matter of their foreign contracts for the sale of heir products by observing the published inchedule. The shippers were simply seeking concessions, preferences and advantages in the matter of rates and the railroad was seeking tonnage without reference to the mandate of the law.

The case probably will be given to the furry early this afternoon.

bury early this afternoon.

Position of Packers. Frank Haserman, representing Armour & Co., and speaking for the other defendants also, followed Mr. Van Valkenurgh, in rebuttal argument. His argument was lengthy and technical and in it he took the stand that the packers' contract with the Burlington railway was valid; that the packers did not intend to violate the interstate commerce act and that the intent must be considered.

When receas was taken at noon Judge of McPherson announced that immediately upon reconvening in the afternoon he would instruct the jury and give them the When court resumed in the afternoon,

Judge McPherson continued the cases until Tuesday morning next, when, he ansounced, he would instruct the jury. Judge McPherson said the case deserved more it and he wanted more time in which to

Official and other indications of a large cotton crop and the further decline in prices of that staple produced no definite effect upon, the primary markets for manufactured goods. The weakest feature of the cotton goods Industry at the present time is the utter absence of export demand.
China is out of the market and a heavy accumulation of goods is noted at Shanghai, while the outlook for their absorption is far from promising. In woolen goods the future is uncertain.

Footwear factories receive only a fair volume of new fall business. Leather is steady at the recent advance. Hides are nominally unchanged, yet an easier tone is in evidence.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF TRADE Warmer Weather Stimulates Retail Business. NEW YORK, June 8.-Bradstreet's to

NEW YORK, June 8.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Jobbing and wholesale lines are commencing to reflect the usual quietness of summer, nevertheless business is more active than is customary at this season and fall orders for dry goods, clothing, shoes and interrelated lines are of very good volume. Retail trade has been stimulated by warmer weather and the outlook is for a full season's trade. Industries with few exceptions are active, although the time is approaching when the usual summer shut-downs will take place.
Grain crop returns become more irregular as the season progresses, but that fact has not deterred purchasers to any extent. As a whole ase situation is equal to a year ago. The labor situation, though disturbed at different points, is considerabity better. A good demand for dry goods and general supplies for San Francisco, where conditions are rapidly approaching normal, is noted at western centers. The return flow of money from the country is unmistakably large and easter rates are a frature, though some authorties disbelieve in permanently easter rates. Raliway earnings continue very heavy, the increase for May being no less than 14 per cent on roads operating outside the anthracite coal fields, and bank clearings are considerably in excess of last year at this period. On the other hand, reports about the meat packing industry adversely affect trade in that line while high prices tend to cause deadlocks in some lines notably wool and some lines of building material. norrow will say:

in ease; northern soft woods have evoked some new business.

Business fallures for the week ending June 7 number 162 against 127 last week. 134 in the like week of 1905, 171 in 1904, 181 in 1903 and 165 in 1902. In Canada failures for the week number 17 as against 19 last week and 25 in this week a year ago.

The fact that S. S. S. is a purely vegetable preparation, containing not the slightest trace of mineral in any form, has been one of the strongest points in its favor during its forty years of existence. It is recognized everywhere not only as the best of all blood purifiers, but the one medicine that can be taken with absolute safety by the youngest child or the oldest member of the family. Next in importance to removing the cause of any disease is the condition in which the system is left after a course of medical treatment. Medicines containing mercury, potash or other strong mineral ingredients often do permanent injury by eating out the delicate lining and tissues of the stomach, producing chronic dyspepsia, unfavorably affecting the bowels and so damaging the system that even if the original cause of the disease has been removed, it is left in such a deranged and weakened condition that $1,000 REWARD the health is permanently impaired. S. S. S. enjoys the distinction of being the only blood IF NOT PURELY medicine on the market that does not contain a mineral property in some form. Being made VECETABLE entirely of roots, herbs and barks it is absolutely harmless to any part of the system, and while curing disease adds strength and health to every part of the body. S. S.
