

COUNCIL BLUFFS

Office, 10 Pearl St. Tel. 48.

MISOR MENTION.

Clark's sodas. Dime soda drugs. Stocker's carpets. Ed Rogers' Tony Faust beer. New location, 20 Pearl St. Maloney. Plumbing and heating. Blythe & Son. Wondering Undertaking company, Tel. 328. Lewis Cutler, funeral director, Phone 97. Diamonds as an investment. Talk to Lettner about it. Special courses for public school pupils given at Western Iowa College. All sizes in barefoot sandals for children at Barger's Family Shoe Store. Sewer pipes, fittings and garden hose. Fred Marston, aged 67 years, an inmate of county jail at McClelland died yesterday morning. If you have tender feet and want a good comfortable shoe see Dunca & Co., 23 Main street. The cheapest and best lots for dwellings are to be had in Babbit's Place. Sold by Louis T. Offner, 419 S. W. Way. Moving vans and wagons; furniture stored. Nesbitt's Transfer and Storage, 724 1/2 Office St West Broadway. Picture framing a specialty. Pictures framed to order. Prices reasonable. Borwick, 21 South Main Street. Prof. A. R. Heaps of the high school faculty has gone to Chicago to take a summer course in painting and figure with us. Work and material guaranteed to be first-class. F. A. Spencer, 126 West Broadway. The Ideal illustrators will play the String Quartet this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the hall part, Sixth street and sixteenth and 16th.

Picture make most desirable wedding gifts. See the list of suggestions at the bride's, 223 Broadway. A great range of dresses and styles. Give a sacrifice on my fine piano. Payments if desired. Can be seen at Semmler & Mueller's, 20 Broadway, between 14th and 15th. Mrs. May B. Prior yesterday dismissed in the district court the suit for divorce brought by her husband against her. Do not sell your old iron, copper, brass and tin before you see us. We buy at 25 per cent above market. No. 214 Broadway, 214 S. Main, Tel. 300. We have the latest line of sample monuments to suit the taste. Bently & Lano Marble and Granite works, 217 West Broadway, Council Bluffs. We have the finest line of sample monuments to suit the taste. Bently & Lano Marble and Granite works, 217 West Broadway, Council Bluffs. Mrs. Katherine Samish died yesterday afternoon at her home, 1625 Fifth avenue, from heart trouble, aged 39 years. One daughter, Miss Fannie Samish, survives her. Harvey Newell DeVol and Minnie May, both of Omaha, were married in this city yesterday afternoon by Rev. G. V. Snyder at St. John's English Lutheran church.

Do you want to cool off? Go to the Clark Drug Co. and get one of their delicious ice cream sodas, cut down at a nice clean table, under an electric fan, and you will have no trouble in keeping cool. Senator C. G. Saunders and Dr. H. S. West are home from a fishing trip to Jefferson lake, Wisconsin. County Attorney J. J. Hess and W. A. Maurer, who formed the rest of the party, will remain here until Monday. A special train of fourteen cars of race horses belonging to J. D. Hagen, the California horseman, arrived from the west last evening and was transferred to the Illinois Central at this point. The horses are bound for the east. The members of the local Woman's Christian Temperance union observed the National flower mission day yesterday by carrying forty-five bouquets of flowers to the inmates of the county and city jails and to the patients at the general hospital. Health Officer Lucas has been detailed to see that the ordinance regulating tree-removal is enforced. All trees overhanging sidewalks must be cut to a height of at least eight feet from the sidewalk. Appointment No. 8, Union Veteran league, last night installed Miss Hobbs as secretary of the encampment. Miss Sylvia Snyder, who has filled the position for a number of years and who resigned owing to her approaching marriage, Arthur Southwell paid $5 and costs in Justice Gardner's court yesterday for a sentence of three months in the county jail for a child with purplish skin cherries. Mrs. Maggie Frank gave an informal reception Friday afternoon at her residence, 41 South Seventh street, for the members of the Woman's Christian Temperance union and their friends. Mrs. O. G. Oshorn contributed to the program.

Police Officer Maher is temporarily on duty owing to ailing on a rainy day. Word from Iowa City yesterday was to the effect that Council Bluffs had been selected for the next meeting of the Iowa State Manufacturers' association, which closed its convention there yesterday afternoon. Why shorten your life by baking over a hot stove when you can buy better bread and groceries at Meek's? The quality and merit of our goods that makes them so popular. They are not simply equal to, but better than any sold in this city. Twentieth Century and Colonial bread and are convinced. The police learned yesterday that Myrtle Clark, the young woman from Irwin, Ia., who left her grip full of clothing on the sidewalk on Main street some days ago and then walked away, is working in the Woodward candy factory in this city. Notice of the young woman's whereabouts has been sent to her parents at Irwin. Dr. E. P. Bellinger left yesterday for San Francisco for the purpose of trying to recover his jewelry and money which were in the safe of the Rush hotel, which was completely destroyed by the earthquake and subsequent fire. Dr. Bellinger has hopes of recovering part, if not all, of his possessions. He expects to return by the end of the week. Inez Seman, who claims to be the wife of George Clark, a resident of this city, was before Judge Wheeler yesterday for the second time on a charge of being a chronic inebriate. She pleaded guilty to a trial and a commitment for eighteen months to the State Hospital for Dipomania at Knoxville was suspended during good behavior. In accordance with what has come to be an annual custom, the members of the executive committee of the Commercial club and a few invited friends were the guests of Attorney Emmet Tinley at a luncheon served at Lake Manawa yesterday. This social gathering took the place of the regular weekly luncheon of the executive committee and accompanying luncheon. One of the large motors on the Council Bluffs-Omaha line crashed into an Upper Broadway car yesterday evening, near the Frank street intersection. The center headlight and part of the vestibule of the large motor were more or less badly damaged. No one was injured, although the conductor of the small car, who was standing on the rear platform, was hurled by the force of the collision into the street. The car, where he struck against a seat. The suit of the Kimball Brothers' Commercial club was given to the district court jury at 11 o'clock. The case was reached. The plaintiff firm sues to recover $2,000 damages for the alleged failure of the electric company to furnish sufficient power as per contract to enable the electric installed by the plaintiff in the warehouse building of the Groneweg & Schenckman Wholesale Grocery company to lift 4,000 pounds weight. William Rufus Jackson, colored, who has been a familiar figure within the last few months in police court, was yesterday charged with threatening to kill Harry Overmire, a young white man who resides in the vicinity of the Jackson home. His hearing was continued until Monday. Jackson denied the charge and told the court that he had merely advised Overmire, whom he alleged had made undue advances to his wife's 18-year-old sister, to keep his side of the fence and not to interfere with colored folk.

SCAVENGER WORK

I haul dead animals, $1.00 per head. Garbage, ashes, manure and all rubbish. Clean streets and sewers. All work done is guaranteed. Call promptly attended to. J. H. SHERLOCK will be held at noon. The time for confirmation has been postponed until Sunday, June 17.

First Christian church, Rev. W. B. Clemmer, pastor. Morning service, 11 o'clock. Subject of pastor's sermon, "Some Teaching Ideas in the Bible School." At the evening service there will be a special musical program under the direction of Miss Lulu Van Brunt, chorister, followed by the sermon by the pastor to the Tribe of Ben Hur. Sunday school will be at 9:45 a. m. Loyalty Christian Endeavor meeting at 4 p. m., and Young People's Christian Endeavor society at 7 p. m. At the Broadway Methodist church children's day anniversary will be recognized in the use of an illustrated sermon by the pastor at 10:30 a. m. Topic of the sermon, "Mansions and His Brother." Parents are requested to bring their children to the morning preaching service as well as the Sabbath school. There will be good music at all of the services of the church, Sunday school at noon. Epworth league at 7 p. m., and church choir at 8 p. m. Topic of the evening service, "The Life Behind the Law."

At the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints Elder Charles Fry will preach at 10:45 a. m. and Elder F. E. Conert at 7:45 p. m. Sunday school will be at noon and young people's meeting at 8 p. m.

LOGGERS HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICES

Odd Fellows, Ben Hens and Woodmen are interested. The Odd Fellow lodges of this city will hold their annual memorial exercises today. Members of the different lodges will assemble at Odd Fellows' temple at 2:30 p. m. and march to Fairview cemetery, where a memorial address will be rendered by Judge G. H. Scott and the proper form of decoration of graves of deceased members proceeded with. The exercises at the cemetery will be closed with prayer by Chaplain R. N. Wyoff. In the evening at 7:15 o'clock the Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their friends will assemble at Odd Fellows' temple and march in body to Trinity Methodist church where the pastor, Rev. Charles Mayne, will deliver a memorial sermon. The members of Winner court, Tribe of Ben Hur, will hold memorial services this evening at the First Christian church where the pastor, Rev. W. B. Clemmer, will deliver the address. Odd Fellows' temple. Members of Council camp, No. 14, Woodmen of the World, will assemble at their lodge room in Danish hall at 1 o'clock this afternoon and proceed in a body to Omaha to attend the memorial services with the Omaha and South Omaha lodges in Boyd's theater. A coroner's inquest will be held at the cemetery this morning and decorate the graves of deceased members.

This is the time of year to get your home decorating done. Stoves down, furnaces out, no rush gives the mechanics a chance to do a first class job. See the new line of wall papers at W. S. Hewetson's. The latest up-to-date styles at lowest possible prices. Picture framing done reasonably and up to date. W. S. Hewetson, Masonic Temple, Broadway.

The Wallace circus prides itself upon being absolutely without a peer in point of equipment, the excellence of its stock, the extensiveness of its zoological display and the real merit of its performance. Will exhibit in Council Bluffs, June 30.

Do not smoke any more of those rank cigars. Go to Maloney's, 20 Pearl St., and get a cigar where quality stands first and where every puff is a delight. He handles nothing but first class cigars. You know it pays to buy the best cigars because you get the best satisfaction out of them.

Everybody is delighted to see a nicely decorated room, right up in style, restful and pleasing to the eye, wall paper well matched and of the latest designs. It is easy to get these points if you figure with us and strictly moderate prices. We are satisfied we can please you if you let us furnish the wall paper. We guarantee the work to be done right. Council Bluffs Paint, Oil and Glass Co. New location, Merriam block.

Port Arthur was one of the strongest fortified cities in the world, but was surrendered because the Russians could not get Big A flour. Use no other.

CENTRAL FLOUR-#1-B. Every sack warranted. Central Grocery and Meat Market. Extra good oranges at only 30c per dozen. Bartel & Miller, Tel. 329.

Team for firemen's tournament. Jack and Jim, the fire department team which will represent Council Bluffs at the state firemen's tournament in Clinton, June 19 to 21, will leave for there Monday, accompanied by Fire Chief Robert Jones, W. L. Jones, Ed Walker and A. Teifer.

Some elegant lots, with paving and grading paid, on Glen Ave. and also Fifth Ave. be sold cheap. Chas. T. Offner, 419 Broadway.

Something entirely new and just out. Beautiful new photos at a special offer for short time only at Schmidt's studio.

For imported wines, liquors and Budweiser beer, go to L. Rosenfeld, wholesale liquor dealer, 519 South Main street.

I have a number of dwellings, owned by eastern mortgage companies, which can be sold cheap. Chas. T. Offner, 419 Broadway.

White canvas Oxford, all kinds. Prices, $1 to $2. Dunca & Dean, 21 Main street.

With the coming of the ice man you'll need summer weight underwear. Our stocks are ready to meet every emergency. Union suits and separate garments for the earlier days and children at popular prices. The John Beno Company.

High grade pianos sold on easy payments, $10 down and $5 per month. Swanson Music Co., 407 Broadway.

New potatoes that are extra large at 20c per peck. Bartel & Miller, Tel. 329.

Paris says white linen parasols. We're showing these washable sunshades in many new exclusive styles at prices that create unusual selling. Better select your white assortment in its best. The John Beno Company.

See those lace curtains—how messy they look, just because they are of the sagging kind. We have lace curtains that do not sag and window shades that are right up-to-date. Linoleum, oilcloth, matting and almost anything you want in carpets and rugs at strictly moderate prices. Stockert Carpet Co., 327 West Broadway.

Refrigerators, porch chairs, porch rockers, cool and reclining go-carts, go-carts 2 per cent off, full line of mattings, linoleums, carpets and rugs. D. W. Keller, 103 S. Main St.

Tin sprinklers, $5 to $50; cherry stonks, $2 to $1.25; chicken wire, 1/2 a square foot; hand sickles, $5 to $10; lawn rakes, 40c; the best food chopers, lawns to $2.00. John Olson, 128 West Broadway.

Two hundred-acre farm five miles from Missouri Valley. Good improvements and

A FAREWELL TO SPRING MILLINERY. For the next two weeks this Millinery Department will certainly look topsy-turvy. Every price will be cut to the quick. You can not realize the deep reductions without seeing the lots yourself. Those beautiful $6.00 Hats—now special at $3.00. The special $5.00 Hats—just half that price now—$2.50. The $2.00 Hats now special at $1.00, and like reductions all through the stock. It is a big price sacrifice for us—it is a corresponding gain to you, but you want the Hats and we want you to have them right now when they will be of benefit to you, so we will both be pleased with the exchange. We will also have a sale of Men's Hats—no feathers or plumes on these, however—just the plain statement—Any Man's Hat in the house during the next two weeks at $1.85. "Money Saved is Money Earned"—A $2.00, $2.50 or $3.00 Hat for $1.65 is certainly saving money. Mail orders receive prompt and careful attention. A. E. HUNTER COMPANY. 33-35 Pearl Street. 32-34 Main Street. Both Phones No. 565. COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA. John Beno, President, W. A. Maurer, Secretary, A. E. Hunter, Treasurer.

GREATER WALLACE CIRCUS COMES TO COUNCIL BLUFFS ON WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20TH

The Great Wallace Circus. Never equaled. The circus world. Watched and guaranteed accurate time-keepers. Velvet ice cream for your Sunday dinner party. Always please. Brick ice cream delivered and packed in ice. Purify Candy Kitchen. Tel. 574. Don't forget that I have fine spring and summer suits from $1.00 to $15. E. S. Hicks. Cool off your hot porch by putting up your Vudor porch shades. Then get into one of our Vudor hammock chairs and have a nice piece of our porch furniture, table, for instance, with cigars and a bottle cooled in one of our iceberg refrigerators, and you will find your comfort complete. Keller & Farnsworth Furniture company. On the Way to High School. Sixty-five pupils from the eighth grade in the Washington Avenue and Avenue B schools who successfully passed the examinations last week will enter the high school in September. They are as follows: WASHINGTON AVENUE SCHOOL. Ralph Anderson, Ruth Elver, Albert Beck, Meta Ebers, George Booth, Mabel Freed, Lila Fulmer, Charles Cooper, Ida Herr, Robert Cooper, Mary Kelley, Frederick Elwell, Olive Kemper, Leona Schlar, Susan Lee, Theron Grester, Mildred Metcalf, Marie Boyer, Pearl Myntzer, Edna Nelson, Adam Konigsmacher, Helen Price, Elsie Loomis, Irma Frouty, Fred Messersmith, Pearl Reed, Joe Solomon, Vera Saunders, Lloyd Swanson, Leona Schlar, Frank White, Fannie Blum, Lucille Bailey, Heger Sligman, Myrtle Block, Irena Stewart, Iabel Clausen, Frances Wilmaler, Katherine Droge, Daisy Wood. AVENUE B SCHOOL. Caroline Aldinger, Ethel Clark, Mabel Martin, Myrtle Spearman, Anna Horton, Grace Nealey, Mabel Hoyt, Marie Honey, Beulah Fonda, Walter Young, Maude McGurk, Albert Cooper, Mollie Bellinger, Wilfred Dempster, Tilla Becker, Lottie Kern.

500 BIG ACTS. Robert Stuckney's Haute Ecole Troupe of Menage Horses. 25 Horses. 25 Riders. THE BIGGEST AND MOST BEAUTIFUL PERFORMANCE EVER PRESENTED WITH ANY CIRCUS. POSITIVELY THE ONLY ONE. The Spectacular Street Parade. Is a revelation of what wealth, perseverance and brains can accomplish in the direction of equipping, organizing and presenting a Gorgeous Pageant. Every cage or chariot is a work of art. Every horse is a perfect beauty. Every rider is graceful. The music is plentiful and of the very best—in fact, the Parade is worth going miles to see. IT TAKES PLACE DAILY AT 10 O'CLOCK, UNLESS UNAVOIDABLY DETAINED.

Notes on Council Bluffs Society. Personal Mention and Activities of the Week. Charles M. Hart left yesterday for a visit in Chicago. Mr. Fritz Baumester is visiting friends in Pueblo, Colo. Walton L. Smith left Friday on a visit to friends in Boston. Mrs. C. M. Maurer and family are visiting relatives at Mindao, Ia. Mrs. Helen G. Moe left Sunday for a visit with friends in Boston, Mass. Mrs. Ernest Tinley will leave today for a week's visit with friends in Chicago. Dr. Adda B. Mitchell has returned from a three weeks sojourn at Excelsior Springs, Mo. Miss Belle Harkness has gone to Ireton, Ia., to visit her aunt, Mrs. A. Phelps Yuhl. Mrs. C. S. Myers and daughter, Mrs. Glen Avenue are the guests of friends in Lincoln, Neb. The employes of the A. E. Hunter company enjoyed a picnic at Lake Manawa Friday evening. Mrs. and Mrs. E. H. Walters leave today for a sojourn of several weeks at Hot Springs, Ark. Mrs. H. B. Hayden of Rock Island, Ill., is the guest of Mrs. G. F. Spooner of Glen Avenue. Mrs. Harley Mayne and two children left Friday for an extended sojourn at Manitowish, Colo. Miss Belle C. Barclay will leave today for a trip to Chicago, New York and other eastern points. Mrs. W. B. Hughes and daughter, Miss Pearl, will leave for an extended sojourn in Colorado. Mrs. Helen Tyler, 208 Oakland avenue, left Monday for a visit with friends in Washington, D. C. Mrs. R. C. Crookwell of Columbus, O., and son are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Myers, at an extended sojourn at Glen Avenue. Mrs. W. S. Inden of Brooklyn, N. Y., is the guest of her sisters, Mrs. Alice C. Stork and Mrs. E. L. Cook. Miss Clara Myers entertained the teachers of the Twentieth avenue school at a specimen of these cool, comfortable summer shirts will prove our statement. The John Beno Co. N. Y. Plumbing Co. Tel. 50 Night, L688 The Nevada Standard Gold Mining and Milling company, 809 New York Life building, Omaha, which owns a rich gold mining property in the Bullfrog district, Nevada, that is surrounded by mines and operated by Omaha people, certainly has an exceptional offer. Some of Council Bluffs' leading citizens have invested in the stock. Read advertisement on page 8, Editorial section. NOTES ON COUNCIL BLUFFS SOCIETY Personal Mention and Activities of the Week. Charles M. Hart left yesterday for a visit in Chicago. Mr. Fritz Baumester is visiting friends in Pueblo, Colo. Walton L. Smith left Friday on a visit to friends in Boston. Mrs. C. M. Maurer and family are visiting relatives at Mindao, Ia. Mrs. Helen G. Moe left Sunday for a visit with friends in Boston, Mass. Mrs. Ernest Tinley will leave today for a week's visit with friends in Chicago. Dr. Adda B. Mitchell has returned from