Both Win.

I'd been thinking for weeks of some way

But it chanced that, one day, she was talkof fame.

Of her work with the pen, and confessed the design of her girlhood's career was to win her a name.

So she couldn't say "No" when I offered her mine.

Last evening at Brownell hall, a delightful reception was given by the faculty in honor of the ninetcen graduates in this year's class. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion, the parlors, where the guests, numbering about 600, were received by Bishop Worthington, Bishop Garrett, Bishop and Mrs. Williams, Miss Mc-Crae and the graduates, being adorned with American beauty roses. In the library, where refreshments were served, a profusion of meteor roses was used. A pretty feature of the decorating was the lighting, the only light being furnished by about 100 red, andles in brass candlesticks. White roses were used in the hall
