LEWIS INSTITUTE IS FIRST

Chicago Echool Wins the Interscholastic Athletic Meet.

CHAMPIONS FROM ELEVEN STATES ENTER

C. Freeney of Ida Grove High School Makes New Pole Vault Record-Detroit School is Second.

CHICAGO, June 9 .- Lewis institute athletes won the fifth annual interscholastic track and field games here this afternoon after a series of exciting contests in which two national records and half a dozen local marks were bettered. The local school counted 23 points. Detroit University school was second, with 17%; Detroit Central High third, with 14, and Morgan Park academy fourth, with 11%. Scholastic champions from eleven states were entered, the results being generally accepted as determining the western championships. New national records were established in the discus throw and the pole vault. In the former event H. Giffen, Joliet, Itl., hurled the classic weight 122 feet 41, inches. The former record was held by Everett, Pontiac, Ill., at 116 feet 2 inches. The new pole vault record went to of Freeney, who represented the high school of Ida Grove, Ia. He cleared 11 feet 3% inches, bettering the mark made two years ago a trifle over two inches. In the other events the well-balanced teams of the first three schools forged steadily ahead. When the last event-the two-mile run—was called Detroit University school had a chance to nose out Lewis institute, but Page of the local school took second to Ben Oliel of Ann Arbor after a hard race and the three points put his school out of danger. Americans Defeat Australians.

NEWPORT, England, June 9.—The final round of the all-comers competition for the Dwight F. Davis international tennis the United States beat Australasia and qualified to meet the British Isles in the challenge round at Wimbledon June 10. 16 and 18. There was a large number of spectators in anticipation of a great struggie and they were not disappointed. A. F. Wilding, New Zealand, defeated Holcome Ward in the hardest kind of a five-set match. The last stroke of the match was a service fault by the American.

Los Poidevin, fhe Australian player, put up a good game against Raymond Little, but there was not sufficient sting to his strokes, and the American beat him three sets to one.
