HOGS—From the way the hogs are rolling in twould look as if every one in the country had given up his usual occupation and was devoting his attention to getting rid of his surplus pork. The receipts this morning were again very large, running above 200 cars. The receipts for the four days of the week to date showing a gain over the corresponding period of last week amounting to about 25,000 head.

Large receipts were not the only adverse circumstance with which sellers had to contend. Other market points were quoted as opening lower and the general situation seemed to favor a decline. Some of the largest buyers started out right at quoted as opening lower and the general situation seemed to favor a decline. Some of the largest buyers started out right at the first with the announcement that they would buy their hogs 5c lower or leave them alone. The result was a slow opening for the market at this point and it was later than usual before buyers and sellers got logether. When the trade was once underway the hogs moved more freely but at a decline of 2 %c. Almost everything sold at the range $8.25 & 6.39, whereas yesterday the hogs sold at $6.27% $6.32%, with a top at $6.35. The close was stronger than the opening.

This is the third successive day that hogs have been lower. On Monday the high point of the month was touched, the hogs on that day averaging $6.38%. Since then there has been a steady decline, the loss for the three days amounting to 10% 12%c. The market today was at the lowest point touched since June 5th.

LONDON, July 14.—Money was in increased supply today owing to government disbursements, but this was offset by an increased demand, resulting from the settlement. Discounts were quiet. Prices on the Stock exchange were somewhat irregular and the tendency was undecided in the absence of fresh investment purchases. Consols and other guilt-edged securities eased on secount of the talk of a further issue of London county stock, but prices hardened later on the good bank return. Foreigners were depressed, due to the poor advices from the continent, where dear money fears checked business.
