The indictments allege: the defendants

onspired with William McElroy, Fred Houghton, Samuel M. Mann, James Hull, Irving D. Hull and others, whose names are unknown to the jury, illegally to obtain title to 450,000 acres of public lands in herry and Sheridan counties, within what known as the Spade ranch, Overton anch and C-Bar ranch

Largest Ever Returned.

This is the largest indictment ever re turned in the history of the land fraud investigations. These investigations were be run under the direction of the general land office and Department of Justice in November, 1905, under the immediate charge of Lucien C. Wheeler of the United States secret service department in which from fifteen to forty secret service men have been specially employed at different intervals. Over 100 witnesses were summoned n the cases and the matter has been under consideration by the grand jury for over five weeks. The secret service officials have been constantly assisted in the legal end of the investigations by Special Assistant District Attorney S. R. Rush, and this is but one of forty land cases that have been under investigation by the present grand jury.

The two principal defendants in the case, W. G. Comstock and Bartlett Richards, entered a plea of gulity last November for maintaining illegal enclosures of over 600,000 acres of public lands and were sentenced to six hours in the custody of the United States marshal and to pay a fine of $300 each. The carrying out of this sentence so far as regards the custody feature resulted in the dismissal of United States fourths of them were farmers, one a tray Marshel T. L. Mathews and the subseuent dismissal from office of United States District Attorney Baxter for laxity in the resecution of the case, through which so light a sentence was imposed.

All Present But Richards.

All of the defendants in the foregoing case except Bartlett Richards were present at court in person or by attorney Friday morning and gave bond of $5,000 each or their appearance before the United States district court for trial on November 12, 1906. Bartlett Richards is now in Europe being in feeble health, but bend was given for him.

Indiciments were returned against Perry O. Yeast of Hyannia, for illegally enclosing 60,000 acres of public lands within the North Platte Forest reserve, and for per Jury and conspiracy to defraud in the matter

H. Edmisten and O. H. Hendee for subornation of perjury and conspiracy in fraudulent land filings in Thomas county and also against Joseph Crow, for seeking to defeat justice in influencing members of the federal grand jury of November, 1905, to bring "no bills" against certain cattlemen alleged to be implicated in fraudulent land transactions. An in-dictment was brought against C. S. Northrup of Knoxville, Tenn., charging him with using the United States mails in a scheme to defraud. The complaining witness was a Dr. John S. Fenns of Knoxville, who alleges that Northrup worked him with a worthless Norfolk & Western railway bond of the denomination of $5,000, which was given in a real estate deal between them. The matter of the deal was conducted by correspondence and thus came within the jurisdiction of the United States courts.

The grand jury had been in session since May 7, taking in that interim but about four days' recess, exclusive of Sundays. The july has considered seventyseven cases, reported fourteen "no bills" and have returned seventy-four indict ments, there being instances where two or more indictments were found in a single The foreman of the grand jury was Z T. UNION PACIFIC'S GREAT WORK

Company Will Spend Over Million Dellars in New Shop Buildings.

ANNOUNCEMENT COMES FROM MR. MOHLER

Last Addition to Vast Plant in Omahe is New Car Factory Which Will Greatly Increase Army of Men Employed.

Pursuant to his scheme to help build up a greater Omaha, General Manager Mohler inced Friday that the Union Pacific was asking for bids for new car shops to be erected in Omaha at an expense of Two indictments were found against $790,000. This is in addition to the $274,000 which is now being spent. This total of $1,064,000 is in addition to the commissary building which is to be erected and has been decided upon since the city gouncil granted the right to the Union Pacific to use Ninth street for switching purposes.

In making the announcement Mr. Mohler said it was his intention to make the shops the most modern and up to date in the entire country, giving to the Union Pacific and Omaha as good engine and car shops as any road and town in the country can boast of. The construction of such a mammoth building will give employment to a small army of workmen in addition to the great number now employed, and after completion the shops will give employment to a largely increased number of skilled mechanics, all of whom draw big wages.

What the Buildings Are. buildings now under construction and which are nearing completion, the total cost of which was estimated at $274,000, are the office building, 50x170 feet, brick and equipped with everything for the convennce of the workmen; the stripping shed 42x176 feet; the fron house, 50x162 feet, and the blacksmith shops, 90x376 feet.

The main building, for which bids are now asked, will be the car shop, 342x520 feet, a brick L-shaped building, equipped with all the latest tools and machinery This enormous structure will afford em ployment to a vast army of men and provide facilities for the handling of hundreds of cars, as well as for the complete building of cars. Other buildings contemplated, but for which the plans are not quite complete, are a paint shop, a wheel house, a store room and transfer table. An additional expense will be entailed by the change of trackage, as well as the addition of coniderable, the installation of an electric ighting plant and heating plants. Mr. Mohler says it is the intention to

He talked for an hour to the enjoyment of both teachers and pupils. General Lafayette is a instortical figure to whom the superintendent has given special study.

A. L. Undeland of Omaha First to Occupy This Office in Nebraaka.

A. L. Undeland of Omaha has been apcointed vice consul for Norway in Nebraska. The appointment, which came a few days ago, was unsolicited. For many years James Sternberg of Omaha has held the position of vice consul for both Norway and Sweden. The recent dissolution of the two countries, necessitated, for commercial reasons separate consuls, and Mr. Undeland was chosen by the government of Norway for the place. Mr. Undeland is a representative business nan, having resided here for twenty years, luring which time he has conducted a barbers' supply and cutlery business. He will assume his duties as consul at once.

The Food Value of a Soda Cracker

You have heard that some foods furnish fat, other foods make muscle, and still others are tissue building and heat forming.

You know that most foods have one or more of these elements, but do you know that no food contains them all in such properly balanced proportions as a good soda cracker?

The United States Government report shows that soda crackers contain less water, are richer in the muscle and fat elements, and have a much higher per cent of the tissue building and heat forming properties than any article of food made from flour.

That is why Uneeda Biscult should form an important part of every meal. They represent the superlative of the soda cracker, all their goodness and nourishment being brought from the oven to you in a package that is proof against air, moisture and dust-the price being too small to mention,
