Spooning. Of sweet romantic moonlight
How oft have poets sung.
And uttered mushy miaulings
in every clime and tongue.
With fluffy head enshouldered
At Madarne Luna's shape.
The damsel, off be-pictured,
And swain in full light gaps.

But—
This is but paltry puling.
Lipon such nights as these
The sentimental couples
Seek shade mid gloomy trees.
And off I'vs heard expressions
Of those who nightly spoon—
As they regard the heavens—
Insulting to the moon.

The Field club will undoubtedly be the center of social activities this week, for the Transmississippi golf tournament is a blg event, which will be attended by visitors from many states, and all the golfers of Omaha and the club members will be in daily attendance at the tourna-

Although the social calendar for the past week contained many events, the entertaining was confined to just a few, most of the affairs being given for outof-town guests and June brides. The friends of two of this week's brides, Miss Edith Dumont and Miss Nona Townsend, have been vieing with each other in entertaining for these two popular young women, and every day their circle of friends has been in attendance at some social affair given in their honor. Miss Jerrems, who is the guest of Miss Webster, has many friends in Omaha and there were several delightful affairs given for her during the week. Then Miss Naudain, Miss Williams, Miss Arnott of Chicago and Miss Short of Cleveland have been guests of honor at any number of affairs. Omaha women are very hospitable and when one has a guest she is sure to be entertained royally.

Graduates from the various schools and colleges held sway week and any number cial affairs were given by the high school and Brownell hall seniors. The last of the school affairs will be the reception and dance to be given by the high school class of 1906 by the alumni tomorrow evenng at Chambers'. Elaborate preparations being made and the affair promises to e largely attended, as many of the lumni members who live in other cities re coming for the event, and many of the ollege students will be home. The hall to be hung with the high school colrs-purple and white-and the class colrs-cream and gold. Addresses will be iven by Mr. Paul Robinseh, president of he alumni, and Mr. Herbert French, presient of the class of 1906.

The musicale at the Country club last Thursday evening was a most delightful ffair and club members are already lookng forward to the second one, which will be given on Monday evening, June 25, when the Misses Ethel and Alice Dovey will sing and Stanilaus Sherzel, violinist, will play. The table d'hote dinner was also largely attended, as was the dinner last evening. Among those entertaining last
