CLIFF DWELLERS WIN OUT GAMES IN AMERICAN ASSOCIATION Colonel Ryder's Aeronauts Defeat Mayor

Indianapolis and Milwankee Break Dablman's Cowpunchers at Vinton. President of Chicago Nationals Will Give Him Ten Thousand to > Take Place of Manager Frank Chance.

CHICAGO, June 16.—John J. Ryder, Man-ager Cliffdwellers, Omaha.—Will give you $10,009 a year to take Chance's place. Wire when you can come. Charles W. Murphy, president Chicago Nationals. About 9 o'clock last night this telegram came to Colonel Ryder, but as he had retired for the night at his usual hour and his wife declined to wake him, it could not be determined whether he will accept this offer. His friends say he will not, despite the fact that it represents $2,500 a year more than Chance gets.

Jack Ryder's Cliffdwellers took Mayor Dahlman's Cowpunchers into camp at Vinton street park yesterday afternoon before a number of the lovers of the national game, together with most of the young s women who work for the county and city officials and who thought it the part of prudence to go to the park to see their bosses get a coat of tan. The final score was 8 to 7 in favor of the court house bunch, and one man alone is responsible for the whole works.

Enough credit, too often, is not given to the brain which handles any large scheme, but in this case all credit must be given to-Colonel J. J. Ryder for the magnificent manner in which he handled his team from 2 Left on bases: Indianapolia 9; manner in which he handled his team from tee, 6. Time: 1:55. Umpires: Sulli- the side lines. He had the advantage of Manager Grotte, that the latter was a playing manager, and this, of course, handl- L.-G.-A. capped him from handling the team as it should have been done.

The fact that he did not expect his team | to win does not take away any honor, for the victory for the colonel conceded every point, allowing the city forces to name the Whitney as a ringer and told them they could have Scully when City Clerk Butlet was injured and it must have been this magnanimity which won out in the end.

Bandle Chops the Corners. A resume of the brilliant plays would be .0 0 1 1 0 0 1 1 0 1 5 impossible at this time. "Kelley" Bandle his winning run, when he did not come nearer to third than the pitcher in making the rounds, will long be remembered. At lift another time he deliberately stole third while the pitcher held the ball.

Ryder's first pitcher soon were out and the city chaps were running away with the game when Marrow was seen to ap- Stack. proach in the distance. Ryder did not know whether he could pitch or not so he sent him in and here was just where he won the game. That boy pitched some ball and at one time, with the bases filled.

Sundblad was fined by Manager Ryder for smoking in uniform, but Sunny argued away from the fine by saying he had but part of a uniform on. The way Tom Toy landed the ball within three feet of third base twice in succession made the cliff dwellers howl. The umpire valled the first one a foul, but Tommy did it again just to show it wasn't an accident. At the end of the seventh inning when Ryder had the game cinched his big heart flew open and he graciously offered to go 'em two more innings, in fact, he insisted on this when not another man on the diamond wanted to do it.
