South Omaha Business Man Charged Nebraska Association at York Will with Shooting with Attempt to Kill.

Charles M. Sanford, a well known business man of South Omaha, way placed on trial before Judge Sutton Monday morning local Sunday. schools will leave Omaha on a charge of shooting with intent to Tuesday for the thirty-ninth annual conkill. The complaining witness is Harry Abrahamson who formerly worked for a tenant of Sanford's named Moskowitz in Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The a grocery store at Thirty-first and R attendance at the convention is expected Sanford decided to go into the grocery business in the building occupied by Moskowitz and the latter moved out. Abrahamson was sent back to the store to get some things which had been left behind. He says Sanford tried to push him out of the store and then shot at him. Sanford asserts the boy called him names and denies he shot at the boy.

The case against Henry Murphy of South Omaha will not come up until the latter part of the week, his attorney being busy in another court.

Catholic School Exercises.

The graduating classes of Mount St ary's school and St. Catherine's school Mary's school and St. Catherine's school will hold their commencement exercises at St. Berchman's academy Thursday after-noon at 2:30. The students of St. Berchman's had planned for a trolley ride and plonic at Manawa for Tuesday afternoon, but this is held in aberance to await the pleasure of the weather man.

Is Disease a Crime?

Not very long ago, a popular magazine published an editorial article in which the writer asserted, in substance, that all disease should be regarded as criminal. Certain it is, that much of the sickness and suffering of mankind is due to the viciation of cartain of Nature's laws. But to say that all sickness should be regarded as criminal, must appeal to every reasonable individual as radically wreng.
