DEATH RECORD.

T. N. Palmquist

The body was laid to rest in the Peterson cemetery, west of town. George K. Fitch.

SAN FRANCISCO. June 18 .- Geoge K. Fitch one of the most prominent residents of California, died suddenly last night at San Raefel, where he had made his home since the fire destroyed his residence in this city, where he was known as a newspaper publisher and state printer before 1856, when he became associated with the late Loring Pickering as proprietors of the Bulletin and Call in this city. He retired from the newspaper business some years ago, but since then has devoted much of his time to local affairs in the interests of civic reform and the progressive advancement of local improvements.
