QUICK WORK ON KIDNAPER

Man Who Stole Philadelphia Boy Gets Twenty Years in Prison.

COURT PROCEEDINGS MOVE RAPIDLY

Within Twenty Hours from the Time of His Arrest the Criminal Is Landed in Penitentiary.

PHILADELPHIA, June 19.—Twenty years of hard labor in solitary confinement in the eastern penitentiary was the sentence pronounced today on John Joseph Keen, the abductor of little Freddie Muth. The enormity of the man's crime, which had aroused the whole city, stirred the officers of the law to quick action and the swift justice which quick action has never been equal to in this community. Keen fell into the clutches of the law yesterday afternoon about the time the courts were closing. Promptly at 10 o'clock this morning he was photographed and measured by the Bertillon method. Twenty-five minutes later he had been arraigned before a magistrate and committed to court without bail. The grand jury met in the criminal court awaiting his turn to face Judge Sulzberger. Shortly after 12 o'clock the judge passed sentence upon him and at 1:30 o'clock the iron doors of the penitentiary closed behind him. In his quick trip from liberty to the solitude of the Cherry Hill, the investigation which Dickens made famous in his American notes by condemning its system of solitary confinement, no friendly hand or voice was raised in the prisoner's behalf. If he behaves himself his sentence, under the law, will be reduced to twelve years and three months. The court had the power to give him a life sentence.

Much Sympathy for Family.

Three children Keen leaves behind him. Mrs. Keen, who is a widow, is a native of Philadelphia. She was brought up in the city and her husband was a native of Philadelphia. She was brought up in the city and her husband was a native of Philadelphia.
