

SCHEME TO HURT ELBOURN

Each is Connell's Version of Primary Ballot Tampering Job. ON THIS LINE THE DEFENSE IS MADE. County Attorney Offers to Show Ballots in Custody of City Clerk When They Were Altered.

That the ballots used in the primary election April 3 were tampered with for the purpose of throwing discredit upon City Clerk W. H. Elbourn, who had them in custody, as the theory upon which the defense in Elbourn's case now being heard before Judge Sutton will proceed. This was the declaration of W. J. Connell, Elbourn's attorney, in his opening statement to the jury.

Mr. Connell said he would admit the formal matters relating to the election and that the ballots had been changed. He said the defendant is just as anxious as anybody to see the real culprit punished.

In his opening statement County Attorney Blinbaugh offered to show the ballots were in the custody of Elbourn when they were changed and that only he and S. K. Greenleaf should have had access to them. He declared Mr. Greenleaf would not have made the changes, as he was the loser by them. He also said he would introduce conversations by Mr. Elbourn bearing on the case.

The first witness was Miss Schenck, a clerk in the city clerk's office. She described the office of the clerk and the vaults. She said Mr. Elbourn, Mr. Greenleaf and Mr. Simonson, a former employe in the office, were the only ones who knew the combination to the vault in which the ballots were stored. Simonson has not been employed in the office since March.

Stored in the Vault. She said the ballot boxes were delivered to the clerk's office Tuesday evening and Wednesday and were stored in the vault. Thursday night she said Mr. Elbourn left the office with her about 7 o'clock. That night the ballot boxes were in the office and not in the vault, as they had been taken out for the inspection of the canvassing board. Friday they were returned to the vault and that night Elbourn did her he was going back to the office to do some work. Saturday morning he said he had been at the office about an hour the night before. Saturday Mr. Greenleaf and a janitor carried the ballot boxes into the office again until the recount began the following week.

Dan Butler, present city clerk, was called to identify the ballot boxes for the precincts in the vote of which the changes were made. It came out in his evidence that the key to one of the boxes in question is missing. Mr. Butler said he might find the key on the floor of the vault and he would make another careful search for it. This was the box for the First district of the Second ward.

The jury which was secured late in the afternoon is as follows: W. R. Wall, Florence; C. J. Pasick, 1835 Vinton; C. E. Helman, 208 Dodge; J. A. Conly, 122 Bond; J. P. Daily, 1314 Bond; R. E. Davidson, 2208 Harney; Charles Rupp, 381 South Ninth; D. M. Mori, 611 North Eighteenth; W. F. Stoenkel, 522 Davenport; Charles I. Sanders, 709 North Eighteenth; August Hedgreen, 21 South Twenty-fourth; W. A. Bell, 487 Boulevard avenue.

What the Bill Charges. The indictment charges that Elbourn on April 8, five days after the primary, but before the board had canvassed the votes, altered and changed the markings on a number of ballots so as to increase his vote, at the expense of Sam K. Greenleaf and W. E. Stockham, his opponents. The crosses on the ballots made by the voters had been erased and new marks placed in the squares opposite Mr. Elbourn's name. The changes were discovered when the canvassing board began the recount of the ballots on demand of Elbourn. Later the eraser which had been used in defacing the ballots was found in one of the ballot boxes. The ballot boxes were in Elbourn's custody, as city clerk, at the time the erasures are alleged to have been made.

Alterations also were found in the vote for mayor. Several thousand dollars had been wagered that W. J. Broatch would receive more votes than A. H. Hennings. It was discovered that erasures had been made in squares opposite Mr. Broatch's name and crosses inserted for Broatch. These changes are not alleged in the indictment, however.

NOTES ON OMAHA SOCIETY.

The wedding of Mr. Edward J. Monaghan and Miss Myrtle Claire Tucker, the niece of Mrs. H. A. Cox of Council Bluffs, took place this morning at St. John's Collegiate church at 10:30 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Father O'Connor, in the presence of the relatives and intimate friends.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. W. J. Monaghan as best man, and Miss Mae Mulvihill was the maid of honor. She was attired in a pretty princess gown of pink tulle, with large pink hat adorned with pink plumes, and carried a shower of sweet peas. The bride's gown was white point d'esprit over silk, made in princess style, trimmed with real lace. She wore a long tulle veil and carried white roses. The church was decorated with palms and roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mrs. Cox to the relatives and bridal party. Mr. and Mrs. Monaghan left in the afternoon for a trip to Colorado, and on their return will reside for a short time in Council Bluffs. Mr. Monaghan is the popular manager of the Boyd theater in this city.

A pretty home wedding was that of Miss Helen Lucile Walworth and Mr. Benjamin E. Hurst, which was solemnized at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Walworth, 219 Burdette street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Sargent of the Plymouth Congregational church in the presence of about sixty guests. Miss Florence Grimes played the wedding march and just before the ceremony Mrs. Beach Jackson sang "Oh, Promise Me." Little Helen Walker, dressed in white with pink ribbons, was the ring bearer, carrying the ring in a basket of flowers. Mr. Matthew Murphy of Seattle acted as best man and Miss Edna Walworth, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in white dotted Swiss, trimmed with lace, and carried pink roses. The bride wore a pretty gown of white wash chiffon, with Valenciennes lace trimmings, and carried a shower of white roses. The house was attractively decorated for the occasion, a profusion of ferns and roses being used. The ceremony was performed in a bower of ferns and pink roses in the rear parlor, while the parlor and dining room were trimmed with red and white.

Hurst left for a trip to Denver and Salt Lake City, and after July 1 will be at home at Blanchard, Ia. The out-of-town guests were: Miss Laurine Stephens of Shelton, Neb.; Miss Ethel Williamson of Alton, Neb.; Mrs. Daise Miller and daughter of Ackley, Ia.; Miss Hazel Nisbet of Bell Rapids, S. D.; Mr. Murphy of Seattle, Misses Mary and Calista Hurst of West-burn, Ia., and Mr. Charles Hurst and Mr. Sigmund Hurst of Lincoln.

The wedding of Miss Mary Edith Dumont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dumont, and Mr. Arthur Draper Smith, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Draper Smith, which was solemnized last evening at the First Baptist church, before a large assemblage of guests, was a beautiful wedding in every detail. It was a yellow daisy wedding, the color scheme being prettily carried out in the decorations and costumes. The pulpit and choir rail were banked with palms, greens and Shasta daisies, while the pews reserved for the relatives, were marked with bunches of asparagus ferns tied with yellow tulle. Promptly at eight o'clock, as Mrs. Anna R. Andrews began the Lutheran wedding march, the ushers stretched the broad yellow satin ribbons, and the bridal procession advanced down the left aisle, led by the ushers—Messrs Ray Dumont, Warren Hillis, Jack Dumont and Robert Madley, followed by four bridesmaids—Misses Lena Fricke of Plattsmouth, Elizabeth McConnell, Bertha Philippi and Lynn Carpenter. All were similarly gowned in white basiste, trimmed with lace and tulle, with deep girldes and ribbons of yellow. Their veils were of green and they carried bouquets of yellow marguerites, tied with yellow tulle. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Bessie Dumont, sister of the bride, in a gown of white crepe de chine over yellow silk, inset with Irish point lace, and carrying Shasta daisies. Little Dean Sunderland, attired in white, carried the ring in a Calla Lily. The bride, who entered with her father, was charming in a princess gown of white chiffon cloth, over silk, with yoke in hertha of duchess lace. A wreath of daisies held in place her long tulle veil and her bouquet was a shower of ferns and daisies. Mrs. Dumont was gowned in grey chiffon cloth and Mrs. Smith in white silk. At the chancel they were met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Royal Comstock. Following the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. W. Conley, the party left the church to the Mendelssohn wedding march and went at once to the

NICKNAMES OF POLITICIANS

Titles by Which Well Known Public Men Were Familiarly Spoken Of.

Until recently the newspapers referred to Jeff Davis of Arkansas, Bob Taylor of Tennessee and Tom Watson of Georgia. Ceremony was dispensed with. The public insisted on familiarity with the men of whom it heard so much. Suddenly the note is changed. As the result of two senatorial primaries the reference now is to Hon. Jefferson Davis and Hon. Robert L. Taylor, while several successful books have proceeded for the types Hon. Thomas E. Watson. Whether we shall all love them more at a little distance and with our hats respectfully raised is a question.

To the very last the public held on to Jim Blaine and to Ben Harrison. Tammany always spoke of Sammy Tilden, though not with affection. It hated him, pretty cordially. Nobody ever spoke of Bill or Billy McKinley, and nobody speaks of Bill or Billy Bryan. Neither Mr. Cleveland's nor Judge Parker's given name lends itself to an affectionate diminutive, and neither man is of charming disposition.

People spoke admiringly of Sam Randall and of Tom Reed and of Dave Henderson. They speak so today of Joe Cannon—Uncle Joe. But nobody was ever heard to speak of Charles Crisp or of Jack Carlisle. And yet the Georgian was an affable and a very popular man, and the Kentuckian was admitted as speaker as much as any man who had ever occupied the chair. If Mr. Williams goes in two years hence shall we hear of Jack Williams, or will he continue to be known as John Sharp?

The disposition of the public runs eccentrically. Gen. Harrison was not a chummy man, and yet people in speaking of him called him Ben. Mr. Randall was a very firm and unyielding man and had few intimates, and yet the public insisted on Sam. When people spoke of Dan Voorhees they would understand because the Tall Spaniard of the Wabash had an address which was the very essence of heartiness and joviality. But a native of the same quality never in the case of Judge Crisp diminished in the press the formal Charles to Charley, nor in that of Mr. McKinley the formal William to Bill or Billy—Washington Star.

The Cooking club was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Sam Burns, Jr. Bridge was played at two tables, the prize being won by Mrs. Herbert Wheeler. Mrs. Harry Williams will entertain the club at the next meeting.

Mrs. N. J. Rosenthal and daughters of Dayton, O., are the guests of Mrs. Charles Singer, having come for the Rosenthal-Singer wedding.

In honor of Mrs. Jerome, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Madie entertained at bridge last evening. The game was played at two tables, the prize being won by Miss Webster.

Mr. J. U. Rose, the well known art dealer, and Miss Ella Parratt, both of whom have a large circle of friends, were united in marriage Tuesday evening at the bride's residence, 2709 Farnam street, Rev. T. J. Mackay of All Saints church performing the ceremony. The wedding was attended by only the relatives and will prove a surprise to the friends of the couple. A wedding supper followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Rose left for a trip in the north.

Miss Ada Kirkendall has issued invitations for a bridge party next Tuesday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Whiting.

HITCHCOCK TALKS POLITICS

Is Unable to Resist Touching Tabooed Subject Before Real Estate Exchange.

Gilbert M. Hitchcock, addressing the Real Estate exchange at luncheon Thursday on the subject of the "Distribution of Wealth," declared that while the United States is the first country in the production of wealth, it is far behind European countries in solving the questions of equitable distribution. A large portion of his talk was devoted to an attack on the protective tariff, relieved here and there by apologies for the exchange for trading on the forbidden ground of politics. As remedies for existing evils he pleaded in favor of inheritance tax laws, income tax laws, regulation of corporations by the state and public ownership.

High Grade Treatment

(If responsible, you may pay when cured.)

If you have a disease or weakness peculiar to the pelvic region, your condition calls promptly for the best treatment the modern science affords. Of this fact you must be thoroughly convinced when you stop to consider how many different doctors you have consulted, and how many bottles of worthless medicines you have taken. We have no fault to find with the men who employ such inferior treatment, for that is his privilege, but the money he thus expends would go far toward securing for him a cure that is safe, rapid and permanent. We have long studied and thoroughly mastered infirmities of this character—male prostatic disease. Recently we have treated scores of stubborn cases, and not a single failure or unpleasant result has been reported us. Other physicians may treat men, but we cure them, cure them to remain cured, and this fact we are prepared to prove to the entire satisfaction of any man sincerely interested. Our fees are as low as they can be consistent with high grade treatment.

By the latest and best methods we cure to remain cured. VARICOCELE, URETHRAL OBSTRUCTION, SPECIFIC BLOOD POISON, NERVO-VITAL DEBILITY, PROSTATIC, BLADDER and KIDNEY troubles, and all associate diseases and weaknesses, with their reflex complications.
