

MAN FIRES AT HER HE LOVES

Negro Takes Two Shots at and Assaults Woman Who Rejects Him.

IN MEANTIME HE GETS BULLET IN NECK

Enraged Lover is Shot Through Hat and Ear, but by Whom the Police Are Not Certain.

After an exciting chase from Thirteenth and Davenport streets to Twenty-fifth and Cass Monday morning, Joseph Price, colored, was caught by Patrolman Reigelman and charged at the city jail with shooting with intent to kill Miss Ora Wolf-skill of 221 North Thirteenth street.

Price took two shots at the woman, then viciously assaulted her on the street. During the excitement Price was shot in the neck, either by a deflected bullet from his own weapon or by someone whose name has not been learned. Inasmuch as Price's hat had a bullet hole and his left ear was clipped by the missile, the police are inclined to believe someone took a shot at Price while he was waiting the woman to leave. Having heard Sunday that Price threatened to kill her, she went over to stay with her sister, Mrs. Cora Wiseman, Thirteenth and Davenport streets. About 9:30 Monday morning Price called at the Wiseman place and asked Miss Wolf-skill whether her decision in regard to quitting his company was final. Miss Wolf-skill said it was final. Then, according to witnesses, Price took the shots at the woman, dragged her off the walk and struck her several times. With the smoking weapon in his hand, Price ran west on Davenport street and managed to outrun his pursuers. The patrol wagon came on a hurry run and at the Palace stables Patrolman Reigelman secured a saddle horse and followed the trail, closing in on Price at Twenty-fourth and Cass streets in a patch of weeds.

Price is a mulatto and worked at the Union Stock yards. The trouble occurred at the home of Mrs. Cora Wiseman, wife of Dell Wiseman, the man who escaped from 1223 Howard street on the evening of May 12, when John Johnson was fatally stabbed by R. J. Johnson. Dell Wiseman thought at the time he had shot the injured man. He has not yet been heard from.

Price and Miss Wolf-skill were attended by the police surgeon. The woman was held as a complaining witness.

SETH WINCH WILL CASE IS UP

Suit for Rehearing is on Before Judge Troup of the District Court.

The suit for a rehearing of the Seth Winch will case is being heard by Judge Troup of the equity court. All the evidence in the former trial is being read and, as the transcripts are voluminous, it probably will require the entire week to complete the reading of the evidence.

The suit originally heard by Judge Sears was to probate the will of Mr. Winch, who died leaving an estate valued at about $30,000. The original of the will was lost and suit was on the probate of a copy. Just as Judge Sears was about to sign the decree refusing to admit the will to probate, Elmer E. Thomas, one of the attorneys for the defendants, returned it to the files, having found it at his office. Judge Sears could not change the decree, however. The plea for a new trial is based on the fact the original will is now at hand and that the records were so voluminous the reporter could not finish the transcript in time to complete an appeal to the supreme court.

BOY PAROLED FOR FUNERAL

Adopted Son Attends Funeral of John Betts Under Charge of Sheriff.

The funeral of the late John Betts took place Sunday afternoon from his home, 2515 North Seventeenth street. The services were conducted by Rev. C. W. Savidge and under the joint auspices of the Ladies of the Grand Army and of Custer post, Grand Army of the Republic, of which latter organization Mr. Betts was a member. Interment was made at Prospect Hill cemetery.

A sad incident of the funeral was the presence of an adopted son of the deceased, a young man who was reared by Mr. Betts and for whom the latter had a most ardent affection. A few years ago the young man, who led a wayward life, was convicted of larceny and sentenced to a term in the Lincoln penitentiary. The affection between the two was deeply sincere and the young man was permitted to attend the funeral under charge of the sheriff of Lancaster county.

CLARK IS LIKE THE SWAN

Fury Murders Spreads His Time Singing, Waiting for Death.

Harrison Clark, who is awaiting a death sentence at the county jail for the murder of Street Car Conductor Fury, has earned a reputation as a musician since he has been confined in the jail. At almost any time of the day he can be heard going over his extensive repertoire ofcoon songs, love melodies and religious hymns at the top of his voice. Since his confinement in the solitary cell this is the only form of amusement open to him, and he appears to enjoy it, even if he is staring in the face of death.

CONNELL ON WEED SUBJECT

Health Commissioner Addresses Himself to Task of Cleaning Out Walks and Lots.

Health Commissioner Connell has taken up the weed subject. The doctor finds that many sidewalks in the outlying districts are all but obstructed by the exotic growths, which he considers dangerous to health because their decay may produce malarious atmospheres. He looked up the ordinances and found that property owners and occupants are required to cut the weeds in front and to the rear of property and on vacant lots. If they don't do it the municipality may step in and charge up the cost by special taxation. Before deciding whether to start operations along

Y. M. C. A. PROBES FOR WATER

Secretary Wade Has Test Made to Supply New Building if Possible.

The Omaha Water company will not guarantee the Young Men's Christian association reduced rates on water in its new building, and so the association proposes to have water of its own, if possible to get it.

Secretary B. C. Wade is having a test hole sunk in the ground beneath the machinery room of the building to see how much water bearing sand lies within 100 feet of the surface and whether it carries enough water to supply the building for other purposes than drinking. The association had a reduced rate in its old building at Sixteenth and Douglas streets, but pays a flat rate in its temporary quarters in the Rohrbough building. Even if the company promised a reduced rate, said Mr. Wade, clear water would be considered enough to make the experiment with the test hole.

GRAND JURY NEXT OCTOBER

Session Probably Will Be Called Then to Take Up Further Land Cases.

Owing to the large amount of work mapped out for the November term of the United States courts for this district it is probable a session of the federal grand jury will be called as early as October. In the meanwhile the special secret service officers will continue their investigations of the alleged land frauds in northern and western Nebraska and will look after the enforcement of the order of Judge Munger for the removal of the fences where any disposition is manifested to dodge the order. Prosecutions will follow any unreasonable ignoring of the order. The secret service force will, however, be somewhat reduced, some of the officials being assigned to duty elsewhere for the present. The headquarters will be maintained here, however, until court assemblies in October.

A Great Success WAS OUR Saturday Candy Sale

Our third Saturday sale of Liggett's Saturday Candy was certainly a Great Success. Not a box of the candy was left at an early hour Saturday evening. Many of the customers who had bought candy here were back for more—seemingly appreciative of the fact that they were buying 50c candy for 30c.

Next Saturday we shall have a much larger quantity, but probably a little less than the demand, for this candy must be fresh each Saturday, and only enough bought for each Saturday's sale.

Next Saturday, Saturday, June 30, we have a 60c pound box of chocolate nuts and cream for 30c. This is Liggett's Saturday Candy, which is sold in one store only in every principal city in the United States. We have the agency for Omaha Saturday.
