OBJECTION ON KANSAS PRODUCERS

Independents Say It Would Be Disastrous to Them to Have to Sell at Refinery Instead of at Well.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—After two or three more speeches on the conference report on the railroad rate bill, the senate today sent the bill back to conference, again designating senators Tillman, Elkins and Cullom as conferees. During the day the naval appropriation bill, which has been in conference for several weeks, was finally passed, the senate receding from its amendment.

When the conference report on the railroad rate bill was taken up in the senate today Senator Elkins, who was one of the conferees, spoke on the amendment to the commodity provision using the word "railroads" instead of the phrase "common carriers".

Under the French edict, said Mr. Peabody, who requests American companies to invest in strictly French securities to the amount of the full legal reserve on policies written in France, the Mutual would have to aggregate $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 for the purpose.

NO BAIL FOR THAW

Blayer of Stanford White Charged with Murder in First Degree.

MOST DRAMATIC TRAGEDY IN YEARS

Greatest Shock Metropolis Has Had Since Stokes Killed Fish.

THAW SAYS ACT IS JUSTIFIABLE

He Alleges that Victim Wrecked Life of His Wife.

DEFENSE WILL PROBABLY BE INSANITY

Three Noted Alienists Are Called in to Report on the Prisoner's Mental Condition.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Frankly admitting that he killed Stanford White, the famous architect and pleading in justification of the deed that White had ruined the life of his wife, the beautiful former chorus girl and artist's model, Florence Evelyn Nesbit, Harry Kendall Thaw of Pittsburgh, brother of the countess of Yarmouth, occupies a cell in the Tombs awaiting the action of the grand jury on a charge of murder. His counsel has arranged for his defense of insanity, and today the prisoner was examined by eminent alienists, retained in his behalf and by the district attorney's office.

Metropolis is Shocked.

Not since the killing of James Fisk, Jr., by Edward S. Stokes on the staircase of the Grand Central hotel, more than thirty years ago, has the metropolis been shocked by so startling and dramatic a tragedy as that which was enacted last night in the presence of an audience of more than 1,000 persons in the roof theater of Madison Square Garden.

Rarely has the case against any prisoner moved with more rapidity than did the proceedings today, which ended in Thaw's formal commitment to the Tombs. There in this unusual and almost frenzied haste the routine followed and the treatment accorded to Thaw differed in no respect from that meted out to any prisoner charged with a capital offense. Roused early this morning from his cell in the Tombs, Thaw, in fresh clothing brought to him by his valet, was shackled, in spite of his protestations, to a detective and taken in the patrol wagon to police headquarters. There, after waiting his turn in the cell, he was taken to the Tombs, where he was photographed and his measurement taken on the Bertillon system. Again, in the patrol wagon, he was taken to the criminal court building, where a great multitude gathered to catch a passing glimpse of him, and was arraigned in the police court, where the proceedings were of the briefest, and after the bare formality of arraignment had been undergone Thaw was remanded to the custody of the coroner and on his order committed to the Tombs to await the result of the inquest, which was set for Thursday.

Thaw Not Excited.

Throughout the proceedings Thaw showed little evidence of agitation except when the detective approached him in the station house to put the handcuffs on his wrists. Then he protested vehemently, but on being assured that the handcuffs were not shackles, he submitted without further words. While leaving the station house and even in the court room he was compelled to run the gauntlet of batteries of cameras, from which he shielded himself as well as he could by covering his face with his unshackled hands. Thaw's physical condition was most perfect and his appetite excellent. Lawyers decline to talk.

Lawyers Decline to Talk.

Lewis Deland, who took charge of Thaw's interests immediately after his arrest, announced that the firm of Black, Olcott, Gruber & Bonnyng, of which former Governor Frank S. Black is the senior partner, had been retained to conduct the defense. Later Mr. Deland and former Judge Olcott had an interview with the prisoner in the consultation room in the prison, after which Mr. Deland declined to say anything about the case, except that it was now entirely in the hands of Mr. Black and Mr. Olcott. Mr. Olcott declined to make any statement. The whereabouts of Mrs. Thaw, who disappeared from Madison Square Garden in the confusion that followed the tragedy, remained a mystery until this afternoon, when, accompanied by a friend, Miss May McKinzie, she arrived at the office of Deland & Longfellow on Wall street, where she remained in consultation with counsel for several hours. When Thaw was served with a subpoena requiring his attendance before the grand jury on Thursday, Mrs. Thaw was clad in a plain brown automobile costume and appeared ill and nervous and apparently hardly strong enough to walk from the bridge to the door. At the lawyers' office Mrs. Thaw was joined by Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie, said to be relative of her husband. Assistant District Attorney Nott, who has charge of the prosecution, said tonight that the witnesses at the inquest and before the grand jury would first be examined by him, but intimated that Mrs. Thaw's presence at the inquest would not be required. It was understood that this course was decided upon in view of the fact that Mrs. Thaw could stand on her
