Mr. Tukey and others raised the question in the Real Estate exchange the other day as to whether residence and business property had advanced except in special instances in the last 5 or 6 years? The consensus of opinion seemed to be that there had been no material increase, and that property was still very cheap. It is agreed that this should not go to the get upon this subject, and if correct, it should greatly stimulate purchasers. The internal growth and the growth of business has been very great in Omaha and Nebraska in the past 5 years. Real estate from now on should have a steady and permanent increase in value, because of the general growth of the city and state. No items of real estate advertised below 5 years from now will appear ridiculously cheap, even though we have on the list some Farnam street property that has already advanced a little.

3,500—Three new 8-room houses in what is called Boulevard Park addition, being part of the old exposition grounds; high, slightly ground; houses all modern; very easy terms. $4,500—328 Harney, 9 rooms, all modern; suitable for a family. $4,000—Lot 50x125, south and east front; new square house, 7 rooms, very complete, small barn; room for another house; east side of Dundee, one block from Farnam car.

FLORENCE BOULEVARD.

Some one has aptly called Florence boulevard, north of Ames avenue, the "beauty spot of Omaha." It is a 100-foot wide, paved boulevard, overlooking the river and the Iowa hills and bordered in many places with fine old native forest trees. The land undulates a little, enough to give variety, and the drive bends in and out, following the contour of the bluffs. Anything along this well kept boulevard is choice. We have 122 feet front lot, just opposite Rome Miller's country residence. This has beautiful forest trees, including a live forest tree.
