BEATS SELEE AND TIES

Omaha Takes First Game from Pueblo and Second is a Draw.

SANDERS GIVES TEN HITS AND ONE RUN

McNeeley Allows but Five Hits and Omaha Makes Eight, Yet the Indians Tie It Up.

Queer luck!

Pueblo gets ten hits off Sanders and one run. Omaha wins.

Pueblo gets five hits off McNeeley and two runs, while Omaha makes eight hits off Stimmell and two runs.

To win one game and tie the other was the best Omaha could do with the Selee Indians at Vinton Street park Sunday afternoon before one of the regulation Sunday crowds, the score of the first game being 11 to 1 and the second 2 to 2. Pueblo played yellow ball in the first game and just the reverse in the second, failing to give Morrison any support whatever and backing up Mr. Stimmell well at all times, so the Omaha team was able to cash in but two runs on the eight hits made.

Sanders and Morrison, the latter of Des Moines fame, were opposed in the first game and Sanders pulled off one of his characteristic games, permitting but one run when ten hits were made. He used his head at all times and held the opponents safe at critical periods.

The first game started out all right until Omaha came to bat in the second inning, when the whole Pueblo bunch went to pieces. Welch started out with a hit to right and Bassey flew out to Melchior. Dolan hit safe and Gonding's Texas leaguer filled the bases. Long hit the ball to Elwert, who bungled on a throw to the plate, and Welch and Dolan scored. Sanders bunted safe and Gonding scored and Nick Carter bunted a clean one and Long scored. Howard hit safe to right, but Sanders could not get beyond third.

Two more scores were added in the third, when Bassey reached first on McGilvray's error and Dolan walked. Long and Sanders each hit safe, which scored Bassey and Dolan. In the fifth after Carter had struck out, Howard reached first, when Stimmell tried to throw the ball away and Perring brought Howard home with a double and came home himself on Bassey's triple. Bassey scored on a passed ball. Omaha made two more in the ninth for good measure.

Pueblo made its only run in the fifth inning when, after two were out, Cook singled, went to third on Long's error, and came home on Minor's single.

Second Game Interesting.

The second game was much more interesting in that it was close all the way through with Omaha playing an uphill game after the fourth inning, when Pueblo tied the one Omaha had made in the second and went one to the good. Omaha tied the score again in the eighth, where it stood at the end of the ninth, when Umpire McCarthy called the game because of darkness, the lowering clouds which were shedding a little rain making it somewhat dark.

Omaha made the first run in the second inning, when Welch hit a clean single to right and went to third on Bassey's single to the same place and came home on Fiske's error in handling Dolan's grounder. Pueblo made two in the fourth, when Minor was hit after McGilvray was out. Melchior drove a hard one right through Howard and Minor came all the way home. Elwert popped out to Howard and Messitt hit for a double, which scored Melchoir. Omaha tied the score in the eighth with three singles. Perring singled to left and Welch's second hit to right put him on third and he came home on Dolan's drive to middle field.

The same teams play this afternoon, which will be ladies' day.

Notes of the Game.

Every man on both teams except Schrant made a hit or two in the first game.

McGilvray made a circus catch in the first inning when he landed Howard's drive with one hand.

Morrison did not come within a mile of McGilvray with his throw to first in the sixth inning of the first game.

Messitt and Morrison had a sort of collision in the fifth inning, which made Messitt quit for the remainder of that game.

Had Welch been in his right position he would have caught Messitt's double and the score would have been different in the second game.

Welch made the sensational play of the day when he made one of his famous foot ball dives for the line hit from Elwert's bat in the eighth inning. After he had rolled over several times he landed upright with the ball.

Sanders was playing in hard luck yesterday and is nursing sore ships and knees today from several hard cracks he received. One ball put him out in the last inning, but he was game and played the string out.

Joe Walsh and Frank Bandle, two of the old-timers of the game, made their first appearance in years at the park Sunday. Bandle said he wanted to see how the modern game was played to be the better posted when Colonel Ryder's Cliff Dwellers go to Schuyler next Saturday.

Denver Takes Two.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., July 1.—Sioux City dropped two games to Denver this afternoon by the scores of 5 to 4 and 11 to 3. In both the Grizzlies outplayed the Packers, though a batting rally in the ninth inning of the first game came within an ace of giving it to Sioux City. An accumulation of errors in the first inning of the second game gave Denver a lead of six, which was never approached by the Packers. Both teams hit the opposing pitchers hard, a total of six home runs being made in the eighteen innings. Score, first game:

Welday Stars at the Bat.

DES MOINES, July 1.—Welday's fifth hit in the game today scored Caffyn in the last of the tenth, winning for Des Moines by a score of 8 to 7. Lincoln had secured but one hit off Miller up to the fifth, but from that time on it was either team's game to the end. Hard hitting at opportune times won for Des Moines, as Lincoln's numerous errors were seldom costly, while on the other hand four of the Des Moines errors cost runs. Score:

Ramblers Add Another Victory.

The Ramblers added another victory to their long, unbroken list Sunday by defeating the Elks by the score of 7 to 1. The Elks played a good game, but were outclassed. Ronan pitched for the Ramblers, which had a great deal to do with the result. He struck out eleven, passed two and allowed but four hits. Robinson pitched a strong game at times, but weakened somewhat when hits meant runs. Score:
