News of Bearish Nature and Wheat Is Down.

CLOSE SHOWS ALMOST CENT DECLINE

Acceptances of New Wheat Bids Said to Be Large—Corn Develops Strength, Despite Bearish Conditions—Oats Nominal Locally.

OMAHA, July 5, 1906.—All news this morning was of a bearish nature, and the wheat market opened weak after dragging until prices were off about a cent from Tuesday's close, good buying at the decline bolstered up prices somewhat. Reports covered on reports of black rust in the north, and a number of bulls rallied to a point near Tuesday's close. Acceptances of new wheat at primary markets were said to be large. The northwest was the best market, and from there said spring wheat promised a large crop.

Spotting corn prices were unchanged from Tuesday, the figures being the lowest of the year. A considerable demand developed and prices went up very slightly.

Receipts over an estimate and crop news said to be very light.

The oat market was nominal. The close was unchanged from Thursday.

Primary wheat receipts were 517,000 bushels and shipments 117,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 520,000 bushels and shipments 200,000 bushels. Corn receipts were 710,000 bushels and shipments 500,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 590,000 bushels and shipments 510,000 bushels.

MANY CAUSES CONTRIBUTE TO REACTION

Vanderbilt's Address Before New York Bankers Constrained as Containing an Alarmist Note—Money is Tighter.

NEW YORK, July 5.—The recovery in prices of stocks which began on Tuesday was practically wiped out on realizing. The reaction of the morning was due to a number of causes, including a note by Vanderbilts in the New York Times, and a general feeling of conservatism.

Bankers constrained as containing an alarmist note—Money is tighter. The market showed a reaction after a brief recovery. Money is tight, and there is a general feeling of conservatism.
