

MONEY AND HUSBAND GONE.

Fateful Tale Related by Woman Who Fled from San Francisco.

TELLS HOW SHE WAS FILCHED OF COIN.

Says Her Husband Had Man Represented to Be Mayor Who She Knows Was a Conspirator.

A man who said he was mayor of San Francisco enters into the tale of distress and possible desertion related by Mrs. Annie Blaucho to Superintendent Morris of the Associated Charities.

The woman is a German, who married an Italian and survived the San Francisco disaster. She and her year-old baby were shipped to Omaha along with a lot of other refugees, but before leaving Vincent, her husband, pried her loose from $1,500 belonging to herself and infant and which she says, was deposited in the National Bank of California. She received no word from the husband until a few days ago, when a letter came from Florida stating he had heard reports that she had been in Des Moines consorting with another man.

Then Came the Crash.

She says $500 was left to her and $700 to the infant by the death of her mother in Germany. Her husband, it appears, was a painter, and the cash went on deposit. Then came the morning of grinding shocks and falling buildings, followed by fire. The Blaucho family was in the midst of the mad flight for safety. Eventually, the woman says, she was told that she, with another woman, must leave, but that her husband must remain to work clearing up the debris and rebuilding the town.

The long silence of Vincent made the woman fear for his safety, but the letter from Florida aroused suspicions of his faithfulness. The neighbors heard the story and brought it to the Associated Charities, and Superintendent Morris has undertaken an investigation to bring up the facts and to determine if Vincent really wants to abandon his wife and child, what he has done with the $1,200 and why he went to Florida.

Mrs. Blaucho says she does not now think it was the real mayor of San Francisco who entered into the deal, basing her conclusions on the study of newspaper pictures.

To Correct False Reports.

The report being circulated that Hayden Bros. are using the depository money in their business is absolutely untrue.

The deposits in Hayden Bros.' bank are loaned on the best and most available security for the safety of the depositories. Not only that, but Hayden Bros.' bank has more solid wealth and cash resources for its liabilities than any other bank we know of, either in this state or elsewhere. There is no mortgage or incumbrance of any kind on Hayden Bros.' property; it is all clear to strengthen and support the bank assets in case of panic or adverse conditions of any kind. It might be well to think of these facts when making your savings deposits.

Hayden Bros.' bank will pay 4 per cent interest from July 1 on all deposits made before July 15; no notice required to withdraw your money.
