The Social Calendar.

SUNDAY-Miss Ella Mae Brown, supper at the Country club in honor of Miss son has been ideal for golf and the links at the Country and Field clubs were never few enthusiasts who play continually, and they have tried in vain to arouse their friends to engage in the sport. However, the golf contest arranged by Miss Belle Kimball at the Country club last Tuesday, proved so enjoyable that it promises to have the desired effect that Miss Kimball hoped for. The players were all enthused after the contest and Mrs. H. T. Lemist at once invited them to a similar one on and has arranged to have several holes on the spacious lawn of the beautiful Kimball mansion on St. Mary's avenue, where Socially the last week was a very quiet for an outing or picnic that they had little ing golf or tennis. At toth places there was a crush at the dinner and dance. There is scarcely anything on the calendar for the coming week, and unless many informal and impromptu affairs are given the many reservations have been made.

TAKE A BARBEL HOME WITH YOU

Ice Cream is more popular this season than ever. Pure Ice Cream is refreshing and healthy, 100.

We have sold over 25,000 of these little Barrels of Ice Cream and the demand is increasing rapidly. They are filled with three flavors of Ice Cream and the Barrels are so constructed that they keep the Ice Cream hard for a long time on a hot day.

Women Will Feed Delegates.

Women of the Lowe Avenue Presbyterian church are divided into divisions, each one under a captain, and the rivalcy for tais-ing funds for the new church building is keen. Two divisions, led by Mrs. Dooly and Mrs. Coningham, have pooled their interests temporarily and will serve meals to the visitors who will attend the Bap-tist Young People's convention this week. A dining room will be opened at 535 How-ard street and the women will serve din-ner and supper Thursday. Friday and Sat-urday. Because of the large numbers which will attend the convention the capacity of the batels and restaurants of the city will be taxed to the utmost, and the women expect to clear a neat sum for the new house of worship.
