proprietor, with the assistance of his waiters, is said to have thrown Gill out of the place. When an officer reached the scene Gill was lying on the sidewalk in front of the restaurant and was bleeding freely from several cuts on his face and head.

Complaint was made that the gas company, which took up the paving on Ninth avenue to relay its mains, failed to place the brick back on concrete, as required by the ordinance. The complaint of the whole of the city council inspected the work Friday afternoon and found that while the company was ostensibly, it is said, using concrete, the material was not up to specification in that it lacked the proper amount of sand and cement. ## TO RAISE BUTTER STANDARD

Dairy Commission Preparing to Stop Sale of Impure Cream.

RAILROAD ASSESSMENTS COME UP TODAY

Officers of Meat Producers' Association Will Urge Commission to Make Rate of Ten Million Dollars.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

By enforcing rigidly the new law prohibiting buying and selling impure cream for the purpose of manufacturing it into human food, State Dairy Commissioner H. R. Wright expects to greatly improve the standard of Iowa butter, which has already attained a high marking in eastern markets. He believes that Iowa can make as good butter as any made in the world, and so stated today. The new law was passed by the legislature for that purpose last winter and went into effect July 4. By the provisions of this law a penalty of from $25 to $100 in the way of a fine awaits anyone who either buys or sells impure cream or adulterated cream or milk with the idea of manufacturing it into human food, or cream that is unfit for such use. The dairy commissioner is given wide latitude in the enforcement of the law and has already taken steps to enforce it. According to Dairy Commissioner H. R. Wright, the stiff competition between creameries over the state has caused them to buy all kinds of cream. Cream is allowed to collect for several days before it is sent to the creameries, and by that time it is spoiled, and yet the creameries will buy the cream because competition is stiff and some other creamery will get the patronage if they don't. This cream makes a very inferior butter, according to the dairy commissioner. The new law providing a penalty for either buying or selling such cream is designed for the purpose of stopping its manufacture into butter. Dairy Commissioner Wright declares that the climate and quality of grass in this state give it an opportunity to make as famous butter as that of Denmark, if there is the same rigid inspection and enforcement of law by the state government. This he proposes to do under this new law.

Railroad Assessments Tomorrow.

The executive council will meet at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning in the governor's rooms for the purpose of hearing representatives of the railroads and any citizens who care to be heard as to what the railroad assessment should be this year. Last year the increase in the assessment was only about $1,000,000. This year there are indications that it will be a very much greater increase. Representatives of the tax departments of various railroads reached the city Saturday and today, and it is understood that officers of the Corn Belt Meat Producers' association, who were before the council last year for the first time to argue for a higher assessment, will be present tomorrow morning at the first hearing. The largest increase the council has ever made was in 1903, when a raise of $5,335,563 was made. In 1904 the increase was only $265,647 and in 1905 only $508,623. There is talk this year of $10,000,000 or $15,000,000. It is quite possible that something less than $10,000,000 will be added, as the reports by the railroads were never so flattering as this year.

Dr. Kennedy's Job Safe.

Because of the old soldiers' preference for Dr. J. Kennedy, secretary of the State Board of Health, will be re-elected secretary of the board at the annual meeting in Waterloo. There are a large number of candidates out for the position on the supposition that Dr. Kennedy will not be a candidate for re-election. But he has now held the position longer than any other person has held any state position. It is discovered that the old soldiers' law protects an old soldier in a position much better than it aids a getting a position, and his position is a position which is probably no other candidates will present their names to the state board. The board meets in Waterloo Tuesday next, and these candidates have all been mentioned for the position: G. H. Sumner of Waterloo, L. A. Thomas of Des Moines, Charles H. Davenport, H. A. Wheeler of Sioux City and Dr. Charles H. Shultz of Spirit Lake.

Honor for A. J. Small.

A. J. Small of this city was made a member of the library law section of the National Library association at the recent meeting at Narragansett, N. H., and was elected to Northern Pacific.

S. W. Flint of this city, who fourteen years ago started in as stenographer in the employ of the Northern Pacific at $35 a month, working in company with Oscar Vanderbilt, has resigned his position as passenger and ticket agent for the Wahpeton at his post and has accepted a position with the Northern Pacific, in charge of the immigration work for Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota. He will leave here within two weeks to travel to the Pacific coast to familiarize himself with the work and the resources on the lines of the Northern Pacific.

Governor's First Marriage.

Governor Cummins will probably perform his first marriage ceremony at the state house July 21. The governor received a letter from J. H. Elbe of Oskaloosa yesterday asking him to perform such a service for him. He did not state the bride's name, but insisted that the service be performed at the state house by the governor. The governor has no other engagement for that day.

Miss Daisy Irene Lutz, librarian of the City library of Clinton, has resigned her position there to accept the position of assistant librarian of the library of the University of Nebraska. Her resignation takes place August 4. Miss Lutz has taken a prominent part in the library work of this state at the meetings of the state association and is considered one of the best city librarians in the state.

Gives Legislature a Problem.

One family in this city has increased from a father and mother and five children to a family of 150 persons in forty years, and every member of the family has a city jail, county jail or state penitentiary record and all have received aid from the county at some time or other. The family presents a problem to the state legislature. Preparations are being made now to present the facts concerning this family to the legislature next winter in the hope of getting a law to prevent the marriage of persons with criminal or pauper records. Such a law was endorsed by the State Bar association at the suggestion of the late Judge L. G. Kinné some years ago.

Iowa Has a Wolf Eel.

The state of Iowa is the owner of one wolf eel. There is only one other in captivity and that is in the Field Columbian museum in Chicago. It is pickled in alcohol, as is also that belonging to the state of Iowa. Both were secured in the Pigeon lake, near Briarcliff, Ky., near this city, today.
