

TENNIS AT THE FIELD CLUB

Half of Preliminary and Two Games of First Round Completed.

LARGE GALLERY WITNESSES MATCHES

Fourteen Clubs from City in Addition to Field Club Members Participate in the Play.

About half of the preliminary games and two games in the first round of the city championship were played at the Omaha Field club courts Saturday afternoon, rain delaying the play and making it impossible to play off more.

A large gallery was present and watched the matches with interest, many of the games being worth while. The courts were perfect before the shower, which made them a little slow for fast play. The six courts were occupied from the start, the seventh court being reserved for club members during the tournament.

Fourteen clubs from the city are represented and the outside club members outnumber the Field club players for the first time. The standard of the players is higher than in any previous year and some fast tennis is looked for before the week is over.

The best match of the afternoon was the one between Koch and Dufrene. Both players were in good form and the showing put up by Koch makes him a probable contender all the way through. Dufrene did not put up quite the game of which he is capable because he has been unable to get in any practice for the last two weeks. He will probably be heard from in the association.

Another good match was between Schwartz and West. Schwartz's ability to lower ground and his general headwork enabled him to win over West's more spectacular game.

Another game for the most part resulted about as expected, but many of them were closer than the scores would indicate.

It is too early yet to pick a possible winner of the tourney, but this may be more apparent after Monday's play, when the preliminaries and first round are completed.

The winner of the tournament will be the champion, as Conrad Young, the present champion, does not intend to defend the title, but will let the honor go to the challenger.

There will commence Monday evening at 8 o'clock and any players not on hand will lose by default.

Final round: Dufrene, 6-4, 6-2; Schwartz beat Hryn, 6-4, 6-1; Koch beat Dufrene, 6-4, 6-3; West beat Hryn, 6-4, 6-2; Schwartz beat West, 6-2, 6-4; Koch beat West, 6-2, 6-4.

Final round: Koch beat Dufrene, 6-2, 6-4; Schwartz beat Koch, 6-1, 6-2.

LOCAL CLUB TO PROTECT FISH

Omaha Rod and Gun Men Propose to Guard the Waters.

That the Omaha rod and gun club is to become one of the strongest fish and game protective organizations in the west is well known out by the fact that during the past week from seventy-five to 200 members have been calling at the club house and have been making a list of the names of black bass taken from Cut-off lake in recent years, as well as coming with stories of the fish they lost, that would make the eyes of the most sleepy listener pop open with envy.

With the protection and care given this body of water by the Omaha Rod and Gun club, Cut-off lake is fast becoming one of the best fishing resorts in the vicinity of Omaha and with frequent plantings of bass and blue and white perch, it is being seen it will become the ideal spot for the following of Isaac Walton in this vicinity.

As quoted by George W. Carter, chief warden of the Nebraska Game and Fish commission, on the subject of the protection of the lake in the state of Nebraska for bass and there is no reason why with proper protection, it should not become the best bass lake in Nebraska. Even the pike fingerlings, which were planted a year or two ago by the Game and Fish commission, have grown to be from twelve to fifteen inches long and quite a number have been caught this season, which proves without a doubt, that pike, as well as black bass, thrive in these waters.

Since the completion of the new boat house fitted with lockers, and the new dock, together with the club house, the Omaha Rod and Gun club is fast becoming a popular rendezvous for the Omaha fishermen and for the man who wishes to get away from the noise of the city. Besides this, many people are taking advantage of the facilities offered for camping on the grounds of the club, which are in close proximity to the car line and it is but a short ride to town.

It is hoped that by another year the club can boast of quite a fleet of sail boats and a good start has already been made in that direction, as a number of club members are now figuring on plans for boats which they will work out during the fall and winter and by which they propose to out-run any of the boats now on the lake.

The Handy Doctor in Your Vest Pocket

Enamel Box—When carried in your vest pocket it means Health-Insurance.

It contains Six Candy Tablets of pleasant taste, almost as pleasant as Chocolate. Each tablet is a working dose of Cascarets, which acts like Exercise on the Bowels and Liver.

It will not purge, sicken, nor upset the stomach. Because it is not a "Bile-driver," like Salts, Sodium, Calomel, Jalap, Senna, nor Apertent Waters.

Neither is it like Castor Oil, Glycerine, or other Oily Laxatives that simply lubricate the Intestines for transit of the food stopped up in them at that particular time.

The chief cause of Constipation and Indigestion is a weakness of the Muscles that contract the Intestines and Bowels. Cascarets are practically to the Bowel Muscles what a Massage and Cold Bath are to the Athletic Muscles.

They stimulate the Bowel Muscles to contract, expand, and squeeze the Digestive Juices out of food eaten. They don't help the Bowels and Liver in such a way as to make them lean upon similar assistance for the future.

This is why, with Cascarets, the dose may be lessened each succeeding time instead of increased, as it must be with all other Cathartics and Laxatives.

Cascarets act like exercise. (or carried in My Lady's Purse,) and eaten just when you suspect you need one, you will never know a sick day from the ordinaryills of life. Because these pills begin in the Bowels, and pave the way for all other diseases.

"Vest Pocket" box 10 cents. Be sure you get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Company, and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "CCG."

APPEALS TAKEN IN TWO CASES IN WHICH CITY IS PARTY DEFENDANT

RAILROADS ARE AFTER TRESPASSERS

Laborer at Kilpatrick Grading Camp Falls Forty Feet and Comes Out with Only a Few Bruises.

Notice of appeal from the action of the city council to the district court has been filed in two important cases. In both these cases the council has denied the claim of the petitioners for damages. The first case is that of Thomas V. Smith, a resident of Missouri avenue, who has been refused a right of way for a street crossing the tracks of the Chicago and North Western railway. The second case is one in which E. J. Quigbaum takes exception to the action of the regularly appointed appraisers for the grading of Thirty-ninth street in not allowing him any damages on property affected by the grading of that street south of Q. The council approved the work of the appraisers and from this Quigbaum takes appeal to the district court.

George Bures, a laborer at Kilpatrick's grading camp, fell from a trestle to the ground, a distance of about forty feet. Although he fell in a hard road all his injuries appear to be confined to severe bruises. He was working on the top of the trestle, a number of other laborers, Clara Schnitz, one of them, was a head on the road below. The fall rendered him unconscious for a period of a half hour or more. During that time a fall was sent for the brewed ambulance, which, on the way to the hospital, arrived at the South Omaha hospital. On the way he gradually regained full consciousness and complained of suffering considerable pain. He thought at least two of his ribs were broken, but the examination at the hospital showed they were not. He will be able to get out in the course of a week at least. Dr. W. H. Slagstad did not consider his hurts at all alarming.

men who put up a modern building now, says dig down as far as the ground as they erect it into the air. This old procedure is evidenced in the construction of the new Brandeis building. A series of big steel pipes is being drilled sixty feet down into the earth to render safe the elevators for the new structures. The elevators will be turned sixty feet upward in the building. Throngs of shoppers who have been daily stopping in the runway between the arcade and the annex to watch the drilling and the sinking of the big pipes have fanned an artesian well was under way.

The new elevators are novelties in Omaha. They are the "plunger" or direct hydraulic elevators, the power being furnished by water which, forced up the sixty-foot pipes, drives the supporting elevator shaft upward. When the elevator comes down the water escapes through a valve in the tubing and allows a uniform drop. If the upper supports of the elevator should break, the water in the valve could escape from the valve. It is on this tested principle that the elevators are declared absolutely safe.

The drilling has brought up a variegated lot of clay, some hard and some soft. In the drilling process, the yellow clay gave way to black and finally to different shades of blue. The installation of the stunner elevators at Brandeis marks the addition of a new feature to Omaha's modern buildings.

The Wise Memorial Picnic. A great number of tickets have been sold in advance by the canvassing committee for the fourth annual outing of the Wise Memorial hospital at Krug park next Wednesday.
