

BAPTIST SABBATH IN OMAHA

Minister-Delegates to Convention Preach in Evangelical Churches in Morning.

ALL HAVE GOOD-SIZED CONGREGATIONS

President Chapman Talks to Young Men's Christian Association and Fills Them with New Zeal.

Scarcely an evangelist church in Omaha yesterday morning had its pastor in its pulpit to preach. Minister-delegates to the convention of the Baptist Young People's union filled the places of the pastors, and good sized congregations turned out almost in every instance.

of the heart, but that the mind has cognizance of it. It is a matter of common conviction, of agreement in service. It means side by side toil. It is also a matter of spirituality and depends on regeneration.

SECRETARY WEBB ON POWER

Manifestation of Spiritual Power is Not Full Enough. Rev. George C. Webb of Illinois, international secretary of the Baptist Young People's union of America, preached at St. Mary's Avenue Congregational church Sunday morning on "Power."

"There never was a time in the history of the Christian church when we talked so much about power as we do now," said he. "But there is not the full manifestation of spiritual power there should be considering the number of words spoken about it. There has never been so large a literature on the subject as during the last fifteen years, nor have we been so rich in songs of praise and hymns of power as in recent years."

REPENT KEY TO JOHN'S MINISTRY

One Word Characterizes Whole Career.

In his discourse at the Second Presbyterian church yesterday morning Rev. A. A. Mainwaring, pastor of the First Baptist church of Logansport, Ind., characterized the ministry of John the Baptist as summed up in the word "repent."

"John led the morning of the early Christian era. Today the full sunshine of God's love is beaming on us, and we need more than ever before to repent.

"John was a voice. He was a voice crying to all to prepare the way of the Lord, and he brought down with fell strokes the mighty Jewish superstitions.

"John was a voice. He was a voice crying to all to prepare the way of the Lord, and he brought down with fell strokes the mighty Jewish superstitions.

which floats with the current is a dead fish, and he's so dead he stinks. I tell you if some people don't wake up and live according to conviction and not by convenience there'll be some smells around here by and by."

THEY WIN WHO SIDE WITH GOD

Crisis of Faith Theme of Rev. R. M. West's sermon.

Hundreds were turned away after all the stiles, the choir loft and standing room were filled when Rev. R. M. West of St. Paul was the speaker at the First Baptist church Sunday morning, filling the pulpit of Rev. J. W. Conley, who was pastor of the First Baptist church in St. Paul for five years before Mr. West went there.

"The crisis of faith" was the theme of a sermon, the text of which was, "But I have prayed for thee that thy faith fail not and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren."

"Faith is a matter of considerable importance in life and Jesus had a way of going right to the core of the matter," said Mr. West. "He brushed aside all small questions and kept to the main issue, as was illustrated in the case of Peter's faith. The Brooklyn bridge stands out formidably in relief with its cables of galvanized small steel wires holding up the whole structure. The cables are not the most imposing part of the structure, yet they carry all the burden. Life has tremendous loads to carry in various lines, but faith, anchored to God, will carry us through."

"The life of Jesus Christ was human and the principal crisis came when man wished him to be king. He pondered long and late into the night and met the situation by faith. The people were chafing under the Roman rule and held hatred against that government and were ready to make any sacrifice for deliverance. They believed they saw in Jesus Christ the right man to lead them against the armies of Rome. They would do his will if he would but consent to lead them. His decision was, 'I will do the work which my Father has planned for me.' He realized God had sent Him into the world for the whole human race and not simply for one little race."

SANBURG JURY DISCHARGED

Unable to Agree on Verdict After Being Out Twenty-Four Hours.

After being out twenty-four hours, the jury in the case of Robert Sandburg against the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company was discharged by Judge Estelle without having arrived at a verdict. This was the fourth trial of the case, and no disagreement having preceded this one. At the first trial one of the jurors broke his arm and the case was stopped.

ELKS ON THE WAY TO DENVER

Omaha Welcomes Large Delegation of Order Passing Through.

LIVELY SCENES AT DEPOTS ALL DAY LONG

Mayor Dahlman and Bill Canada Lead in Greeting the Visitors Who Are Accorded Most Hospitable Treatment.

Elks alone passed through Omaha, the gateway to the west, Sunday morning, afternoon and evening en route to Denver. The grand lodge meeting will be held July 15 to 16. Excitement never had more jolly crowds in one day and was constantly the scene of some trainloads of Elks and their families and friends, either alighting from the cars and being welcomed by the local lodge officers and Mayor Dahlman in person.

Mayor Dahlman was on hand and as the crowd would slight he would make a characteristic speech of welcome, giving the travelers the privileges of the city and promising them the best the town afforded as long as they would remain within the gates. W. T. Canada, exalted ruler, in behalf of the local lodge of Elks, would follow with a warm speech of welcome, inviting all to take a trolley ride and to use the club rooms to the fullest extent.

Open House at Club. The Elks club rooms were gaily decorated for the occasion and the larder was well filled from which all were invited to partake without cost.

Prize Train from Lowell. The largest train of the day was that from Lowell, Mass., which came over the Great Western from Chicago and which was in charge of W. A. Dolan, division passenger agent of the Great Western for the New England states. The train, which carried over 200 people in eleven cars, made a fine run from Chicago, leaving there at 5 o'clock Sunday morning and arriving at Omaha before 6 o'clock in the evening.

Reception Committee Busy. The reception committee did its work in a thorough manner and was appreciated by all. Responses were made to the welcomes of Mayor Dahlman and Exalted Ruler Canada by leading Elks from the different sections of the country.
