'FRISCO RATE IS STILL IN

Grain Tariff that Was Outlawed Continues to Have Its Effect.

TAKES TRADE OUT OF OMAHA SOUTH

Local Grain Exchange Which Once Knocked Out Schedule Does Not Signify What It Will Do Now.

Railroad men report that grain is still moving from southern Nebraska to Kansas City and thence south on the 'Frisco on the old rate which the 'Frisco was supposed to have been compelled to cancel.

Elk Rates Draw Crowds.

Burlington trains through Omaha Sunday were run in two and three sections to accommodate the large number of people going to Colorado to take advantage of the low rates put in effect because of the 22nd convention.

Law is Hard to Obey.

Gerrit Fort, assistant general passenger agent of the Union Pacific, has returned from Chicago, where he has been for several weeks attending various meetings of the installation of new rates and other passenger business.
