leports of Red Rust in Wheat in Manitoba Do Not Cut Any Material Figure.

OMAHA, July 25, 1905.

Wheat started well, but the dealers in the northwest began to sell heavily, and after the pitce had been forced up nearly a a cent in September deliveries, in which the nuck of interest lay, there came a weak-rains and the close was a fraction under the day before. Reports of damage by red rust from Manitoba did not discount the garreral indications of a large crop. Sometime the light receipts kept the prices up to the point where they are. The cash demand was good at Omaha, but only fair elsewhere. Cables were from 14454d higher wains to bullish news from Russia. Trading on the local floor was but moderate, and September quit just where it started and rested the day before. The export demand was said to be poor. Forty-eight cars of wheat were inspected at Omaha. Beptember corn took an upward shoot with oats and climbed a fraction over a cent. Then it weakened, but closed better than the day before. Shorts were stationary.

Corn was by the final situation and additional reports of rust in Manitoba, and the advance in custom in the day, however, the focal bulls who had profits commenced to self freely withing at the same time by cash houses said the impression that country acceptances were large. Under the pressure the also caused prices to weaken somewhat. The close was inclined to weakness and by $6 lower. September option declined to 15,86 bu. Primary receipts were 1,500,000 bu. against 1,388,000 one year ago. Minneapolis, Duiuth and Chicago rejurted receipts of 535 cars, against 595 cars last week and 44 cars one year ago. The corn market was strong all day, although it lost part of its advance because of the slump in wheat, which caused some loling of the coarse grains. The early market sdvanced ic on reports of damage by dry weather, light acceptances and a strong demand from cash houses. An advance of 12 in the price of hay because of reported dry weather had a pronounced bullish effect on both corn and oats, it being figured that if there was a shortage in the hay crop the demand for both grains would be largely increased. Heavy restiging sales late in the session also led to weakened prices, but, despite these things, the market railled on the slightest encouragement and the close was strong. September opened 4 to 14 to 15 cc. and closed at 51 to 2. Local receipts were 107 cars, with 40 cars of contract grade.

The cais market was strong for the greater part of the day, and, although it weakened along with corn and wheat, is had an advance during the session of almost 1c for the September option.
