PA WINS WITH DODGE IN BOX

Omaha Takes First Game of the Series with the Grizzlies.

DENVER UNABLE TO CASH IN ON HITS

Visitors Get Nine Safe Ones Off Dodge, but They Are Scattered—Lawler Makes Great Catch.

Dodge pitched good ball and Omaha won the opening game of the series from Denver Thursday at Vinton street park by bunching three of the five hits made off Adams in the first inning, which, coupled with Russell's error, netted three runs, enough to win the game.

The game was sort of listless all the way through, although there were many interesting features and a few hitches which reminded the fans of the times just past when the Des Moines team was visiting in Omaha. Belden tried to get a little chastreperous and went to the bench for a drink of water while at bat, and when Dodge pitched the ball over the plate in his absence Davis called him out. It was the third strike. Bill Everitt was omnipresent, his new buff-colored bargain counter suit having been laid aside for a Denver uniform, so he could coach from the side lines and parade his manly form before the grandstand.

Lawler played in hard luck. He had two balls come right at him and then bound out of reach so he had no chance to get them and retire the runner. He covered himself with glory in the seventh inning, when he ran backwards to catch Russell's Texas leaguer, fell all over himself and recovered in time to catch the ball. It saved a run, for Randall had preceded Russell with a three-sacker, and the score would have been tied had not the oil magnate captured the ball in the phenomenal fashion he did.

Denver has a new second baseman in the person of one Donahue, who might hail from Kerry Patch. He is about the mouthiest man who has been on the grounds for some time. He did not seem to bother Davis any, but kept chewing the rag with his teammates for his own blunders.

Denver made one run in the first inning off a walk by McHale, who was sacrificed to second by Tommy Smith, and came home when Russell hit down the third base line. Perring had plenty of time to capture the ball, but let it go in the hope that it would roll outside, Denver's other run was made in the seventh inning after two were out. Smith hit to left field and came home on Randall's triple.

Omaha made three in the first inning, and that was all, for Mr. Adams settled down and there was nothing further doing. Carter led off with a double to left and was sacrificed to third by Howard. Perring hit a popup to the infield that no one evinced a desire to capture. Welch flew out to Randall and Carter scored on the throw. Bassey knocked a high one to Russell, who fell in running backwards, rose in time to get to the ball; but, unlike Lawler, he muffed it and Perring scored, while Bassey went to second. Bassey scored on Gonding's soaker to middle field.

The game presented two lively first basemen. Old Sport McHale covered the bag in good shape and took everything which came his way, taking one pretty stop of Lawler's drive in the sixth inning and recovering in time to throw to Adams, who had covered the bag. Herman Long was also Johnny-on-the-spot. He made some splendid stops and several times caught the ball when it seemed impossible to get it.

The same teams will play this afternoon, which will be ladies' day. The score:

Wild Time with Pitchers.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., July 26.—Sioux City won today's game from Pueblo in the first inning on a combination of hits, errors and wild pitching by Carnes. Pitcher Jackson for Sioux City was almost equally erratic, but was fortunate in having better support than his Pueblo opponent. Carnes settled down to some extent after the first, while Jackson weakned as the game progressed, holding his lead by a narrow margin at one or two critical points. Score:

Lincoln Wakes Up Too Late.

LINCOLN, July 26.—The Lincolns played a sleepy game of ball today and Des Moines won by a score of 8 to 5. The pitchers were equally effective, but every one of Lincoln's errors figured in the run getting. A batting rally in the ninth saved Lincoln from a shutout. The local team was weakened by the absence of Third Baseman Quillin. Score:

OUT AFTER UMPIRE DAVIS' SCALP

Managers Cantillon and Holmes Find Common Ground.

LINCOLN, July 26.—If Manager Cantillon of Des Moines and Manager Holmes of Lincoln have their way the days of Ira (Slats) Davis as a Western league umpire are numbered. Both managers today announced their intention to file charges with President O'Neill against Davis, demanding the latter's dismissal. The complaints against Davis do not deal so much with his decisions, but chiefly with his character. Manager Cantillon said: "Davis is so partisan and partial toward the Omaha ball club that it is almost impossible for a visiting team to win a game in that town while he is umpiring. He took a game from Des Moines and gave it to Omaha by forfeit absolutely without a shadow of cause. All the time he had a telegram in his pocket from President O'Neill positively forbidding a doubleheader. I refused to permit the Des Moines club to play two games, as was my right under the rules of the league, and Davis deliberately took the game from us. In the presence of spectators and in front of the grandstand, Davis charged me with trying to influence his decisions, the insinuation being plain that I had sought to bribe him. If the charge were true I deserve the blacklist, but they are not true, and Davis himself is the one deserving expulsion. I shall file charges with O'Neill and the directors of the league and demand his dismissal."

Manager Holmes declares that Davis, during a game in Lincoln two weeks ago, the day after the fistic combat between the Lincoln manager and the umpire, threatened to get even with the Lincoln club. The threat was made to Pitcher Zackert while the latter was in the box and while Davis was umpiring behind him.

Toledo Wins in Ninth.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 26.—Poor fielding on the part of the locals gave Toledo the first game of the series here today. A spectator in the grandstand so angered Carr, the Indianapolis first baseman, that the latter, on returning to the bench after the first half of the ninth, made his way into the grandstand and assaulted a man said to be M. L. Clawson, an attorney of this city. Clawson, it is claimed, was making disparaging remarks of Carr's fielding ability. Carr was arrested and later released on bonds. Score:

SAWYER INSTEAD OF NEWLANDS

Young Collegian Comes from Sioux City to Omaha.

After Manager Rourke had announced to the press Thursday that he had signed Newlands of Sioux City, whom he had bought from Carney by telephone, he received another message telling him Carney would not let Newlands go, but offered him Sawyer, "a better pitcher for more money," and Rourke accepted the offer. Sawyer will report at once.

Hastings Defeats Schuyler.

HASTINGS, Neb., July 26.—(Special Telegram.)—Hastings defeated Schuyler to the tune of 8 to 4 in a seven-inning game played today. The game was called on account of rain. The features of the game were the home runs by Johnson and
