BERLIN, July 38.-(Special Cablegram to The Bee.)-A somewhat singular trial, in which one of the most ancient aristocratic families of Germany is involved, has of late been engaging public attention. Hereditury Count Erasmus au Erbach-Erbach married last year, in London, a pretty girl named Dorothea Fischer, daughter of his washerwoman. They had a good time in England, but on their return to Germany Count Erasmus' father and other members of the family decided that, if they could not obtain the annulment of the marriage. the count must be disinherited, and that the millions to which he was entitled must go to the next nearest of kin. With this purpose in view they procured medical opinon to the effect that Count Erasmus was

New obstacles have been encountered by Premier Stolypin in his efforts to secura the services in a reorganized cabinet of men of standing in Russia outside of official life. The conditions laid down by M. Guchkoff and Prince Lvoff are understood to have been rejected and they have definitely refused to enter the ministry. This presages the practical shipwreck of the enire scheme, since without the participation of the anti-bureaucracy elements it would be difficult to convince even the conservatives and the liberals of the sincerity of the government's promises.

Stolypin's Liberal Promises. Meanwhile M. Stolypin is energetically and continually trying to persuade the country that his policy of "strong-handed reform" does not involve reaction. He has announced in the provinces that the "pale" will be granted to zemstvo institutions and denies that the government intends to interfere with the legal electoral campaigns of the various parties, in virtue of which he has authorized the holding of a national congress of constitutional democrats at Moscow. He has instructed the police of St. Petersburg not to interfere with the Jewish members of the outlawed Parlisment who, under the law, when they ceased to enjoy the immunity entailed by their membership of Parliament, forfeited the right to remain in the capital more than twenty-four hours.

Such half way deeds of liberalism, however, are scorned by the Rech; which today says that the situation is no different from what it was under Count Witte, when the latter, as premier, was "filling the world with liberal declarations while his letters written by Evelyn Nesbit to Stan- wicked partner, Durnovo, was putting on
