GEORGE A. WEYGOLD UP FOR INSANITY

Old Man Who Was Starving to Death Imaginary Spirits of Departed Relatives to Be Examined.

The police found $7,000 in hundred dollar bills and a bank certificate for $2,000 carefully distributed and fastened inside the garments of George A. Weygold.

Friday morning Weygold told the police he had a lot of money hidden somewhere, but would not tell where he placed his savings.

With a small fortune on his person Weygold was literally starving to death in his room, with his dog as companion.

BROKERS ACCUSE RAILROADS

Scalpers Declare Companies Have Aided Business to Maintain Combination on Rates.

The ticket brokers filed their showing preparatory to an answer to nine suits brought by the railroads in the federal court asking that an injunction be issued to prevent the brokers from further dealing in railroad transportation at reduced rates.

1. The roads have been guilty of such laches by permitting brokers for thirty years to deal in transportation at reduced rates as to be deprived of any injunction relief from damages.

MUNICIPAL BAND FOR OMAHA

Proposition Suggested by Captain Berger, Veteran Leader of Royal Hawaiian Band.

Captain Berger of the Royal Hawaiian band paid a neat compliment Saturday morning to Omaha's beautiful garden spot—Hanscom park—after visiting that place.

The cost of having a band at Hanscom park every afternoon would be so trifling per capita and the results so far-reaching that the matter should be pushed through," remarked Captain Berger.

The captain and his associates feel pleased with their reception in Omaha. The band will go to Kansas City from here, returning home in October.
