NO HELP FOR THE CREDULOUS

Law Cannot Restore Money to Iowan Learning to Be Locomotive Fireman.

CASE COMES BETWEEN GRAFT AND THEFT. Man Who Pays Cold Cash for Few Moral Maxims Pronounced Guilty of Crime of Credulity.

E. E. Entsminger of Sewal, Ia., called at the police station Monday morning to learn whether a complaint might be filed against M. A. Sweeney, manager of "Sweeney & Co."

Mr. Entsminger showed a contract received for his paid the Sweeney company, in consideration for the 215 paid Entsminger was to have received a position as locomotive fireman within ten days.

There are three keys to success: Frontness, boldness and industry. Keep those maxims in your mind at all times and follow them, and you will succeed on the railroad as assured.

Never be idle. When your hands are not usefully employed attend to the cultivation of your mind and heart. Always speak the truth. Buy the truth and sell it too. Keep good company or none at all. A job in the hand is worth six in the bush.

Keep your eye out for the main chance. In case of accident do not talk to newspaper reporters. Do not do in darkness what you would not do in daylight with his eyes open and never play games of chance.

The railroad is made up of its employees. Do not place the lighted end of a cigar in your mouth. The police recognize that while Sweeney may be working a clever graft, he is out of their jurisdiction. Mr. Entsminger signed a contract with his eyes open and will have to stand for his own actions.

Sweeney has a small office at 209 South Twelfth street. Through advertisements in the newspapers he promises to make railroad men, from section hands to general managers, out of the man who allows himself to become a grinch and the man who smiles and booms.

Sweeney has been in the police court time and again for alleged grafting. Entsminger, in consideration for the 215 paid Entsminger was to have received a position as locomotive fireman within ten days by mail.

Here are some of the "helpful hints" calculated to make locomotive firemen in ten days by mail.
