Howard Street, Corner Sixteenth.

two. He said there was no occasion nor excuse for abusing anybody and that he had profound respect for both Mr. Perkins and Governor Cummins. He had been saying the same thing today to the delegates when he meets. The others are doing the same. It is understood that Congressman Lacey denies that he ever said he would rather be defeated than to be sent to congress by Cummins vote. Other congressmen present are talking harmony. There is not a congressman who is not mixing among the delegates and counseling with acting and punctuating the advice with statements that there should not be two conventions.

Tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock the congressional district caucuses will be held for the purpose of making nominations of members of the state central committee, resolutions committee, credentials committee and permanent organization committee. The caucuses will be held at various places about the city, and the contested districts in some of the districts may make the sessions lengthy. It is possible that the sixth district caucus will not meet after the state convention has decided which delegations from Jasper and Wapello will be seated.

Towner Temporary Chairman. The convention will be called to order at 10:30 in the Auditorium. Chairman Spence will cause the call to be read and will then name Judge Towner for temporary chairman. There is now every indication that the Cummins men will accept this unless the state central committee should order a large number of the Perkins delegation to be seated. In that event they will make their own temporary chairman and there will be two conventions.

Changes on State Committee. Between discussions of what the state committee will do with the contests, delegates to the state convention are discussing on places on the leading committees. There will be a very radical change in the make up of the state central committee, due to the change in the political sentiment in some of the congressional districts. The Third and Fourth districts are sure to have progressive committeemen to displace standpaters on the new committee.

Fourth District J. G. Hempel of Clayton, Converse of Howard and Howard of Cerro Gordo are all progressive, and actively in the field and all are progressive. They have been in the field for some time and the change are even between them. Woodard, the present standpat committeeman, cannot be re-elected.

In the Third District J. Scott Stevens of Cedar Falls will be defeated by the fact that his district is now all progressive. Harry Mitchell of Dubuque, a progressive, and Colonel Carl E. Franke of Parkersburg, a progressive, and Johnson of Waterloo, a standpatter whose candidacy is backed by Al Boehmer of the Milwaukee railroad, are in the field. One of the progressives is sure of election. In the First District C. J. Wilson, the present committeeman, is a candidate, and hopes to be re-elected if the standpaters control. Charles Junkin of Fairfield and Lamonte Cowies of Burlington, all standpaters, are candidates.

In the Second district it is understood that Dave Brandt of Iowa City has failed and has abandoned the field to McCoy of Clinton, a progressive committeeman. In the Fifth district Estabrook is a candidate for re-election, and Colonel Dows of Cedar Rapids and F. L. Anderson of Marion in the same county are candidates. It is still a question which will get the Linn delegation. Anderson is a standpatter, while Estabrook is a progressive. Estabrook will be re-elected.

In the Sixth Epps is a candidate for re-election, and if the standpaters win the majority of the committee he will be a candidate for the position of chairman of the committee. He is being opposed by Tom Bray, a progressive. The progressives control the caucus in the seating of Jasper and Wapello, it is understood a break will be made in the Monroe delegation that will nominate a progressive, and Bray will be the man. If the standpaters control Epps will be re-elected.

In the Ninth district Fitzpatrick of Story is not a candidate for re-election. Mills of the same county will be a candidate with every probability of election. There was some talk of a Polk county man, but the delegates from Polk are disposed to allow the office to remain with the outside counties of the district.

In the Eighth district Spence will undoubtedly be re-elected, but even if the standpaters are in control of the committee it is understood he will refuse the position of chairman. In the Ninth district George C. Wright of Pottawattamie will undoubtedly be selected to succeed Asmus Boyesen. In the Tenth district there are three progressive candidates to succeed Stitz X. Way, who is not a candidate for re-election. They are Frank P. Woods of Estherville, George Long of Mansfield and Ruch Clarke of Webster City. The last two named are postmasters and the first a banker. An effort is being made to have Woods on the argument that not being a postmaster or office holder of any kind, nor a candidate for one, he is a distinguished citizen and should be selected. He seems to be in the lead.

In the Eleventh district George C. Scott of Sioux City could undoubtedly be re-elected if he wanted it, but does not want it. He may be a candidate himself for district judge and in that event would not care to be committeeman. No other candidate is being talked to any extent yet and it is quite possible that the position may be forced upon him again. Progressives are disposed to give him all credit for the fight he has made against Perkins in Perkins' home town.

BRYAN'S HOT LETTER

ture to jump to conclusions too readily and to be misled by men whose assumed friends or boyhood companions are not sufficiently great to prohibit their attempting to place him in an awkward and false light before the great majority of the democrats of Illinois. The men to whom I refer, Edward Filmore Dunlap and Judge Owen P. Thompson, the leaders of the faction known as the Jacksonville club, are men who have been utterly repudiated by the democrats of the state. The fact that my name happens to be Sullivan, by far the best known reason for their attempting to discredit me than any that they have, or can be urged. The real reason for their opposition to me, I believe, Mr. Bryan to be ignorant of it, is not the first time Mr. Bryan has been deceived by these men. He was inveigled into spending their cash two years ago. He gave their claims the only merit they possessed by presenting them at St. Louis.

What was the verdict? He pleaded for them before a subcommittee of the democratic national committee by fraud. His efforts in their behalf before the democratic national committee, and again before the democrats of Illinois, the men to whom I refer, Edward Filmore Dunlap and Judge Owen P. Thompson, the leaders of the faction known as the Jacksonville club, are men who have been utterly repudiated by the democrats of the state. The fact that my name happens to be Sullivan, by far the best known reason for their attempting to discredit me than any that they have, or can be urged. He was inveigled into spending their cash two years ago. He gave their claims the only merit they possessed by presenting them at St. Louis.

Mr. Bryan said I hold my seat on the democratic national committee by fraud. That seat came to me by virtue of a vote of 49 to 2 in my favor. It is one in which the democratic convention of 1904 was entitled to it. If I hold my seat by fraud then Mr. Bryan must accuse Senator Tillman of South Carolina, Senator Culberson of Texas, Senator Dubois of Idaho, John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, Clark Howell of Georgia, the republican leaders in the "solid south" majority of those in the union next declared the men whom Mr. Bryan now champions to be frauds and villains. Finally the highest honor to be given to a man could be taken had Mr. Bryan's plea for Dunlap and Thompson and the result was as before.

CHICAGO, July 31.—Stephen A. Crowe, proprietor of the Revere hotel of this city and brother of "Pat" Crowe, the latter of Cudahy kidnaping notoriety, was indicted by the grand jury here today for attempting to bribe a juror to "hang" the jury which yesterday sentenced Circuit Court Clerk John A. Cooke to the penitentiary on a charge of stuffing pay rolls. The indictment was returned after Thomas B. Carr, the juror, said to have been approached, had told the grand jury of attempted bribery by the man who offered him $1,000 to prevent the jury from arriving at a verdict. Crowe was placed under arrest late tonight and his bail fixed at $15,000.

SECRETARY ROOT AT RIO

Head of State Department Addresses Pan-American Congress.

SPECIAL MEETING HELD IN HIS HONOR

Rights of the smallest and Weakest Nations the Text of His Address Pavilion Named Palace Monroe.

RIO DE JANEIRO, July 31.—Secretary Root and his party accompanied by members of the diplomatic corps came down to Rio this afternoon from Petropolis on a special train. He was met by a large number of prominent persons who went aboard the train in very boats. Upon arriving in this city he drove to the Abrantes palace where tea was served. At half past nine Mr. Root left the palace to attend the special meeting of the Pan-American congress held in his honor.

The pavilion was surrounded by troops and thousands of students who carried torchlights. The streets leading to the pavilion were festooned with garlands of flowers and made brilliant with many lamps.

Secretary Root's Speech. Senator Nabuco, Brazilian ambassador to the United States, opened the session with an address which he presided over as an address secretary. Mr. Root replied in part as follows:

I bring from my own country a special greeting to our sister nations in the sixteenth century. The smallest and weakest member of the family of nations is entitled to the respect of the greatest nations. We are the overseers of that respect. The chief guarantee of the weak against the oppression of the strong is the power of the weak. We wish to increase our prosperity, expand our trade and grow in wealth and power. We wish to see every American republic flourish and to see every American citizen prosper. We wish to see every American citizen prosper and to see every American citizen prosper.

Let us pledge ourselves to aid each other in the full performance of the duty to humanity that this accepted declaration implies, so in time the weakest and most unfortunate of our republics may come to the front and share with the strongest and more fortunate. Let us unite in creating, maintaining and making effective an American public opinion whose power and influence may prevent international wrong and forever preserve our country from the burden of such attempts as are massed behind the frontiers of Europe and so bring us nearer the perfection of orderly liberty, domestic security, prosperity, production, trade, wealth, learning, arts and happiness.

MUTINY AT SVEABORG FORT

to one rumor almost all the officers, and according to another, almost all the junior officers sided with the mutineers.

The mutineers at Skatudden are said to have convened an elective court-martial which condemned several officers to instant execution.

The wives and families of the officers on duty in the fortress were sent ashore by General Laiming and were not molested by the revolutionists. The "red guard" whose leaders were cognizant of the plot, dispatched an expedition by a special train as soon as the revolt broke out, to cut the railroad track outside of the city in order to prevent the arrival of reinforcements.

A general strike was declared this afternoon and was obeyed by the workmen of all the factories.

The island of Skatudden lies close to the city of Helsinki with which it is connected by a short bridge. The Skatudden fortress is about three miles from Sveaborg.

New Cabinet Promised. ST. PETERSBURG, July 31.—The Associated Press was informed from a high source late this afternoon that Premier Stolypin considers the reorganization of the cabinet to be an accomplished fact. The negotiations are terminated and the premier entertains no doubt of the acquiescence of the emperor, with the conditions to which he has agreed, and an official announcement of the reorganization of the ministry may be made tonight or tomorrow.

A number of former Octoberists who declined to sign the Viborg manifesto have now constituted themselves into a party for the peaceful reconstruction of the ministry. Premier Stolypin agreed tentatively to certain conditions which they proposed and thereupon a number of the Octoberist liberals offered to accept office in the cabinet.

The Novoe Vremya says this involves the retirement of M. Chichigovoff, the minister of justice; M. Schwanebach, controller of the empire, and M. Kauffman, minister of education, and the entrance of Alexander Guchkoff as chief of the Department of Trade and Industry, Prince Nicholas Lvoff of Saratov as minister of agriculture, Paul Vinogradoff as minister of education and Anatole Koni as minister of justice.

Liberal Reforms Promised. The program contemplates putting the liberal reforms into immediate execution with the design of pacifying the people of the country and preparing the way for next year's Duma. It involves an agrarian program looking to the expropriation of land in extreme cases for the purpose of correcting abuses where the present lands have been divided and separated into private holdings, but maintaining the principle of the integrity of private property and the gradual abolition of exceptional laws. It provides for the abolition of the death penalty, except in the army and navy and in places where martial law supersedes the civil administration with military authority.

Premier Stolypin has given his first illustration of the modified policy of the government in dealing with the members of the Duma who have arrayed themselves against him. A week ago he directed the commencement of legal proceedings against those who signed the Viborg manifesto, but later he announced that the government intended to entirely ignore the action of the members of Parliament at Viborg, and now he turns again and announces that proceedings will be initiated, although he doubts as to the intention of forcing a trial. He will probably hold the prosecution of these cases over the heads of the accused to prevent them from becoming candidates for re-election to the Duma.

Records of New Men. Count Peter Heyden, who has agreed to enter the Stolypin cabinet, has been for a number of years one of the leaders of the moderate liberal element in Russia upholding the autocracy, but advocating Parliament. He is a marshal of the nobility of the province of Pskov. He is over 60 years old. He presided at the famous zemstvo congress in Moscow in July, 1905, and was elected to the Duma, where he became the leader of the moderate liberals in the lower house. He went to Viborg, but refused to sign the manifesto.

Alexander Guchkoff, who is slated for minister of trade and industry, has been a well known figure in Moscow life for many years, but was first heard of prominently in politics at the second zemstvo congress of the present year. With M. Shipoff he acted as Count Witte's inter-
