

OFF DAY FOR TWO PITCHERS

Sawyer and Corbett Exploze and Sioux City Wins the Game.

PERRING LANDS BALL OVER THE FENCE

Omaha Makes Its Hits and Runs in Two Innings, Blanking All Rest of the Way.

Two balloon ascensions were witnessed for the one price of admission at Vinton Street park Tuesday afternoon when Sawyer for Rourke and Corbett for Carney went so far in the air they did not alight in time to continue the game and Corbett called upon for Omaha and Jarrett for Sioux City.

The Sioux took advantage of the damp grounds and played the inside game throughout and won by it. Six men made successful sacrifices and these helped in the scoring. Sioux City won 5 to 0, but the game was a close one.

Two of Sioux City's runs, however, were forced when the bases were full by passes, one from Sawyer and one from Corbett.

Both Sawyer and Corbett pitched excellent ball until they decided to float in the aerial regions, not a hit being made by Corbett and his sixth inning and Sawyer was pitching better ball than the score shows. Basey took occasion to jump into the limelight by showing off his good right throwing arm. Twice he nailed the runner at the plate from deep left and once heid a man on third by a throw home from left.

The game opened the same for both Omaha and Sioux City. Two men reached first, the first two up, and still neither side scored, and both innings ended by a double play on a throw from the outfield, by Bessey and Noblit. Campbell and Sheehan hit safe, Noblit sacrificed them for a base, when Weed hit high one to Basey, who nailed Campbell at the plate. Carter walked for Omaha and both he and Howard were safe, when Newton made a misplay Perring went down from Frost to Williams and Welch hit to Noblit, who nailed Carter at the plate.

Sioux City made the first run in the fifth inning, when Frost walked and was sacrificed to second and came home on Hess' single. Another was made in the sixth, when Sheehan was put out on first by four wide ones, was sacrificed to second by Noblit and came home on Newton's double. This made the Sioux two runs to the good.

Omaha tied the score in the sixth inning with four singles in succession off Corbett by Carter, Howard, Perring and Welch, after Sawyer was out, scoring two runs. Sioux City soon broke the tie in the seventh by making three runs on three hits, a base and ball and a man hit and by that time Herman Long sent Sawyer to the bench and called upon Corns, who retired the side without further damage.

Omaha did nothing in the seventh and Sioux City made three more runs off Mr. Corns in the eighth on two bases on balls and three hits. The Rourke family made a desperate effort to tie the score in the eighth and probably would have done so if Weed had left Corbett in to face the music, but he called on the little chap from Rulo and stuff was off. Howard flew out to Noblit and Perring ran over the left field fence for a home. Welch followed with a slug and Basey with a triple. Joe Dolan got a single and then up went Corbett. There was nothing to it after Jarrett appeared.

The same teams will play this afternoon.
