A marriage license was issued yesterday to Jesse Lynch, aged 23 of South Omaha, and Margaret Smith, aged 21 of Omaha. They were married by Justice Field, Lynch and his bride were accompanied by friends, who remained for a marriage license here and were married by Justice Field, and they insisted that they perform the ceremony for their friends. The bride-to-be somewhat "wanted" Mr. Bates, the clerk of the court, to be "lynched" exclaimed she to Mr. Bates, with a laugh in which the company joined. For the moment Mr. Bates failed to appreciate the joke, until he was informed that the groom's name was Lynch. "Now don't get us mixed up," you know it is only a short time you will be a job for me and my man here and I don't want to get married again," Mr. Bates assured her he would make no mistake and the four left in high spirits.

BOARD ORDERS CROSSING

Question of Safer Way Over Tracks Now Goes Up to Railway Commission.

COUNCIL COULD NOT BE INDUCED TO ACT

People Who Travel Over Woodbury Avenue Have Been Agitating the Question for Over a Year Without Result Until Now.

After agitating the matter of an overhead crossing over the tracks of the Great Western railroad at Woodbury avenue for more than a year the residents of that section of the city have succeeded in inducing the county supervisors to take the action which the city council failed to do. The supervisors at their session yesterday morning decided to lay the matter before the State Railroad commissioners with the request that the railroad be required to construct the crossing. The following resolution was adopted by the board:

The petition heretofore filed asking that the Chicago Great Western railway be compelled to construct an overhead railway crossing at Woodbury avenue near the city limits of Council Bluffs, Ia., having been fully considered by the board and said board having examined said crossing and location thereof, it finds:

That said crossing is dangerous, and life and property are endangered by using said crossing in its present condition, and that the petitioners in this matter should be granted, and we request and recommend that the railway commission of the state of Iowa take immediate steps to cause a change to be made as prayed in said petition.

At the January meeting of the board of property owners in the vicinity of the Woodbury avenue crossing, failing to secure any satisfactory action on the part of the city council, filed a petition with the supervisors. They stated that they take the necessary steps to have the railroad construct the needed overhead crossing. Supervisors Baker and Brandon were appointed a special committee to look into the matter and their investigations satisfied them that there was need for better protection at this much traveled crossing. Subsequently the board of supervisors referred the petition of the Woodbury avenue residents to the railroad commission but the latter sent it back with the information that it could not act on the matter until the supervisors themselves took some action. After delays of one kind and another the supervisors yesterday decided to take the action which they did and it is now hoped that the railroad commissioners will likewise act on the matter.

After the petition was filed the matter was taken up by the board of supervisors at a meeting held at the city hall. The board of supervisors at that time decided to take the matter up with the railroad commission. The board of supervisors at that time decided to take the matter up with the railroad commission. The board of supervisors at that time decided to take the matter up with the railroad commission.

HART HAVING A HARD TIME OF IT

Taught Arises Over What Court Shall Try Him

Charles B. Hart, the man charged with being a short change artist and swindler, is having a hard time getting a hearing court. Assistant Judge Rortey Gibson, in Des Moines Justice Gardner has been acting as police judge, and Hart's attorney, not desiring to try the case before him, moved for a change of venue. Under ordinary circumstances a defendant can take a change of venue from police court to the court of the nearest justice, who happens to be Justice Gardner. Hart's attorney contended that Acting Police Judge Gardner could not grant a change of venue to Justice Gardner, as his client would gain nothing by such a proceeding. He applied for and was granted a change of venue to the court of Justice Field by the Police Judge yesterday afternoon. His friend, however, did not feel like going on his bond, so Goodenough was returned to the county jail.

Dunlap Lecture Course.
DUNLAP, Ia., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—The Dunlap Lecture Course association recently held the following officers for the coming year: Chairman, G. F. Haas; treasurer, A. N. Jordan; secretary, A. J. Embury; executive committee, A. N. Jordan, G. T. Hood, A. J. Embury and G. F. Haas. The best obtainable attractions will be booked for the coming season.

General Opinion that the Sore Spots Will Heal by Election Day.

Some Doubt About the Attitude of Second District Member—Talk of Who Will Be the Chairman.

It is not altogether sure that the Cummins men will control the state central committee. They undoubtedly have five members of the committee and the stand-patters the five from the Eighth, Sixth, Ninth, First and Fifth. The Second district is one of which neither side is real sure. Chairman Spence of the old committee will likely call the new committee together about September 1, at which time it will organize. Spence is succeeded on the committee by Gopland. The Cummins men are talking of M. M. McCall of Story county, the new Seventh district member, as the chairman, and it may be will make an effort to get the committee together earlier, or at least the Cummins members together.

New Ordinance Prepared.
A new street railway franchise ordinance is being prepared and will be ready to be presented to the city council probably next Monday. The new franchise is being prepared by attorneys for the Civic league and will be far different from other franchise ordinances heretofore presented. It will provide for taxing the street railroad property as other property is taxed in order that the franchise will be constitutional and will provide also for payment of a tax on the gross receipts for the use of the streets of the city.

Dennison or Ball.
Either John D. Dennison, jr., or George W. Ball, it is believed, will be the democratic nominee for governor at the convention in Waterloo next Tuesday. Dennison lives at Dubuque and announced his candidacy some weeks ago. Judge Wade, who has been talked of, is now expected to run for congress again against Dawson. Hon. D. W. Hamilton of Sigourney has been selected by the state central committee for temporary chairman.

Retailers Organizing.
Representatives of retail merchants associations from all sections of the state are meeting in Des Moines for the purpose of forming an association which shall include all the smaller organizations. The plan is being promoted by the Iowa State Merchants' association and one of the chief purposes of the new association is to fight the mail order business.

Delegate is Robbed.
J. H. Morrison, of Seymour, a delegate to the republican state convention, was robbed of his pocketbook containing $3.10, while standing in front of the Auditorium yesterday. He has not recovered the money and there is no clue on which the detectives can work.

Shaw and Hartzell Speak.
Secretary Leslie M. Shaw and Bishop Hartzell, were the speakers at the Epworth League chautauque, at Colfax, today. Secretary Shaw talked upon "Evolution in Self Government." The attendance is the largest in many years.

Grand Master Snyder Ill.
G. L. Snyder, grand master of the Iowa Odd Fellows, who has been in attendance at the state convention, was taken very ill and is now at the home of R. L. Tilton, the grand secretary. Mr. Snyder's home is at Marion. His condition is serious but not critical.

African Cobra.
The deadliest of snakes is said to be the cobra, an African cobra. It flies at everybody and everything; it goes out of its way to quarrel; it will even come down from a tree to solicit an interview. Over in India there is the great king cobra, or Hamadryad, a size larger, quite as ferocious as the cobra known to chase a man on horseback; he had to ride for his life.

Goodenough Waives Examination.

G. Henry & Smith, alias George Goodenough, the farm hand from Weston charged with having two wives, or in legal parlance with having committed the crime of bigamy, was brought before Justice Gardner yesterday for his preliminary examination and examination, and waived examination and was bound over in the sum of $1,000 to await the action of the grand jury. Believing that Walter Clary, the farmer for whom he worked, would go surety for him, Goodenough, in custody of a deputy sheriff, was taken to Weston yesterday afternoon. His friend, however, did not feel like going on his bond, so Goodenough was returned to the county jail.

WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY

A Nebraska woman, Mrs. Abbie A. Adams, of Superior, will preside at the coming annual convention of the Woman's Relief Corps, auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic, which will be held at Minneapolis, Aug. 25 and 26.

A Nebraska woman, Mrs. Abbie A. Adams, of Superior, will preside at the coming annual convention of the Woman's Relief Corps, auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic, which will be held at Minneapolis, Aug. 25 and 26. Mrs. Adams is president of the organization which includes about 100,000 women, about 500 of which will attend the convention as officers and delegates.

Among the matters that will come up for consideration will be the report of the committee from various departments, providing for improvements in the ritualistic and other services and facilitating the work which each year calls for more work and special effort. An appropriation of money will be voted for the perpetuation of the grounds of Andersonville prison park and provision will also be made for replenishing the depleted emergency fund.

Considerable interest, naturally centers about the election of officers and the selection of national president in particular. It is understood that four candidates will be offered this year representing the departments of Massachusetts, New York, Missouri and California. It is not customary to present the rejected candidates, and there will be no special effort made to return Mrs. Adams to the first office. Massachusetts will present the name of Mrs. John E. Gilman, a past department president. Mrs. Kate E. Jones is the choice of New York. She was the first president of the first corps of the Woman's Relief Corps, organized in New York state and through her influence and at her home the department of New York was founded. Mrs. E. S. Spaulding is endorsed by the department of Missouri and the middle west. She has served her department as chairman of the department executive board. She was a national trustee of the St. Louis exposition and as such did much for the comfort of visiting members of the Woman's Relief Corps and the Grand Army of the Republic. Mrs. Gertrude E. Frisbie is the candidate from California, and also has the endorsement of Nevada. Mrs. Frisbie has been a prominent worker in her own department and is not known to others.

The finance and building committee of the Young Women's Christian association will open another active campaign for funds to complete its building the second and third weeks of October. The building fund has reached about $36,000. The building fund requires $25,000 to carry out the architects' plans of a building that will meet the actual necessities of the association. The fund has continued to grow this summer and contributions from friends in and out of the city prove that the interest is not decreasing. A former Omaha woman, now residing in Portland, Ore., stopped at the office to leave $25 one day this week, and every week has brought just such evidences of interest and desire to help.

Miss Laura A. Gregg has returned to Nebraska after devoting several months to the suffrage campaign in Oregon. Miss Gregg spent last week at Table Rock in conference with Mrs. Amanda J. Marble, president of the Nebraska Woman Suffrage association, and has gone now to her home in Kan. For a week, expecting to return to Nebraska in October to spend a month in the state work.

The librarian of the public library of Springfield, Mass., makes the following suggestion in his annual report regarding club reports in making the public library of a town the depository for public records: It occurs to me that few things would so inhibit the city's intellectual life today as if ultimately as a set for one year of the papers read by members of the many men and women's clubs. These papers, often on local points of view, if destroyed they might be anonymous, or even deposited with the local post office, and would not be made public for, say, twenty-five years. We would thus portray what our forefathers of that age were thinking, feeling and talking about.

Cool summer offices

It is mighty poor economy to have an office in a building where you and your office force are cold in winter and hot in summer. It is impossible to do good work under such conditions. The most comfortable place in Omaha, all the year around, is

THE BEE BUILDING

For $10.00 Per Month—Room 619: Very pleasant, small room on the 6th floor. It is light and well ventilated and is a very desirable room in every way.

For $15.00 Per Month—Room 618: This is an outside room on the 6th floor. It is in the portion that was remodeled about a year ago and the woodwork and floors are all new.

For $27.50 Per Month—Room 432: This is a large pleasant office, divided into a private office and a waiting room. It has been occupied by an insurance company for the last five years and is one of those desirable offices, that is usually impossible to secure.

For $75.00 Per Month—Suite 648: This is without doubt the most desirable suite of offices in the building. It consists of a large room, containing between four and five hundred square feet of floor surface and has a small room adjoining it. It is a corner office, with a large burglar proof vault. It has a most beautiful outlook, facing south and east. In connection with the office is a small room, which can be used for physician's, a dentist's laboratory, or coat or store room. The office has hard wood floors and is finished in hard wood throughout. There is nothing in Omaha that compares with this suite of offices.
