Driven to Win. FREMONT, Neb., Aug. 2.-(Special Tele-gram.)-There was a good attendance at the races this afternoon and the way the judges dished out fines to drivers brought down the applause of the grandstand. Pool favorities fared hard all around. Lady On-line took the 2:37 trot by steady work in the last three heats. Wax Wing showed some wonderful bursts of speed in this race, but was too erratic. It was in the 2:35 trot that the talent had things fixed with the drivers, it was stated, and got a jar. Brownell's chestnut mare, Sequel, won the first two heats, with Fannie C, and Mar-garet B, close up Lew Brown, driver of Fannie C, was removed and fined $50. C. P. Hust of California. MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 3.-(Special Tele-gram.)-Through a change in the schedule, Blatherwick of the Omaha Tennis club was matched with R. G. Hunt, the Californian, today. It was a case of either stuge fright or a complete loss of control, for the Ne-braskan played a very poor game and gave Hunt an easy victory, incidentally a boost to the championship play. Blatherwich was completely outclassed in all the rounds, showing but an occasional streak of some of his past good work with the racket. Benutiful weather brought a large crowd and has about evened up all the matches so that the finals may be played tomorrow. C. Collins, who just won honors in Chi-cugo, arrived today to defend the north western championship.

cago, arrived today to defend the north-western championship. Nat Einerson of Cincinnati defeated R. H. Hunt of California this atternoon in the semi-finais for the Northwestern tennis championship. The match was the hardest fought of any of the present tournament. The defeat of the coast representative was a surprise, as he was playing in great form and it was expected that he would carry off a victory in his match. The final score was 7-6, 5-0, 3-6, 4-6, 9-7. Tomorrow Waidner and Einerson will meet and the winner is matched with Kreigh Collins for the championship.
