NEW YORK DEFEATS CHICAGO

Great Crowd Sees Beginning of Crucial Series in National League Race.

GOTHAMITES BUNCH HITS ON TAYLOR

Seymour, Who Refused to Play Friday, Gets Back Into the Game—Results in Other Cities.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Thirty thousand people crowded the stands and overran the outfield at the Polo grounds today, when the New York and Chicago teams met in the first game of the most interesting and perhaps crucial series of the season. Police reserves had to be twice called for and then ground rules limiting any hit to the value of two bases were enforced. Although the visitors were behind at the close of the sixth inning Mathewson was relieved by Wiltse in the seventh, and during the remainder of the game Chicago only made one safe hit off the newcomer. Seymour, who refused to play yesterday, got back into the game today and was conspicuous in the plays which won for the home club. Score:
