OMAHA GETS SIX RUNS IN FIRST INNING

Rourkes Pounce on Jones for Five Hits and Win the Game Before Ducky's Star Can Stop Them.

Dodge saw the balloon coming in the Hogriever, 3b last inming in the game Omaha won from Lincoln at Vinton street park Tuesday by Miller, p the score, of 7 to 5 and tried to get aboard, but he was hobbled too closely by his associates and not allowed to make an ascension. A hit in the ninth when three men were on bases and one had been forced in by a base on balls, would have b tied the score and possibly given the game the first inning just as if he did not have a reputation as being a good pitcher, and Manske five hits, coupled with Barton's error, gave Omaha six runs, which happened to be enough to win the game, although another was made in the fifth inning. Dodge might come at any time. He has the Games today; Des laziest and most nonchalant delivery of Sioux City at Denver. any pitcher who works out on Vinton street diamond and has a most aggravating manner of appearing not to care much what happens. Although Jones was lambasted fearfully in the first and Ivan Howard hit him for a triple at the start of the second, he was left in to face the music, and but two hits were made off his delivery after the first two innings.

Carter led the assault in the first by a single to left center and Ivan beat out and brought Welch and Bassey home. Gonding sacrificed Dolan to second and Long went out from Gagnier to Thomas. Dodge hit the ball to center field for a double on which Welch scored and Carter flew out to Ketchem.

The Mickeyites made one in the fourth when Fenlon walked and was out on Thomas' grounder to Long. Gagnier and Zinran hit for singles, bringing Thomas home. In the fifth Ketchem hit for a triple and came home on Fenlon's out to Bassey. Omaha made another in the fifth when Bassey singled and came home on Dolan's In the second inning Howard led off with a triple and, although McNeeley hit for a single no run resulted.

Lincoln made two more in the eighth inning after two were out. Collins singled, as did also Gagnier and Zinran hit to Herman Long, who threw badly to Dolan. The ball went to the bleachers and Collins went up. Jones was out and Ketchem beat out a bunt. Quillin hit to Dodge, who caught Ketchem at second. Fenion singled Detroit and Thomas walked, filling the bases. Dodge could not get them over and forced a run by passing Collins. The fans began to think it was all day for Omaha, for Gagnier was coming up and he had two safe ones to his credit already. He hit the ball close to first, but Dolan happened to be playing close to the hag and the game

Keefe seems to have a bad case of pouts, for he did not appear to umpire the game, or was he out the day before Welch took sick and McNeeley succeeded him.

CHICAGO TEAM DECLINES TO PLAY

Johnstone Forfeits Game to Chicago 9 to 0 and Strang, Who Was Asked by McGraw to Umpire, Awards it to New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7 .- Something unique n base ball occurred here today when the game which was to have been played as the third of the present series between the New York and Chicago National league clubs did not take place on the Polo grounds. Each club claims that the other forfeited, so the national commission must straighten out matters and a lengthy wrangle is bound to ensue. So far as the National league can chronicle the unplayed game at present Chicago has been officially declared the winner 9 to 0 by forfeit.

At yesterday's game, the second of the series, there was a good deal of ill feeling shown on both sides on account of decisions rendered by Umpire Johnstone, When Johnstone and Emsite, the umpires assigned by President Pulliam, arrived at the entrance to the Polo grounds today Johnstone was refused admittance and Emslie, who accompanied him, declined to take any part in the game so long as his associate was not allowed to perform his official function. Johnstone then declared the game forfeited by New York to Chicago, basing his decision on the local club's refusal to admit him to the grounds.

Rain Checks to Spectators. The crowd, which numbered about 11,000, wondered at the delay and yelled "play ball" repeatedly while Managers McGraw and Chance held a consultation. McGraw called upon his utility man Strang to officiate as umpire. Chance refused to appoint a man from his team to act in confunction with Strang, saving that the game had been forfeited under the rules. President Charles Murphy of the Chicago club then took a hand in the much mixed proceedings and after he had spoken a few words to Chance the Chicago players left the grounds in the belief that they were perfectly justified in doing so. A few minutes later an announcer jumped from the grandstand and said he had been requested by the New York club to make the following statement:

Umpire Johnstone was barred from these grounds today by Police Inspector Sweeney, who feared that the presence of Johnstone after yesterday's tunuit might incite a riot. Umpire Johnstone has declared the game forfeited by New York to Chicago, 9 to 0 Later on the announcer again addressed the crowd, which by this time was scattered over the diamond and outfield, saying: I am instructed by Manager McGraw to am instructed by Manager Alcoraw to say that he, having sent Strang out as an umpire, and the Chicago team having ignored his calling on them to "play ball," the game under the rules is forfeited by Strang to New York, and the New York club will protest the claim of the visiting

Mr. Brush Makes a Statement.

At the office of the New York club tonight the following statement, signed by John T. Brush, the president, was issued: New York........... Philadelphia At the conclusion of yesterday's game such disorder followed that a large force of police, under the direction of Inspector Sweeney, was necessary to protect the um-pire, Mr. Johnstone, from the violence of the crowd, which was incensed at his de-

During the demonstration many of the spectators were endangered, the inspector himself being struck and one of his officers After a conference this afternoon between the club officials and Inspector Sweeney, the inspector, in view of what occurred yesterday, deemed it advisable to remove the disturbing cause, and therefore, as a measure of precaution, he believed that Mr. Johnstone ought not to reappear upon the grounds. For this reason Mr. Johnstone was excluded.

Mr. Emslie, who also officiated yesterday, was within the grounds at the time and could and should have umpired the game, but after holding a conference with Mr. Heyden, the assistant secretary to the president of the national league, be left the polo grounds with Mr. Heyden.

Manager and Umpire Fight.

BOSTON. Aug. 7.—Following today's National league base hall game between Boston and Pittaburg on the south end grounds there was a personal encounter between Manager and First Baseman Fred Tenney acrond First Baseman Fred Tenney acrossed Klem of neglecting to deliver over to him the balls used in the game. Which are always considered the property of the local club. He then attempted forcibly to search the umpire's pockets. An exchange of blows followed and Klem, it is alleged, threw one of the balls at Tenney, hitting him in the face. Both men bear marks of the encounter, which, it is expected, will be the subject of reports to President Fullism of the National league. by the umpire and by the Boston management.

Great Umpire Thinks They Bluffed Athletics Out of Championship. "Johnny McGraw and his gang are the greatest bluffers in base ban, says the only Timothy Hurst. "It was a positive crime to see the way they 'rubbed it into the Philadelphia Athletics last fail. I ran over to Philip to see the game played on the Athletics grounds, and it made mowild the way M.Graw and his men walked on the field, brushing elbows with the Athletics as they passed their bench and looking them squarely in the eye, as much as to say: What license have you dubs got to play us for the champtonship of anything?"

"Mathewson beat Mack's men that day simply because they quit like dogs. After Mathewson beat Mack's men that day simply because they quit like dogs. After the game I visited the Athietic club house and told the gang what I thought of them. "Why, all McGraw has got to do to beat you boys is to throw Mattie's uniform, shoes and cap into the pitcher's box. The shees and cap into the pitcher's box. The name alone seems to have you 'buffalced.

"It was the same story throughout the series. Of course, Mack's men had just gone through a grueling contest with Chicago for the pennant, while McGraw and his men had things easy in the National, but that awful four-flush of McGraw's and his men put the Athletics out of the running for the championship before the series was well under way.

"I don't mean to insinuate for one mo-

"I don't mean to insinuate for one mo-ment that McGraw did not have a good ball team last year when he beat Mack's men, but the strongest percentage his men had was their awful nerve and unlimited self-confidence. That beats the real stuff sometimes."

Quite a contrast to the situation in Boston, where things have been allowed to go almost to rack and ruin, is that in Chicago, where everything is on the boom. The new owners of the Cubs certainly feil into a soft spot. The Chicago club cost them just $96,000. It was capitalized at $100,000, of which Jim Hart owned 58 per cent and the rest was divided among A. C. Anson, Mr. Spaiding and one or two others. Mr. Hart was forced to sell out, and so was Captain Anson, while the other owners were glad to give up their stock, which had never paid a dividend at its par value. Mr. Hart received $5,000 bonus for engineering the deal, so the total cost of the club was $106,000, which includes a seventeen-year lease on the fine grounds on the west side now occupied by the club. By the end of this season the club will have earned approximately $80,000, or almost paid for itself in one year, and at the same time vastly increased in value. A millionaire sportsman will today give $300,000 for the Chicago club and not take possession until the close of the season. Quite a sudden rise in value and the value is there, too.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

George Stone of the St. Louis Browns is pointed out as the model bail player. He does not drink or use tobacco in any form whatever. He has a will of his own, however, and that's why he is not now playing with Boston instead of with the Browns.—Washington Evening Star.

GOOD SPORT ON TEKAMAH TRACK Judges Bound to See Horses Driven to Win.

TEKAMAH, Neb., Aug. 7.—(Special Telegram)—Today was the opening of the races. There is a great bunch of speed stabled here this week, the best that has ever been entered at this place. Some of the horses have fully demonstrated their speed at the different places in the Nebraska circuit and a better field has never been seen here than those entered. Today the sport was fine, the attendance good and, while the track was not at its best, it was good enough to make a showing, as the summary will show. To an outsider it looks as though the management, as well as the starter, intend that the drivers must show they are driving to win, as there were several fines imposed and a change of drivers in some instances. The 22° page was hotly contested, the third heat between Adrain W. owned by J. M. Henry, Spelion, Ia. and Lord Direction, owned by C. H. Samson, Topeka, Kan., was declared a dead heat and in the fourth heat the driver of Sliver Fox was taken out and Douglas put up. In the fourth beat a home horse, owned by Budd Latta, won. Great enthusiasm prevailed. Results:

The preliminary matches in the tennis play at the Fleid club for the Hamilton cup will start Wednesday evening at 5 of clock, and the management expects to finish the tourney this week. It has been postponed repeatedly because of rain and now the announcement is made that players must be on hand promptly or will be defaulted. Twenty-eight entries are in, or more than for any other local contest on the Field club courts this season. The trophy is exceptionally handsome, being a solid silver cup with ivory handles. It was put up recently by Fred Hamilton and is proving a keen stimulus to the sport.

Jockey Danny Maher Injured.

LONDON, Aug. 7-In the Brighton stakes today Hornhead, ridden by Danny Maher, the American jockey, fell. Maher was badly shaken but was able to walk, though the pressure of the crowd was so great that it took seven mounted and fifty foot policemen to make a way for him to the paddock, about half a mile distant. Curiously, Maher now remembers nothing of this walk or of what happened after his horse fell. The jockey's shoulder is hadly bruised but so far as is known at present he suffered no serious injury.
