SHORTS COVER AND WHEAT IS HIGHER

Some Talk of Damage to Shocked Grain in Kansas-Corn Market Irregular, September Nervous and Distant Futures Heavy.

OMAHA, Aug. 5, 1982.

Wheat showed slight easiness at the start, but soon developed strength, advancing about $0,0 losing a little of the advance near the close in the duliness resulting when the shorts stopped buying. Cables were disappointing, but their influence was accunteracted by the heavy rains in the shock came from the southwest, but in the northwest there was no complaint on the progress of the harvest. Receipts were much smaller than hist week, although larger than last year. Exporters said foreign bids were out of line.

The corn market was irregular, September being nervous, while distant futures were beavy. September was strong carly, but at the close was a little lower than yesterday. Rains were general through the corn belt. Receipts were 18th.

Primary wheat receipts were 18th.

On the progress of the harvest. Receipts and firmer continental markets. It closed and foreign bids were out of line.

Country acceptances are very much lighter this morning on the list. Wheat is especially light. This is natural in view of the expiration of the low freight rates with the close of business on Friday. The advance on Saturday will be equal to light per bushel, that much less to the western seller. This promises to mean light acceptances for some time even if recent rains had not delayed threshing operations.

The cheerful resumption of financial mar- Adventure The cheerful resumption of financial markets in London after a three days' holiday helped the early tone here. The weekly bulletin of the weather bureau kept up confidence in the cond ion of the crops and attention was attracted by the heavy export movement of wheat. Foreign exchange, however, was firm, good rates for money being maintained, except that time loans for some of the longer dates maturing beyond the first of next year were somewhat easier. Five and six months' money, however, was firmly held and 5% per cent was said to be obtainable for January money. Last prices of the day showed mixed changes and the transcontinental ratiroads and some of the leading industrial specialties were on the side of the decline. The closing tone was heavy.
