Yesterday was our regular excursion date. We sent 18 people besides our agents (an even Pullman parload) to South Daketa. We sent seven land buyers out with our some local real estate business, but we are certainly proud of the excellent work our men are doing in the land and emigration business. We think there are seven good reasons for our phenomeral success We handle only lands known to be good in every respect. We will not place anything on the market which we cannot

Yonker's Brother Blames Officers. Mrs. Mary Yonker of Joliet, Ill., and F. Yonker of Eldon, Mo., mother and ernor Glenn received this message from prother of Ed Yonker, the demented man Sheriff Julian, Rowan county: who met such a tragic death at Lake Manawa last Sunday, arrived in the city yesterday and, together with the widow and two children, accompanied the body back to Joliet last evening. Both the mother and brother were almost prostrated over the terrible affair. While not inclined to speak bitterly of those concerned in the killing of his brother, Mr. Yonker said he felt that there had been a woeful lack of management somewhere. "They should, when they took the revolver from any brother Sunday morning and noticed his peculiar manner, have taken steps to have restrained him and then the tragedy would have been averted and the poor fellow would have been alive today. There is little doubt but that he was demented that day and I cannot but feel that the officers were to some extent to blame for not disarming him at the outset," he said. From Mr. Yonker it was learned that the dead man prior to entering the railroad business had studied for the ministry and this accounted for his familiarity with the scriptures. Previous to coming to Council Bluffs he had visited for about six weeks with relatives at Ociwein, Ia., and a few days previous to his death had ordered his household goods shipped from Joliet. His brother, Mr. Yonker said, owned a small amount of property in Joliet. Removal Sale Still On. One-third off on short lengths of picture mouldings. A good time to buy frames.
