The city council at an adjourned meeting yesterday afternoon refused either to confirm or temporarily sanction employment of the asphalt repair, sewer and inspection forces working under the city engineer. Engineer Rosewater, announced that he would not take the responsibility of keeping the men at work and that he would discharge the entire number Thursday morning. He said this would disorganize his department, scatter expert foremen and workmen and perhaps cause the city serious no effect on the council, which clung to enth street, of allments incident to old its determination to defer action on the appointments one week.

The engineer said he understood his retention of the office and filing of a new bond and oath made reappointment and tearred in Omaha. He was the father of confirmation of all the employes designated Mrs. D. C.
