KID HERMANN GIVEN DECISION

Chicago Lad Has Much the Best of Benny Yanger.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 10.—Kid Hermann of Chicago was given the decision over Benny Yanger in a glove contest tonight at the end of the tenth round, before 3,500 people at the Base Ball park. The conditions of the match were ten rounds, one arm free in clinches. Both men were under the necessary 133 pounds.

Hermann continued infighting tactics throughout the contest. Frequent clinches and hard hitting characterized the bout. Yanger, though fighting back hard, was against the ropes in the final round, and the decision of Referee Abe Pollock met with favor. Hermann was a 1 to 2 favorite in the betting.

Hermann forced the fighting in the first and second rounds, getting close to his man and hammering at the ribs. Honors were even in the third, which was characterized by hard, fast fighting by both men. In the fourth, however, two hard left hooks to the head shook Yanger considerably. Both men were swinging wildly when the bell rang. Yanger fought cautiously in the fifth and sixth and in the sixth forced the fighting, reaching Hermann with left and right on the body and again with his right to the ribs.

He fully held his own in the seventh, which was full of hard fighting, but in the eighth Hermann's continual pounding of Yanger's ribs began to have its effects and the little Italian slowed considerably. Yanger fought hard in the ninth and tenth, but in the latter round received a hard left on the chin that sent him to the ropes. The men were fighting hard at close quarters when time was called.

CONTEST FOR MAYFLOWER CUP

Egan and Hunter Will Meet in the Finals Today.

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—H. Chandler Egan of Exmoor and Robert E. Hunter of Midlothian will fight it out tomorrow for possession of the Mayflower cup, chief trophy in the open golf amateur tournament being played at Onwentsia. This condition was brought about today by Egan's victory over Orrin W. Potter of Midlothian and Hunter's over W. F. Clow of Onwentsia.

The feature of the semi-finals today was the contest between Egan and Potter, the latter losing by one down after the battle had been extended over twenty holes. Potter gave the former national champion a battle all the way, losing only when he failed to lay his approach shot on the twentieth green. Egan holed out in three, while the best Potter could do was 4.

In the other match in semi-finals Hunter defeated Clow 3 up, 2 to play.

Scores in Hamilton Golf Cup Series.

Play for the Hamilton handicap cup on the Field club courts last night resulted as follows:

McConnell beat Martin, default.
Du Frene beat Buck, 6-4, 6-1.
Collett beat Rainey, 7-6, 6-4.
Scribner beat A. Potter, 1-6, 6-4, 6-3.
Chambers beat Dougherty, 7-5, 4-6, 8-6.
W. Hillis beat Armstrong, 6-1, 6-1.
Hughes beat Keeley, 8-6, 6-3.
Jaques beat Weed, 6-3, 6-2.

Play today begins at 2:30, when the following matches come off:

McConnell plays Dufrene.
Collett plays Scribner.
Chambers plays W. Hillis.
Hughes plays Jaques.

The winners of these matches will be in the semi-finals, which will also be played today.

Sporting Brevities.

And Muggsy hasn't brayed since.

It really begins to look as if the National league had the right man for president.

Kansas City, with all its speedy men, made but one run against Columbus with twelve hits.

Leifield got his from the Giants Thursday. Four hits in one inning, and then Clarke sent him to the stable.

Another one of those star first base plays with a three-base throw cost Omaha the game at Lincoln Thursday.

The Lincoln Associated Press man must have weakened, for in his account of the Omaha-Lincoln game Thursday he sent a report of but 900 people being at the game.

It's a hundred to one shot that Mr. Strang won't request Mr. Pulliam for a continuation of the correspondence. Pulliam's letter must have come before Thursday's game, for its recipient only made three errors.

Lundgren not being a hot weather pitcher, it is announced that Pfeister is to now make up the other member of the big four regular pitchers of Chicago. That will make Brown, Taylor, Pfeister and Ruelbach the regulars.

The five straight games which the White Sox took from the Phillies nearly jarred Connie Mack out of first place. If he now up to Commie to hand the same package to Clark Griffith, and then the White Sox will be right in the running.

The Nebraska State Golf association will hold its tournament at the Omaha Country club August 18, and the names should be sent to Frank Hoel, at Thirteenth and Leavenworth streets, before that time, although entries will be received at the first tee.

Idaho Murderer Hanged.

BOISE, Idaho, Aug. 10.—William Henry Hicks Bond was hanged today at the state penitentiary for the murder of Charles Daly in this city October 5, 1904. The execution of Rudolph Wetter, the murderer of Christ Long and L. D. Wall, was expected to take place at the same time, but at the eleventh hour Governor Gooding granted Wetter a reprieve until October 3. Bond's crime was one of the most brutal in the history of the state. With the help of Mrs. Jennie Daly he murdered her husband, Charles Daly.

FORGER STOPPED IN OMAHA

Man Who Catches Hotels on Bogus Drafts Slips Up at Murray.

SUDDENLY FINDS HE MUST LEAVE CITY

Attempts to Cash Paper at That Hostelry, but Clerk Kenyon Fails to Be Taken In.

The hotels of Omaha have just received a card from the Koehler hotel at Grand Island asking them to be on the lookout for one F. W. Wilson, who had succeeded in working the clerk of the Koehler out of $85 on a forged draft.

It appears that Wilson had not only beat the Koehler hotel out of $85, but that a short while previous he had succeeded in playing the same game on the Hotel Watson at Nebraska City and then included the Grand hotel at Council Bluffs in his itinerary to the tune of $85, and also worked off a worthless $125 draft on the Manhattan club rooms at Council Bluffs. Then Mr. Wilson dropped out of sight as far as Council Bluffs was concerned. July 28 Wilson appeared in Omaha and registered at the Murray. The next day being Sunday Wilson suavely approached Clerk Kenyon and asked him to cash a draft for $85. Mr. Kenyon was a little suspicious of the draft and found an excuse not to cash the paper because of its being Sunday, but would see about it the next day—Monday. During the afternoon Wilson made a pretense that he had to go to Kansas City immediately and took up the draft and has since been absent from Omaha.

Wilson claimed to be traveling for a recently established house at Crawfordsville, Ind., and was opening up a new territory for the firm. He was a pleasing, attractive fellow, dressed in a dark suit, straw hat, slender, smooth shaven, about five feet ten inches in height, weighing probably 150 pounds and was about 25 years of age.

A party answering Wilson's description was arrested at Council Bluffs Tuesday afternoon, but later investigations proved that he was not the man wanted. It now appears Wilson worked his game in this state and Iowa some time between July 28 and August 1 or 2. He was in Omaha July 29. The Nebraska City forgery occurred the following day. On August 1 he turned the trick at Council Bluffs, and the notification from Grand Island indicates that he must have been there either just before reaching or after leaving Omaha.

BEATRICE, Neb., Aug. 10.—(Special Telegram.)—The Beatrice authorities are looking for F. W. Wilson, a noted forger, who recently operated in Nebraska City, Grand Island and other towns in the state. He visited Beatrice last week and succeeded in passing two forged drafts amounting to $80 at two hotels here. He claims to be traveling for a manufacturing concern at Crawfordsville, Ind.

Suit for Insurance.

Foster C. Hennion and V. W. Chapman have begun suit against R. C. Peters & Co. to recover the value of a $2,000 policy on a barn owned by Chapman which was destroyed by fire September 12, 1906, after the insurance had expired. Insurance was carried on the barn in a company of which the defendant company is agent. Chapman claims he instructed Peters & Co. to renew the policy, but, as they had severed their connection with the insurance company they did not do so. He asserts they should be held responsible for the damage. Hennion's interest in the case arises from the fact he loaned Chapman a sum of money on the barn with the understanding it was to be kept insured.

PRINTERS ON THE WAY WEST

Delegates to International Convention Tarry in Omaha as Guests of Brethren.

The official train bearing the eastern members of the Typographical union and the members of their families arrived at Union station at 3 o'clock, an hour after the expected time, as the train was delayed just east of the bridge. The train came in over the Rock Island and contained 194 people. A committee from the local union met the delegates in Iowa and accompanied them to this city, where they were met by another delegation from the Commercial club and one from the local union. A slight shower greeted them just as they pulled into the station, but that soon passed away and they were taken in five trolleys for a trip over the city, after which the men were taken to Labor temple, where refreshments were served, and the women were taken back to the depot, where the wives of the local printers had prepared refreshments for them. At 5:40 all again assembled at Union station, where photographs of the delegates and the train were taken and at 6 o'clock the train pulled out over the Rock Island for Colorado Springs.

The Omaha delegates to the convention are Colonel T. W. McCullough and John Polian.

CRAIG QUITS CITY OFFICE

Assistant Engineer Resigns After Score of Years in Service of Municipality.

Assistant City Engineer George W. Craig has submitted his resignation to City Engineer Rosewater, to be made effective as soon as satisfactory arrangements can be made.

Mr. Craig has not decided whether he will establish himself in an independent engineering business in Omaha or accept one of two attractive offers. One of the latter would take him to Minneapolis. He grew up with the city engineering department in a score of years of service and rose from the lowest position to assistant engineer, which place he has held for a number of years. His desire to leave the department is actuated both by superior opportunities and emoluments awaiting him in other fields, and recent annoyances and aggravations which the department has suffered at the hands of the democratic city council.

CONFESSES TO BEING BURGLAR

Talk in Volunteer Meeting Lands Frank A. Gordon in the City Jail.

Frank A. Gordon, actuated by a desire to reform, stood up in the meeting of the Volunteers of America at 117 North Fifteenth street about 7 o'clock last night and confessed to having committed a burglary some time ago in Shenandoah, Ia. Gordon further confessed that for years he had led the life of a professional criminal, having "done time" in several of the penitentiaries. After the meeting in a talk with Captain H. Smith of the Volunteers he consented to be taken to the police station, where he is being held pending advice from Shenandoah.

JUDGES ON JAIL SUPPLIES

District Court Will Decide Whether Sheriff Can Furnish the Provisions.

The county board, in committee of the whole, took up the question of boarding prisoners at the county jail Friday morning and decided to submit to the judges of the district court a query as to whether, under the rules made by the judges, Sheriff McDonald can furnish supplies by requisition on the board. The meeting was in response to Sheriff McDonald's communication asking that the board furnish the supplies for the jail and allow him the present price of 35 cents a day for feeding the prisoners. Under the resolution of the board passed last January the 35 cents was to include both the feeding of prisoners and the supplies.

Judge Estelle was present at the meeting and promised to take the matter up with the judges as soon as they can be gotten together.

JAIL CROWDED IN OLD DAYS

County Bastile Overflowed as Far Back as Thirty-Nine Years Ago.

That complaint of the crowded condition of the county jail is not of recent origin is shown by an ancient grand jury report dug up in a search of the records of the district clerk's office. The report was dated July 15, 1867, and is believed to have been the first after the state was admitted. It deplored the crowded conditions at the jail and the resulting bad ventilation and recommended changes to better the condition of the prisoners. In this respect it is very much like the last grand jury report, which was submitted last May. The report was signed by James Creighton as foreman. George G. Lake was judge of the district court.

SAMPLE OF REFORM SAGACITY

No City Department in Touch with Gas Proposition Since Inspectorship is Gone.

Citizens are wondering where they are to transact business with the city regarding gas street lighting and other gas matters. Since the gas inspector's office was abolished by the council to hoist John C. Lynch out of the place no municipal department has anything to do with the gas proposition. As a result all matters of the kind have come to the city electrician, who has no power or authority in the premises. Complaints about gas lamps being out or requests to have posts changed to other locations fall by the wayside at the city hall, for there is no one to receive them. Notwithstanding this condition a noticeable improvement in street lighting and betterment of the quality of gas has been commented on during the last month.

Union Laundry Goes Ahead.

The Union laundry, organized by union men sometime ago when differences between the owners and employes of the Globe and Garrett laundries threatened to complete elimination of union laundries from Omaha, is now in active operation. It has quarters in a part of the building at the southwest corner of Fifteenth and Jackson streets, formerly occupied by the Sunderland Roofing and Supply company. The Labor Advocate has taken quarters in the same building with the laundry, and has moved its plant there.
