LYMAN RICHARDSON DEAD

Another Pioneer Omahan Answers Call of Grim Reaper.

FIRST ASSESSOR OF CITY OF OMAHA

Long Known in Public Life and Prominent in Business and Politics Until Some Fifteen Years Ago.

Lyman Richardson, a pioneer citizen and publisher of Omaha, part owner of the Omaha Herald from 1866 until 1888, died Wednesday at his home in Savannah, Ga.

Mr. Richardson was born seventy-two years ago at Pontiac, Mich., and was the son of O. D. Richardson, later lieutenant governor of his state. The elder Richardson came to Nebraska in 1854 to prepare a home for his family, who followed in 1855.

Lyman Richardson was the first registrar of Douglas county and the first assessor of the city of Omaha. He early showed marked business ability and in 1857 became one of the managing members of the company of which Dr. Miller was president and which built the Herndon house.

He was employed in various public and private capacities in this city until the civil war, when he entered the union army in the First Nebraska Infantry in July, 1862, with a lieutenant's commission. He fought in many of the heavy battles along the Mississippi river and was for a long time on the staff of General Fred Steiwer in the Department of Arkansas, with headquarters at Little Rock. He was promoted to the grade of captain and was a member of the Iowa Legion, but was so modest he declined the honor.

He was married in 1864 to a Miss Hazel Carter, who was a daughter of the late Capt. Hazel Carter, who was killed at the battle of Gettysburg. He and his wife had three children, a son and two daughters.

Mr. Richardson returned to Omaha in 1866 and was for a long time in the employ of the Omaha Herald. He was a man of great energy and was a man of great energy and was a man of great energy.

SEVEN MONTHS AND DIVORCE

That is What Sabilla Jane Rich Wants Written as Her Record.

After seven months of married life Sabilla Jane Rich is in district court asking for divorce from William Canfield Rich on the grounds he has refused to support her. She says he has given her very little money since their marriage January 10, 1906 and she has been supported by her parents. She also charges he struck her, that he has been unfaithful and cruelly.

Ole Hobbs has filed a petition for divorce from Elma, charging she frequents wine rooms and keeps improper company. They were married in Jacksonville, Ill., in 1903.

Mash Nanonow demands a divorce from Gerald A. Nanonow on the grounds of desertion. They were married November 17, 1905, in Iowa, and she says he deserted her the following January. A child was born to them last month and she says she is afraid he will kidnap it unless restrained by the court.

Hazel Carter declares in her petition for a divorce from Walter LeRoy Carter that just nineteen days after their marriage in Auburn May 1, 1901, he began calling her names. She also says at times he treated her cruelly and struck her. She asks the custody of their child and wants her maiden name, Hazel Smedley, restored to her.

Highwaymen were operating in the southwest portion of the city between 10 and 11 o'clock last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Haverstick, residing at the Barnard, were the first victims. While crossing the corner of Thirtieth-fourth and Woolworth avenues they were stopped at the point of a gun and a watch and 15 cents taken from them. Emergency Officer Cunningham recovered a purse containing $5, which had been dropped by Mr. Haverstick when stopped.

Shortly after this J. C. McKell, living at Twenty-seventh and Dewey avenue, while on his way home was stopped and a seal ring and watch were taken from him. These robberies make three that have taken place recently in this neighborhood and the police are exerting every effort to apprehend the malefactor.

OMAHA MARKET PATRONIZED. Local Dealers Will Get Trade from Battle Mountain Sanitarium, Says Captain Palmer.

"We are buying whatever material we can in Omaha for the Battle Mountain sanitarium," announced Captain H. E. Palmer Friday morning. "I have just shipped six wheel and four drag scrapers up there to assist in getting the grounds in shape. These machines were all made in Omaha. We have also under contemplation an extensive line of artistic fencing to go around the grounds, most of which, if not all, may be bought here in Omaha. The plans are not fully completed for the fencing, as the matter must have the sanction of the board."

NO GUARDIAN NOW FOR GATES. County Judge Thinks Best Not to Make Appointment Despite the Facts.

County Judge Leslie Friday announced he would not appoint guardian for Edward C. Gates, the Farnam street bookkeeper, charged by his relatives with being a dipsomaniac. The application was dismissed without prejudice.

The reason for his refusal was the fact that processes are now on before the insanity board to have Gates committed to the asylum for treatment. Judge Leslie said he thought there were sufficient grounds for the appointment of a guardian but thought it would be improper now in view of the other proceedings.

WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY.

Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, has been invited by the American Academy of Political and Social Science to write the general introduction to a volume entitled "Women's Work and Organizations" which will be issued in September. The book is said to be a resume of club life and the varying activities of which it has become the nucleus.

Mrs. Abbie Adams of Superior, Neb., national president of the Woman's Relief corps, and Mrs. Mary R. Morgan, of Alma, national secretary, spent Thursday in Omaha, en route to Minneapolis, where they will attend the national encampment. These two officers are going in advance of the gathering to prepare headquarters and other preliminaries of the convention.

Under the head "The Clean Milk Campaign in Maryland," Charities of August 4th, include a series of articles by prominent authorities on the milk supply of the city and how much depends upon its proper care. These are well worth the consideration of housekeepers and mothers of young children and of club women who have been agitating for pure, clean milk.

The men of San Francisco have been forced to recognize that a woman's club house may not be such an entirely superfluous institution after all. The house of the Century club, which was built last year and which survived the San Francisco disaster is very much in demand. The Pacific Union club has offered $500 a month for it, but the women have declined this offer in favor of the supreme court of California, believing that better care will be taken of it.

One of the newer women's organizations of London is the Imperial club, organized for the extension among women of knowledge of politics and national affairs. The club has among its membership six duchesses, one of whom is the duchess of Devon.

S.S.S. RIDES THE SYSTEM OF MALARIA

The healthy color of the skin is given to it by the millions of little red corpuscles in the blood. These are the carriers of nourishment, health and strength to all parts of the body. In other words, the very life of the blood. When the germs of Malaria get into this vital fluid they destroy these corpuscles and rob the blood of its rich, life-sustaining qualities, rendering it thin, weak and watery and unable to supply the system with the needed strength to resist disease. Then the symptoms of Malaria such as pale, general complexion, weak vitality, poor appetite, deranged digestion, a general "let down" condition of the system, and perhaps chills and slight fever, show that this insidious disease is gradually affecting the entire health. Malaria must be removed from the system through the circulation, and the medicine to accomplish this is S. S. S. It not only cleanses the blood of all impure, unhealthy matter, but rides the system of Malaria, and restores the blood to a strong, healthy condition. S. S. S., besides removing the germs of Malaria, builds up and gives tone and vigor to the entire system by its fine tonic effects. Malaria is a blood disease, and S. S. S. cures it because it is a perfect blood purifier. Book on the blood and any medical advice without charge. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.
