DEGARMO HAS A STRENUOUS TIME

Married Twice, Divorced and Sentenced to Prison in Three Weeks.

BEAVER CITY, Neb., Aug. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—Married twice to the same woman, divorced and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary, all within three weeks, is the record of Walter Degarmo.

Exactly three weeks ago he was married to Miss Luella Thompson of Wilcox, Neb., but across the county line in Red Willow county, where the ceremony was invalid.

They crossed back to this county and were again married. It developed that Degarmo had an undivorced wife in Carthage, Ill. Today he was tried at special term of the district court and sentenced by Judge Orr to five years in the penitentiary.

To the court room he confessed that he had done wrong, but that at the expiration of his sentence he would return and again marry Miss Thompson. He stated that he was at first represented himself as an unmarried man, and when he fell in love and wished to be married that he thought it would take too long for a divorce and he had settled upon the hope that his former marriage would not be discovered.

Miss Thompson also appeared in court, and upon her own statement and the confession of Degarmo the marriage was set aside and her maiden name restored. The prisoner begged that he might see his wife for a few moments at least, but the privilege was refused.

Tom Darnell, the Prohibition Agitator, Unwittingly Gives Game Away During Visit to Norris Brown's Office.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—Investigation of the work of the State Board of Equalization shows the people of Nebraska have more money on hand than last year; have more money loaned and secured by mortgages, and more notes not secured.

Money in corporations has also increased and so have bank accounts. The following table shows a comparison of some of these items:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes Annuities, Bonds, Money on hand, Money loaned, Judgments, Money paid in building, and Loan associations.

Personnel of Lancaster Delegation. Though Norris Brown still carries his delegation around in his white vest pocket, H. J. Winnett tonight turned his loose for the public to feed upon.

The delegation consists of the following: Judge Lincoln Best, Judge W. B. Rose, L. M. Raymond, S. W. Burnham, Judge Allen W. Field, Z. S. Brandon, John M. Stewart, M. E. Cheney, P. M. Hall, Judge J. B. Strode, A. E. Perrin, T. J. Dickson, Judge W. H. England, A. P. Lawson, J. H. Mockett, J. E. S. Ellenhorpe, Fred Beckman, Henry Tager, W. B. Rose, L. M. Raymond, T. W. Smith, Mart How, F. S. Spellman, Harry Dobbins, John Watson, W. E. Stewart, A. C. Greenlee, A. R. Vancuren, C. W. Speers, C. H. Bull, F. E. Park, C. T. Boggs, Lem Campbell, Alfred Graham.

That Norris Brown is the preferred candidate for United States senator of Tom Darnell, the prohibitionist, was given away when he came into the office of the attorney general this morning.

"How are you Mr. Brown? How is everything in Dodge county?" asked Darnell.

"I feel all right about Dodge," answered the attorney general, "though I guess it will be pretty close up there."

"I think there will be no trouble," said Darnell. "You know I always look on the bright side of things and never get discouraged, even if things do look risky."

"No, sir, not a think. He is just wrong on the temperance question. That is all we have against him. We are against him rather for his omissions than his commissions," answered Darnell.

"Do you believe, now you say, that Mr. Rosewater is a champion of the lawless and vicious?"

"Yes, yes," he has not come out for prohibition, he has shown himself a friend of the lawless and vicious."

"Do you know Mr. Rosewater tried to get a number of vicious saloons closed in Omaha last winter, but the police board appointed by Governor Mickey refused to countenance the protests?"

"Well, that's what some of the preachers said at the assembly," answered the reporter, "but I guess they were just trying to get their votes. Some of them wanted to include Governor Mickey in the resolution. It is funny to me that a lot of preachers at the assembly said Mr. Rosewater was all right and should not be denounced, and some of them were Methodist preachers, too. It is my opinion, however, that people who live in Omaha absorb the liberal air and overlook a good many things."

Reception September 5. The homecoming reception to William J. Bryan will be held in Lincoln on the evening of September 5, Monday, at 8 o'clock, at a cabaret room from Mr. Bryan requesting him to make the date September 5.
