BONAPARTE TALKS ON ANARCHY

Some Measures Advanced for the Suppression of the Evil.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Aug. 12.—Secretary of the Navy Charles J. Bonaparte delivered an address this evening at the Allegheny Chautauque, near Cumberland, before a large gathering, his subject being: "Anarchy and Its Remedy." He said, in part:

There was and is much to be said in favor of those restrictions on immigration which are intended to shut out foreign anarchists from our shores, and it was undoubtedly well to arm the federal executive with wider powers to deport or otherwise rid the country of such dangerous elements. Whether these call themselves "anarchists" or not, the fewer of such people we have in our midst the better, and although I do not believe it will ever prove practicable to close the door to the face of anything like all of them, all that we can bar out will be so much gain. But, while we rosy thus reduce the number of our anarchist trouble us.

It is sometimes said that anarchism and socialism, as systems, are mutually antipodal and destructive. I should be very glad to believe that to be true, but the adherents of either "system" may feel for the other, for the old adage as to the combatants of the present year, Mr. Marr was not a small measure of truth; but, in my mind, this view of their relations is growing from the same root.

The doctrine that all men are created equal, and that all are entitled to the same rights, is a doctrine that has been growing from the same root.

NICHOLAS DECLINES PLACE

Grand Duke Does Not Desire to Be Commander of the Army.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 12.—Grand Duke Nicholas Nicolaievitch, the Associated Press is informed by a member of his entourage, has declined to accept the post of commander-in-chief of all the troops of the empire, where martial law exists, which was tendered to him August 4.

Whether this was decided before or after the attempt on the life of the grand duke at Krasnoyarsk on August 10 is not known, but the ostensible reason is that Grand Duke Nicholas believes such a post should not be given to a grand duke, but to a purely military man. He advocates the appointment of General Linevitch, formerly commander-in-chief of the Manchurian army, but the emperor has not finally decided the matter.

Today, the second birthday of the czarvitch, was observed with the usual display of flags and illuminations, but there was no enthusiasm in the celebration. In fact few persons seemed even to know what was the occasion of the decorations.

The president turned his head as he passed but he did not pause. Miss Esac says her watch chain was broken in this scuffle with the secret service men and her watch fell to the floor.

The president was accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt and Quentin and Representative and Mrs. Good.

Miss Esac has stated to acquaintances she has made while here, she was to have been married in the White House at the time Miss Alice Roosevelt became Mrs. Longworth; that she was to have married a high government official and that it was this wrong she seeks to redress. When the president's carriage had departed Miss Esac was allowed to go. It was then she sought a warrant for Duffy. She says she will stay in Oyster Bay until she accomplishes her purpose.

Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth expect to leave for Washington and Cincinnati tomorrow.

HOW "G. M. H." IS FOR BRYAN

Prominent Democrat Reveals Hitchcock-Tibbles Alliance to Knock the Peerless Leader.

MAY GO TO CONGRESS. Gilbert M. Hitchcock, editor of the Omaha World-Herald and for years an ardent supporter of New York, was elected a member of the committee in charge of the reception to be tendered to Mr. William D. Howland, U. S. senator, New York, on his return from Europe.

Mr. Hitchcock says he cannot attend the reception, because he desires to be present at the congressional convention of the Democratic party, which is being held in Topeka and urge the populist convention in Kansas to stick to the middle of the road and not be led off by Bryan. You see, those fellows in the east don't know much about these things as we do at home.

MISS ESAC CREATES SCENE

Goes to Church and Insists Upon Talking with President Roosevelt.

OSTYER BAY, N. Y., Aug. 12.—Miss Alice Esac, who is known in Oyster Bay for the purpose of interviewing the president, or Mrs. Roosevelt on what she declares is "a matter of life and death," created a scene during the service in Christ's Episcopal church today.

Miss Esac, a New York woman, is supposed to be, has attended every church meeting the president has, since his arrival here in July. She has climbed Baginore hill on foot several times only to be turned away by the secret service men. She presented herself early at the church today and took a seat directly behind the pew usually occupied by the Roosevelt family.

When after James Duffy requested her to relinquish this seat she refused. Duffy forcibly removed her to the rear of the church and Miss Esac says she tore her gown in doing so. This act also later applied for a warrant for Duffy but was refused. In the rear of the church Miss Esac refused to sit down. A secret service agent stood behind her and during the service she made no less than a dozen attempts to get past him.

Today, the second birthday of the czarvitch, was observed with the usual display of flags and illuminations, but there was no enthusiasm in the celebration. In fact few persons seemed even to know what was the occasion of the decorations.

TROUBLE WITH TELEGRAPHERS

Secretary Marr Issues Statement Concerning Cause of His Suspension.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12.—Lewis K. Marr, the suspended secretary of the International Order of Railroad Telegraphers, who yesterday secured a temporary injunction in the St. Louis courts restraining the order from proceeding with the trial of the charges against him, tonight made a statement explaining his action.

A number of the officials of the order conferred with Mr. Marr at his home here today and after the meeting it was stated to be the intention to carry the controversy into the next annual convention of the order.

Mr. Marr asserts that his suspension was illegal and was caused by the domination of the board of directors in an effort to prevent him from presenting at the next convention a minority report criticizing what he termed improper manipulation of the organization's "funds."

The statement issued tonight says that when in April of the present year, Mr. Marr went to St. Louis, the headquarters of the order, to audit the accounts of L. W. Quick, treasurer, he found Mr. Quick to be vice president and director of a bank in that city in which $60,000 of the organization's money was deposited.

Mr. Marr says that he called the attention of the directors of the order to the fact that Treasurer Quick is receiving $3,000 a year from the union and should devote his entire services to the organization.

"I scarcely had he voiced this protest," the statement says, "before I was confronted with the accusation that he opposed the passage of the railroad telegraphers' eight-hour law at the last session of the Maryland legislature and that he offered a bribe to have it withdrawn."

The statement says that Mr. Marr has made on charges which have only a shred of fact for their basis, which have been improperly tried and have been prosecuted from no desire for the welfare of the order.

Mr. Marr has been train dispatcher for the Pennsylvania Railroad company since 1883.

FLOODS REACH LOWER RIVER

Great Damage to Crops Anticipated in Vicinity of Austin, Texas.

HOUSTON, Tex., Aug. 12.—The flood in the Colorado river, which started from the torrential rains in the San Angelo country a week ago, is now reaching the lower valleys, and the farmers are endeavoring to save what they can of their crops.

Additional rains around Austin make it certain that the flood period will last for at least two weeks and that the river will leave its banks at Austin.

HOUSTON, Tex., Aug. 12.—Torrential rains in the mountains east of here and north of the Southern Pacific track in the vicinity of San Antonio have washed out twenty miles of track and trains will not be able to get through for several days.

Additional rains around Austin make it certain that the flood period will last for at least two weeks and that the river will leave its banks at Austin.

HOUSTON, Tex., Aug. 12.—A terrific rain storm visited this section this morning, badly wrecking the federal military camp at Camp Mabry. High wind attended the rain and blew down many tents.

TROUBLE OVER TROLLEY FARES

Those Who Refuse to Pay Ten Cents Ejected from the Cars.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Scenes of disorder were witnessed on a number of the trolley and elevated roads leading to Coney Island today when passengers, guided by an opinion handed down by Supreme Court Justice Brandeis yesterday, refused to pay a second fare. At one period during the afternoon the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company refused to convey its passengers beyond Neck road, the second fare boundary, so long as any of the passengers refused to pay the additional fare.

The result was a blockade of cars and trains a mile long. Great crowds of ejected passengers gathered at these condensed points, held indign
