Tennis Tournament at the Field Club Lasts All the Week and Will Be the Big Feature.

Dr. Cupid's Fate. I had a little tickling in my throat. I took a little treacle and it went. I didn't call a doctor, as you note. And all the tickling cost me was a cent. How fortunate I caught no dread disease. To rob me of my wealth and health and ease.

I had a little tickling in my throat. I took a little treacle, but it didn't do the trick. The doctor diagnosed and found a dart embedded in my torpid cardiac. The case is quite incurable, agent. But all the tickling cost me was a cent. —Fuch.

Calendar of the Week. MONDAY—Cohn-Fourth wedding at Metropolitan club; Tennis tournament at the Field club. TUESDAY—Tennis tournament at Field club. WEDNESDAY—Dinners and hop at Field club; Ladies' day at Country club; Tennis tournament at Field club. THURSDAY—Tennis tournament at Field club. FRIDAY—Tennis tournament at Field club. SATURDAY—Dinners and dance at Country club and Field club; tennis tournament at Field club.

The week has been remarkably lacking in large affairs, in fact there have been very few affairs of any kind except the dinners and dances at the clubs. The mid-week dance at the Country club for the Nebraska golf tournament, players awaiting some enthusiasm, and gave promise of future gaiety. But the truth is, the continuous heat of the past few days has so dampened the ardor of the summer girl that her social obligations will be ignored for the time being, or at least until there is a change in the temperature. "The chief charm about the clubs," exclaimed one of the members, "is the independence every one assumes." There is a sense of freedom and a lack of social complications which must be met in the winter. Every one can golf, bowl, play bridge or dance as the spirit moves them. All this would be destroyed if one was compelled in hot weather to talk to people whom they care nothing about and with whom they have nothing in common, as likes or dislikes are usually mutual and they on their part would be just as deeply bored. So the lethargy which is prevalent at present has its advantages as nature demands some rest from the strenuous social life of the twentieth century.

The mid-west tennis tournament scheduled at the Field club is the most promising prospect for the next few days. Of course this will mean dinner parties every evening and gatherings on the veranda of the club house every afternoon, besides the dance Wednesday and Saturday evenings.

Saturday evening closed the state golf tournament at the Country club. The dinner and dance which followed in the evening were well attended. One of the larger dinners was given by Mrs. Barton Millard, whose guests were Miss Janet Chambers, Miss Natalie Merriman, Miss Marion Hugh, Miss Elizabeth Condon, Mr. George Redick, Mr. Elmer Redick and Mr. John Redick.

With Mr. Harry McCormick were Mrs. and Mrs. E. H. Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. Beeson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gulou, Mr. and Mrs. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Remington, Mr. and Mrs. John A. McShane, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Will Redick, Mrs. Baleh, Mr. H. H. Baldrige, Mr. Brogan and Mr. Chat Redick.

Miss Edith Locke entertained Miss Marie Cohn, Miss Ruth Porter, Mr. Steinkon, Mrs. Harley Moorehead and Mr. Elmer Cope. Miss Marie Mohler was honor guest at the dinner given by Mrs. Ella C. Nash. Covers were laid for six. Mrs. Nathan Merriman had three guests. Mr. R. C. Howe six, Mrs. W. S. Poppleton four, Mr. Paul Gallagher four, Mr. Robert Updike eight, Mr. Lemist four, Mr. Kinsler four and Mr. Wattles four. Mr. Robert Updike gave a dinner in compliment to Miss Ethel Updike of Chicago, his guests being: Miss Ethel Updike, Miss Louise Updike, Miss Marion Haller, Miss Hilda Hammer, Miss Isabel French, Mr. Paul Gallagher, Mr. Paul Beaton and Mr. Harry Kelly.

The conspicuous absence of visiting girls and the departure of a number of the popular younger set for the resorts has brought society to a sudden standstill. But the latter part of next month and November will begin to see social affairs picking up, although they may still be modified by the deprecatory term informal until after the Ak-Sar-Ben ball and the horse show. Then affairs will rapidly adjust themselves to a more conventional basis. Closely following will be the debutante teas and dances which will be of great interest this year, not only from the standpoint of not having any debutantes last season, but this year there is to be introduced a levy of attractive young women. Every one of them have either attended college or an eastern finishing school. Apropos of the age this education has become a necessity, as there is no substitute which will better prepare the young society subject to meet the social duties mapped out for her if she is to be a success. More is demanded of a girl nowadays than just small talk. Art, music and literature should all be topics upon her tongue's end. She must keep informed on every subject or she is indeed a back number. And all this can only be accomplished by a good educational foundation put to good advantage.

Pleasures Past. There were numerous dinners given at the Field club Saturday evening, but none of them were very large. Mr. E. A. Rose, two guests; Mr. E. V. Corrigan, six; Mrs. Franklin A. Shotwell, nine; Mrs. J. C. Clarke, five; Mr. George Frinz, three; Miss Alice Frederick, six, and Oscar Allen, six. One of the largest affairs among the younger set in North Omaha was a "Barn Frolic" given by Joel McLarty and Chester Kimball at 343 Spaulding street. Lanterns, ruffs, rushes, sunflowers and a well filled punch bowl transformed the two floors of the barn into a very delightful place. Games were played and the Virginia reel was danced. About fifty-five guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wright entertained Tuesday evening in honor of those who assisted at their wedding. The rooms were attractive with nasturtiums and muscled added pleasure to the evening. Those present were Miss Altona McEachron, Miss Martha McEachron, Miss Beesse Ellingwood, Miss Bertha Ellingwood, Miss Adeline Rohrig, Dr. Lee Van Coven, Paul F. Tenney, Dr. Edward H. Gruning and Mr. R. M. Lindsay. An ice cream social was given Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Gates at 84 South Thirty-fifth street. Music was furnished during the afternoon and in the guessing contests the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Van Scholek and Miss Charlotte Noack. The guests were Mrs. W. H. Kark, Mrs. Van Scholek, Mrs. C. Norton, Mrs. F. Young, Mrs. H. A. Withrage, Mrs. L. J. Withrow, Mrs. J. R. Rook, Miss Pearl Norison, Miss Charlotte Noack, Miss Florence Jones, Miss Florence Withrow and Miss Lillian Withrow. Miss Linn Carpenter entertained Saturday evening at her home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Draper Smith, who have recently returned from their wedding trip. The entertainment was novel, being a corn roast, and marshmallows were roasted by camp fires. Her guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Draper Smith, Miss Bertha Phillipi, Miss Elizabeth McConnell, Miss Alice French, Miss Emily Grafton of Brooklyn, N. Y., Miss Bertha White, Miss Lena Fricks of Plattsmouth, Miss Grace Taylor of St. Louis, Miss Olive Carpenter, Mr. Arthur Jordenon, Mr. Warren Hillis, Mr. Russell Harris, Mr. Bert Carpenter, Mr. Arthur Lockwood, Mr. Wallace Lyman, Mr. Robert Mauley, Mr. and Mrs. Draper Smith and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dummog.

Monday evening, August 13, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith, 288 Ohio street, with a large circle of their friends, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jessen, Mr. and Mrs. Loverton, Mr. and Mrs. T. Kinkaid, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. H. Caswell, Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette, Mr. and Mrs. John Dommgen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Houghton, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. H. Haas, Mr. J. L. Olson, Mr. J. T. Danaherty, Mr. Fred Faulson, Mr. N. Nelson, Mr. R. Jensen, Mr. John Paulson, Misses Leora Hinkley, Lois Kinkaid, Amelia Haas, Blanch Haas, Ida Ellgaard, Anna Ellgaard, Gertrude Moore, Leona Nelson, Clara Flak, Andrea Smith, Christine Smith, Lizzy Francy, Meazur Maurice Kinkaid, Fred Lauffer, Robert Daugherty, Frank Daugherty, Fred Nelson, Chris Nelson, Peter Sorenson, Irving Larson, Walter Haas and George Smith.

Social Chitchat.

Dr. and Mrs. Rudolph Rix have moved to their new residence at Twenty-fourth and Driscoll streets. Members of the Omaha High school class of 1905 are planning a class reunion to be held at Fairmount Park next Saturday afternoon. Mr. Curtis Lindsay is class president and it is hoped to form an alumnae at the reunion. There are about 125 members of the class. The marriage of Miss Ray Cohn, daughter of Mrs. Bertha Cohn, to Mr. Carl Furth will take place at 4 o'clock Monday evening, August 27, at Metropolitan club. A wedding supper will follow the ceremony. The guest list is small, being confined to the immediate families and a few out of town guests.

Three meetings will be held, at 10:30 a. m. and 8 p. m. They are conducted in a large tent. Rev. Mr. McLaughlin is editor of the Christian Witness and is said to be a powerful speaker. Music at the Lake Side. The Omaha Juvenile orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Blanche Blum, will give a concert Tuesday evening for the Omaha club at the club rooms at Courtland beach. Several members of this orchestra are spending the summer at the lake and will invite their friends to attend the concert.

WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY

The Nebraska Woman's Christian Temperance union, under the direction of its superintendent, of out-of-door meetings, Mrs. Alice Fugh, will maintain headquarters at the state fair at Lincoln next week. It has been several years since the union has undertaken any work of this kind, but this year its tent will be equipped with a resting place for tired women and children. There will be many places where toilets may be repaired, tired babies soothed and friends may visit. Temperance literature will be distributed and temperance workers will make headquarters there. A bath house conducted by the Woman's Christian Temperance union was one of the much appreciated features of the Epworth assembly grounds at Lincoln recently. It was a neat little building with twelve compartments, six for men and six for women, each with a hallway and separated by partitions. The bath house is to be made a permanent institution.

Nebraska has been asked to send a contestant for the diamond Demorest medal in the contest to be held at the national Woman's Christian Temperance union convention at Hartford, Conn., in October. The contest of the state has been asked to raise the necessary money for such representation. The Georgia division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy have given $2,000 to the industrial school at Rabun Gap. In the mountains of north Georgia, for the education of a dormitory for girls on the condition that it shall be called Frances S. Bartow dormitory. The gift was presented last week, representatives of the society going to the school where exercises were held in their honor. The Daughters of the Confederacy have done much for education and the dormitory fund for Rabun Gap has been raised without effort, so enthusiastically have the women given their support to the plan which was voted at the last convention.

PALMER VOTED FOR CANTEN

Postmaster H. E. Palmer returned Saturday morning from the National encampment at Minneapolis.

"We had a fine encampment and a good thing, though I was not present during the entire encampment," said Captain Palmer. "I was honored by being placed on the resolutions committee and did what I could for the restoration of the canteen in the national soldiers' homes. The matter was fully discussed in the committee, but a majority of that body in deference to the wishes of the national Woman's Christian Temperance union, concluded to report adversely to the rehabilitation of the canteen in the homes and we gracefully yielded. I do not wish to be understood as favoring temperance in the soldiers' homes, but the majority of the opinion that the restoration of the canteen in the homes would be conducive to temperance. Only beer of a mild quality, with less than 5 per cent of alcohol was permitted in the homes. It seemed sufficient to satisfy the cravings for a stimulant for the old soldiers and drunkards among them was unknown. But with the abolition of the canteen the old soldiers addicted to the use of liquid stimulants will visit the groceries in the vicinity of the homes and drink the vile compounds sold there, because they cannot get the milder stimulant formerly sold under the canteen system."

"There was a warm fight between Cincinnati, O., and Saratoga, N. Y., for the national encampment in 1907," said Captain Palmer. "We had a delegation of twenty-five from Nebraska on the floor of the convention and we all favored Cincinnati as the suggestion of our delegation I managed to get the floor long enough to tell the encampment that the encampments had been held all around Omaha, and that Nebraska now gave notice that we proposed to have the national encampment come to Omaha in 1908. The proposition took remarkably well and I think we will have no difficulty in landing it for 1908. The matter is one we will put up to the Commercial club and if the proper overtures are made we will get it. It means bringing from 150,000 to 200,000 strangers to the city, and at that time we will have two or three new hotels in operation, the auditorium will be finished, and Omaha will be amply able to take care of the great crowd."

SUNDAY OUT AT KRUG PARK

Royal Canadian Band Will Give Concerts This Afternoon and Evening. The Sunday concerts by the Royal Canadian band at Krug park this afternoon and evening will comprise selections from "The Colonial Girl," "The Army Chaplain," "The Tenderfoot," "The Wizard of the Nile," and "The Sho-Gun," a novel, and "The Star of Bethlehem," a popular number. "Harvest Moon" is a shingling number, "He's Me Pal," a new flower song, "Delecta," a colonial intermezzo, "Priscilla," a medley overture, "Morse's Melodies," a medley variety, "Will You Love Me in December As You Do in May?" and a song number, "When the Harvest Moon is Shining On the River."

M'KINLEY CLUB DELEGATES

Eighteen Members Named to Attend Convention of State League of Republican Clubs. The McKinley club has named a list of eighteen delegates to attend the convention of the State League of Republican Clubs at Lincoln on the evening of August 25, or just before the republican convention date. Gurdon W. Wattles is now president of the organization and Dan J. Riley of Omaha is secretary. It is the intention for the gathering to rekindle activity among the republican clubs of the state and make them important factors in the campaign this fall. The delegates from the McKinley club are Gurdon W. Wattles, Dan J. Riley, O. S. Erwin, Frank Crawford, W. H. McKay, J. H. Adams, E. F. Brasley, Robert O. Fink, Bert C. Minor, Harry S. Byrne, H. P. Leavitt, John J. Ryder, Isador Ziegler, E. A. Baird, Herman Beal, Robert Cowell, E. L. Gustafson and Harry B. Zimman.

MANAWA HAS A GREAT WEEK

Mecca for Thousands of People Seeking Relief from the Sun's Unceasing Heat. Manawa's past week has been one of unprecedented success, the torrid days of Old Sol driving thousands to the cool resort daily. Bathing is naturally the leading feature these hot days, and notwithstanding the big capacity of the Kurauai, it is scarcely large enough to accommodate the hundreds who wish to escape the terrific heat by a cool plunge in the clear lake. A new stock of bath suits has been purchased and everything is in readiness for today's anticipated rush at Manhattan Beach. Director Nordin promises to make the last few Sunday concerts of the season one to be long remembered, and for today offers a musical program of rare merit. Mr. Pedersen, the popular fustat, will render a solo. Boating is popular, as many who do not care to go bathing take advantage of the cool lake breeze by a row on the still water. The big velvet roller coaster continues to its capacity, this aerial achievement appealing to all. A new bill will be offered at the vaudeville theater, including the latest illustrated songs. Prof. Andrews, the dare-devil aeronaut, will make his regular balloon ascension. The Japanese ball game, penny arcade, electric studio, merry-go-round, bowling alley, shooting gallery and all other attractions will enlist their share of attention.
