Dispute Between Turkey and Persia Has Assumed Serious Phase.

WAVE OF PANISLAMISM IS SPREADING

Some Officers of Egyptian Army Are Deeply Imbued with Revolutionary Sentiment and Would Welcome Trouble.

CONSTANTINOPLE, August 25.—(Special Cablegram to The Bee.)—The dispute between Turkey and Persia is assuming a rather serious outlook, due to the fact that the Turks are employing the same dilatory and aggressive methods as they are employing in Egypt. The history of the frontier dispute is a very old one, but only assumed seriousness in 1838, when the Turkish Vail of Bagdad suddenly besieged Mohammara, a Persian town. On that occasion the British and Russian governments intervened, and a convention, in which all the four governments interested were represented, was formed at Erzerum to consider the question. A map was then drawn up dealing generally with the frontier from Mount Ararat to the Persian gulf, but it was not completed until 1859.

Turks Hold Towns

Last year the Turks once more returned to the attack, and acquired the town of Vernah and a portion of the province of Lahijan, which are two of the points in dispute. They not only refused to evacuate these in response to the demand from the Persian government, but seized the town of Passovah, which is indisputably Persian territory. To save the Turkish face, a mixed commission has now gone to Passovah, to prove formally that it belongs to Persia, and the aggressive troops will, it is understood, be withdrawn, but matters drag on; the Turks are greatly strengthening their forces on the frontier, and further aggressions are feared.

As illustrating the methods of the Grand Turk nothing can be more significant than the fact which prohibits the publication in journals throughout the empire of all questions relative to Pan-Islamism. It is a question as to whether or not the discussions of this kind really do any good, since the discussions are never really stopped and the sum resultant appears to be that the people are left in densest and densest ignorance.

Wave of Pan-Islamism. The wave of Pan-Islamism which is sweeping over Egypt is a factor in politics which cannot be too seriously ignored. It was stemmed by the firmness of Great Britain eyes the Tabah incident, and by the execution of the murderers of Captain Bull at Denishawi, but only for a time. Lord Cromer has warned the government in the gravest language of the consequences of lack of firmness or the appearance of it.

But what has happened? The British government has promised frontier troops "at an early date." They have not arrived, and in spite of the facts news is being spread in subtle fashion by the native press that the British army is being reduced by the war minister and that troops cannot be spared to keep order in Egypt. The natives hold a fifth opinion of Lord Cromer—the man who has made Egypt what it is—but if his advice is disregarded it will appear in their eyes to be a sign of weakness in the once dreaded and powerful Great Britain and a spur to the campaign engineered by Mustafa Kemal Pasha and other preachers of sedition now in England to strike a blow for national independence.

Egyptians Revolting. It is firmly established that a certain number of the officers of the Egyptian army are imbued with revolutionary sentiments and would give expression to them on the first opportunity, and sheikhs continue to preach the expulsion of Christians. The Occidental patriarchate has been placed in a most awkward position by the recent attacks on Greeks in Philipopolis, as the Ottoman subjects of the patriarchate are demanding the intervention of Turkey to protect the Greek clergy and property from the Bulgarians. The ports, however, does not wish to interfere, knowing that Bulgaria will pay no attention. Otherwise there might have been witnessed another example of the Turks keeping rival Christian churches from fighting. In the meanwhile the Bulgarians declare their intention of renewing Sunday's disturbances, in order to force the departure of all the Greek clergy, whom they accuse of inciting the Greeks to attack Bulgarians in Macedonia.

GOVERNOR FACES A COURT

German Official in West Africa Accused of Killing Native by Brutal Punishment.

BERLIN, Aug. 25.—(Special Cablegram to The Bee.)—Herr Horn, the governor of Togo, German West Africa, is about to be tried for brutalities perpetrated on natives. The specific charge is that of inhuman punishment imposed upon a boy accused of stealing a trifling amount from the government funds. The boy was put through various tortures by soldiers to induce him to confess, but persisted in declaring his innocence. After a term of imprisonment and twenty-five lashes at the whipping post Herr Horn ordered the boy to be suspended from a sagittal arch, choosing a burning hot day, when the ordeal would be all the more terrible. From time to time the governor visited the scene and mockingly imitated the boy's pitiable cries for water. The governor left next day without inquiring as to the boy's fate. When, however, he returned a few hours later he found the lad dead.

FRENCH BLAME THE POPE

Enemies Say He Has Fallen Into Hands of Reactionaries of Church.

ROME, Aug. 25.—(Special Cablegram to The Bee.)—The pope's encyclical is a flat declaration to accept the terms of the French separation act. The issue concerns parish administration. The law requires that a "cult association," practically a board of trustees, shall be established in each parish. This board is made responsible for the maintenance of worship and in general for all the actions of the church. In every parish in France Catholics will be subject to ejectment from the churches. Moreover, the property of such churches reverts to the communes. Article 7 of the separation act says: "In default of any association to take over the property of an establishment of public worship, this property will be assigned by decree to the town council, which will be required to provide for the ecclesiastical district in question." The pope's encyclical leaves every commune free to apply the resources of rectorial churches to the poor fund and hospitals. The law has retarded the march of confiscation by requiring in every case a decree of court. The hope of Plus X is believed to be that the enforcement of the act will make so much trouble that the government will be led to adopt amendments acceptable to the church. The encyclical, indeed, contains a hint that the passive resistance enjoined upon French Catholics is tactical in character. The enemies of the pope are everywhere saying that he has entirely fallen into the hands of reactionaries. After condemning in the most blind and retrogressive way the Italian Catholic party known as Christian Democrats, which, while entirely subservient to the ecclesiastical authorities in spiritual matters, claim their liberty in political affairs, it is said the pontiff is about to condemn in the same fashion similar movements existing among French, English and American Catholics. In this attitude, so contrary to the policy which the pope seemed desirous of following at the beginning of his pontificate, is traced Spanish influences, headed by Cardinals Merry del Val and Vives y Tuto. This taken in connection with the reactionary tendencies manifested in dealing not only with the government of France, but the government of Italy, is causing apprehension here.

ICELANDERS ARE ASPIRING

Residents of Danish Colony Desire to Become Partner in International Affairs.

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 25.—(Special Cablegram to The Bee.)—It is probable that the recent visit of members of Iceland's Parliament, the Althing, will soon result in changes respecting the relations between Denmark and Iceland. Icelanders' desire for the adoption of bills stating that the Danish government and the Rigsdag never can interfere with the interior affairs of Iceland. They want a bill specifying all the common affairs of the two countries. Part of the Icelanders want also that King Frederick's title shall be king of Denmark and Iceland, and they also want to consider the relations between Denmark and Iceland as a union. They say: "We will conserve a common king and flag; we will belong to Denmark, but we demand home rule for governing our own affairs." It seems that Denmark is willing to accept the Icelanders' claims.

United States have not been treated seriously by the German press. Official circles do not attach importance to the emperor's recently expressed wish to see America. It is admitted that it is one of his long cherished wishes, but it is regarded as practically certain that it will remain only a wish.

SUBMARINES ARE THREATENING

French Admiral Says New Vessels Change Art of War and Ships.

PARIS, Aug. 25.—(Special Cablegram to The Bee.)—Admiral Fournier, the commander-in-chief of the French fleet, in an interview in connection with the naval maneuvers, says that the submarines spoiled all his plans of attack and that "these vessels have brought about a revolution in our armament." His words have created a deep impression, and naval experts are following his lead in declaring that submarines are fully capable of protecting French shores and should therefore be looked on in future as substitutes for battleships. BERLIN, Aug. 25.—(Special Cablegram to The Bee.)—The new German submarine boat which was launched at Kiel the other day is provided with the Dequevillay submergence system. This enables the boat to disappear under water and reappear at the surface without diminishing speed and renders it a matter of extreme difficulty for an enemy's artillerymen to bring their guns to bear on the attacking submarine.

ICE MAN FROZEN TO DEATH

Driver Crawls to Cart on Hot Day and Dies After Freezing Limbs.

PARIS, Aug. 25.—(Special Cablegram to The Bee.)—A man was frozen to death at Lyons the other day, though the temperature at the time was somewhere about 80 in the shade. He was the driver of an ice cart, and at 1 o'clock in the afternoon found the heat too much for him and got inside his cart for coolness. The sudden change of temperature overcame him and he fainted. When he was found an hour later his legs and arms were frozen and he died at the hospital late in the day.

BENGAL STUDENTS UNRULY

Party Injures Missionaries Accused of Carrying Away Woman Against Her Will.

CALCUTTA, Aug. 25.—(Special Cablegram to The Bee.)—According to reports received here two European missionaries, Rev. Mr. Hewitt and Rev. Mr. Shaul, with four women and a Bengali female teacher, were attacked at Santipur station in Bengal, recently, by a crowd of young native students. The students had assembled to welcome Bepin Behari Pal, who was coming to lecture on Swajil, and seeing the Bengal teacher, who was ill with fever, it was suggested that she was being forcibly carried off. The students rushed at the party of Europeans, and in the scuffle both the missionaries were wounded. The magistrate went to Santipur by the next train and arrested four of the culprits, ordering the Swajil meeting to be stopped. The students have now begged for pardon, and promised not to join in any more demonstrations. They have also agreed to give 500 rupees to the Moherpore relief fund.

HUNTER FIGHTS WITH EAGLES

Birds Attack Him as He Tries to Capture Young on Alpine Crag.

GENEVA, Aug. 25.—(Special Cablegram to The Bee.)—A chamois hunter named Hess had a desperate fight with eagles on a narrow ledge overlooking a precipice in the mountains above Engelberg. He had located an eagle's nest and climbed up alone with the object of capturing the young birds. About thirty yards from the nest he laid down his rifle, which hindered his movements. As soon as he reached the nest, in which were two eaglets, the parent birds swept down from a neighboring height and fiercely attacked him. For twenty minutes a desperate struggle took place, Hess defending himself with a knife, expecting every moment to be swept off the ledge. At last Hess succeeded in killing the male bird and its mate flew away. Hess, though bleeding from severe wounds, arrived safely at Engelberg several hours later.

LAUGHS AT DRAGO DOCTRINE

Italian Newspaper Says It Thinks Well of Doctrine of President Monroe.

ROME, Aug. 25.—The semi-official Popolo Romano today devoted a leading article to the international American conference at Rio Janeiro, in which it says: "No European country can object to Monroeism, but no one will admit the Drago doctrine, which means that Latin America can contract debts in Europe and not pay them." The paper ridicules the idea that Drago doctrine will be presented for the consideration of the next peace conference at The Hague as calculated to be a step forward in the direction of assuring the peace of the world. The Popolo Romano adds: "Such a doctrine needs cannon to support it. It does not complete the Monroe doctrine, but compromises it." The paper praises Secretary Root for his attitude of reserve on the subject.

AMIR READS NEWSPAPERS

Ruler of Afghanistan Keeps Posted on Current Events of the Nations.

DOMBAY, Aug. 25.—(Special Cablegram to The Bee.)—According to accounts received here during the late crisis in Egypt the amir of Afghanistan took a strong interest in what was going on, having all newspapers that contained any news of Egypt, Arabia and Turkey sent daily by runner to him from Peshawar. The motor car which was presented to the amir by the British mission to Kabul has been in constant use and his majesty is delighted with it. The amir is arranging for the manufacture of boots on the same principle as is carried out in India, and has given orders for machinery, etc., to start a factory.

SECRETARY ROOT GOES WEST

Plans for Reception in Chile Modified by the Earthquake at Valparaiso.

SANTIAGO, Chile, Aug. 25.—The United States cruiser Charleston, with Secretary Root on board, has arrived at Punta Arenas on the Strait of Magellan. The Charleston will reach Lota, 300 miles south of Valparaiso, August 27, where Secretary Root will be received by the Chilean foreign minister and the American minister, Mr. Hicks. The ministers will go to Lota on a Chilean cruiser. A great reception had been planned here for Mr. Root, but all the plans were changed as a result of the earthquake. The secretary is expected to arrive at Valparaiso about September 2. His reception there will be informal and he will come to Santiago to extend his personal condolences to President Reiso.

OLD FRIEND SUES PRINCESS

Man Who Aided Her to Leave Sanatorium Wants Fee Promised for Work.

DRESDEN, Aug. 25.—(Special Cablegram to The Bee.)—Herr Thormann of Dresden is suing Princess Louise of Coburg for the sum of 50,000, which he claims is due to him for arranging the princess' elopement with Count Matschick, her lover, from the sanitarium at Bad Elster in 1904. Herr Thormann alleges that he was promised great sums by the princess and by the count, but that he has only extracted 150 from them by the most persistent entreaties.

SOCIALISTS LEAD PILLAGERS

Such Story Comes with a Report of Lawlessness at Cape Town.

CAPE TOWN, Aug. 25.—(Special Cablegram to The Bee.)—Considerable pillaging of shops has taken place in the poorer quarters of the town by crowds alleged to consist of unemployed, but really composed largely of the colored hooligan element. The pillaging followed upon a deputation to Dr. Jameson of the unemployed, led by members of the social democratic federation, a small but extremely active party here.

British to Defend Trophy

LONDON, Aug. 25.—A team of men has been selected by the Queen's Own Westminster volunteers to defend the shield presented by Sir Howard Vivian for competition between the Queen's and Seventh regiment National Guard of New York. The Queen's won the shield at Bilestey last year and will defend it at Creedmore, Long Island, on October 2 and 3.

Atlantic Liner Aground

ROTTERDAM, Aug. 25.—While coming up the river last night the Holland-American liner Neius Amsterdam, bound to this city from New York, grounded near Masslum. Its passengers were transferred to steamers and tugs and brought to this city, part of the steamer's cargo was discharged into lighters and the vessel will be refloated today.

Political Convicts Pardoned.

BERLIN, Aug. 25.—The official Reichsmessenger today published an imperial decree pardoning all persons convicted of lese majeste toward the emperor or any member of the royal family, in commemoration of the forthcoming baptism of his majesty's grandson, who was born July 4 last and will be baptized August 25.
